CHINESE MAY ADOPT ENGLISH.

Common Language Needed to Unify the Peoples.

Chinese Tongue Cumbersome, Says Chinese Editor.

Proposal to Abolish Official Court Language.

[BY A. P. NIGHT WIRE TO THE TIMES.]

SAN FRANCISCO, Jan. 2.—Now that they see the way clear to a realization of their long cherished ambitions for the establishment of a republican form of government in China, leaders of the revolutionary movement in this country are discussing plans for the unification of the Chinese peoples through the medium of a common language. It is the intention of the leaders of this movement for one language for all to make English the language of general use in China, but before this hope can be realized there is much educational work to be done in converting the more than 100 different dialects into an understandable language for the whole people of China.

Ng Poon Chew, editor of a Chinese daily paper in this city, and one of the most highly educated Chinese on the Pacific Coast, spoke of the intention of the revolutionary leaders today as follows:

"The progress of China long has been halted by the inability to convey to the people as a whole any advanced thought through the medium of a single language. The Chinese language in its pure form is a cumbersome one, difficult to write, and this fault has been augmented by the fact that throughout the empire more than 100 dialects are spoken, gone having much in common with any other.

"We who have worked for the advancement of our country have realized from the beginning that education along a common line, more than any other one thing, must be depended upon to bring to China the best that is hoped for in this progressive movement.

"English has been taught in the universities and in the schools in the big cities for years, and a considerable number of American teachers have been employed. Many of the young men also have been sent to this country to be educated.

"The leaders of the progressive movement realize that the closer China establishes relations with the United States the more rapid will be China's advancement, and to this effect the purpose is to make English the language generally spoken in China. That English eventually will be the language universally spoken in China is a possibility, but it will take many, many years to bring this about.

"First efforts will be directed toward converting the dialects into one common language, and this will mean the early abolishment of the stilted official court language of the Manchus. This will be accomplished as soon as possible, and coincidentally the government will begin the movement to teach English to the rising generation."

ERROR COSTS TWO LIVES.

Head-On Collision at Salt Lake City Caused by Improper Use of Telephone System.

[BY A. P. NIGHT WIRE TO THE TIMES.]

SALT LAKE CITY, Jan. 2.—A mistake in calling a telephone number cost two men their lives, according to officials of the Denver and Rio Grande Railroad, who investigated the collision between a switch engine and a south-bound freight train in the local yards last night, in which Fireman Gibson and Switchman Conley were killed.

Dispatcher R. C. McLane of the Denver and Rio Grande received a message over the telephone last night stating that a north-bound engine was off the track in the yards, and asking that another engine be sent to help clear the track. The dispatcher ordered the switch engine on which Gibson and Conley were working to the north yard, after warning his informant to see that the incoming trains were flagged. The switch engine met an incoming freight headon.

It was discovered today that an Oregon Short Line engine was derailed in the yards at the time of the wreck, and whoever telephoned for another engine thought he was calling the Oregon Short Line dispatcher's office. Trains were flagged on the Short Line tracks, but not on the Rio Grande. It has not been learned who sent the telephone message.

PROMINENT PERSIANS ARE HANGED BY THE RUSSIANS.

[BY A. P. NIGHT WIRE TO THE TIMES.]

TABRIZ (Persia) Jan. 2.—Eight persons were hanged yesterday by order of the Russian court-martial and another eight were executed this afternoon in connection with the recent attack on the Russian troops.

The Russian court-martial is exacting a heavy toll for the casualties suffered by the Russian troops. The prisoners are tried in batches and in nearly every case are hanged summarily.

Their bodies are displayed throughout the day in the public square. Among those hanged were Shegat Ulleima, the head of one of the religious sects, and the chief member of the local assembly, Seik Salem.

Shua Ed Dowleh, brother of the ex-Shah, arrived here today to assume the Governorship. He was escorted by a body of Russian Cossacks.

Through naval sources it was learned that the imperial troops at that point were trying to withdraw peaceably when attacked by the revolutionary forces.

AMERICANS IN CHINA REPORTED TO BE SAFE.

[BY A. P. NIGHT WIRE TO THE TIMES.]

WASHINGTON, Jan. 2.—Virtually all American residents in China, it was reported to the State Department today, are safely located at the treaty ports. Figures from American diplomatic representatives in China show that 190 foreigners, including thirty-five Americans, were reported on November 1 to have departed down the Yangtse River from Chungking, Sse Chuen province, under the convoy of a gunboat.

The total number of Americans in the province of Shen Si is reported to be twelve adults and nine children; in Kansu province, eleven American adults and seven children. These people are in the inaccessible regions.

Several Americans are said still to be in the provinces of Hu Nan and Hu Peh.

All American women and children have left Chang Chow and other points in the southern part of Fukien province, while those in the immediate vicinity of Foo Chow have withdrawn to that port.

The many American missionaries in Kwangtung province are concentrated at Canton, Wu Chow and other points where protection by foreign gunboats is available.

CHINESE IN DENVER HONOR NEW BORN CHILD

[BY A. P. NIGHT WIRE TO THE TIMES.]

DENVER (Colo.) Jan. 2.—Republican Chinese here are paying homage to their "child of the republic," who was born last night at the height of the local celebration of the inauguration of President Sun Yat Sen and the formal inception of China's new government. The baby, a boy, was born to Mr. and Mrs. C. M. Look. Look is a wealthy Chinese merchant.

Besides being the "mascot" of local Chinese progressives, the tiny oriental also has the distinction of being the only baby born in Denver on the first day of 1912.

CHANGE IN CALENDAR TOO LATE TO FOLLOW.

[BY A. P. NIGHT WIRE TO THE TIMES.]

SAN FRANCISCO, Jan. 2.—Owing to the lateness of the order by President Sun Yat Sen of the new Chinese republic, changing the Chinese calendar to conform to the European, the Chinese of San Francisco will not attempt to celebrate the New Year this week but will observe the old day, February 17, as usual. Next year, however, January 1 will be celebrated in accordance with President Sun's proclamation.

Tong King Chong, secretary of the Chinese National Association of America, in making this announcement today, explained that the celebration of the Chinese New Year involves extensive preparation. It is customary for Chinese to pay all debts and obligations before the new year in order to start it with a clean slate. The celebration extends over a full week and is one of the most important observed by them.

SHERIFF DEPUTIZES WOMAN.

Widow of Late Supreme Court Justice Vested With Authority to Arrest.

[BY DIRECT WIRE TO THE TIMES.]

NEW YORK, Jan. 2.—[Exclusive Dispatch.] Mrs. Caroline Truax, widow of the late Supreme Court Justice Charles H. Truax, is the first woman deputy sheriff of the county of New York. She was named this morning by Sheriff Julius Harburger, who took office yesterday.

When Judge Truax died, two years ago, Mrs. Truax received the largest part of his estate, valued at $175,000. Mrs. Truax wrote Sheriff Harburger a formal application to be made a special deputy sheriff.

"I am not an advocate of woman suffrage,' she said. "Nevertheless, I do believe that a woman can do the work of deputy sheriffs as well as men qualifications I possesse the requisite qualifications, would you consider me as an applicant for a special deputy sheriffship?"

She was then appointed

SUN YAT SEN TAKES OATH AS PRESIDENT OF CHINA.

[BY A. P. NIGHT WIRE TO THE TIMES.]

NANKING (China) Jan. 2.—Dr. Sun Yat Sen took the oath of office today as provisional President of the republic of China, and was formally invested with the powers of Chief Executive.

The ceremony was simple, but dignified. It was attended by all the prominent men of the revolutionary party.

Dr. Sun, who is well known in America and Europe, after his arrival in Shanghai, some ten days ago, was elected President by the National Assembly of reformers representing the provinces of China proper, then in session here, by an almost unanimous vote.

CHINA'S CABINET.

Vice-President—Yi Yuen Hang.

Finance Minister—Chin Chin Tao.

Premier and War Minister—Huang Sing.

Foreign Minister—Wang Chueng Wei.

Marine Minister—Capt. Wang.

Chief of Staff—Gen. Hsu.

President Sun Yat Sen desires the convention, which is to decide upon the form of government, to be held at Shanghai.

The President will hold an official reception tomorrow, at which he will receive the people of Nanking without discrimination.

The first official act of Dr. Sun Yat Sen, the President of the new republic, was to change the Chinese calendar. He made New Year's Day the first day of his Presidency, thus marking the commencement of a new era and making the Chinese year begin henceforth on the same day as the year begins in most other countries of the world.

Accompanied by a large suite and protected by a strong bodyguard, Dr. Sun Yat Sen left Shanghai in a special train for Nanking. The trip was made without incident, except for the enthusiasm of the greeting accorded to the new President at all the principal stations.

GREETED WITH CHEERS.

Dr. Sun reached the new Chinese capital at 5:30 in the evening and was greeted with loud cheers. Many prominent men among the revolutionaries met him at the station and accompanied him to the government house, the route to which was lined by 10,000 soldiers. The whole town was decorated with flags, warships and merchant vessels along the river dressed ship and a presidential salute was fired from the guns of all the forts in the vicinity.

The government house was reached at 7 o'clock. The gates, the inner avenues and the courtyards surrounded like it were decorated with myriads of colored electric lights.

Dr. Sun was dressed in khaki uniform. He held a reception, which was attended by the Governors-General and other high officials.

In the audience chamber delegates representing eighteen provinces of China proper took up their position around a raised platform. When Dr. Sun entered all bowed their heads. The President-elect proceeded to the central platform and there took the oath of office.

PRESIDENT'S ADDRESS.

Afterward he delivered an address in which he promised to disenthrone the Manchus, to re-establish peace, to promote trade and to devote his entire energy to the Chinese nation and aid the Chinese people to realize their aspirations. When the Manchus had finally abdicated and peace was restored to the nation he would, he said, resign his provisional office.

The chairman of the delegates from the provinces then handed the new President the seal of office.

President Sun then delivered a lengthy address in the form of a proclamation. In this he announced that a strong central government would be organized, the entire administrative system remodeled and modernized and a Parliament representative of the people be elected. The provinces, he said, would be autonomous as regards local affairs and each would select its own Governor. The army and navy would be made national institutions and be under the control of the central Parliament, which would also deal with the finances of the country. The whole fiscal system would be readjusted, but he was sure the income of the country was sufficient to discharge its liabilities and to defray ordinary expenses.

After giving many details as to his programme for the development of the resources of China, President Sun referred to the relations of China with foreign countries. He expressed on behalf of the new republic the feeling of thankfulness that prevailed at the consistent neutrality of the foreign nations. He said that the anti-foreign feeling which had previously existed, would not appear in the new China.

RESPONSIVE TO PEOPLE.

The government, he concluded, was responsive to the will of the people and he was assured that unity would prevail among all the provinces in supporting the republic. By doing its duty as a nation he hoped that the new republic would be recognised in the council of nations, and he could promise that the foreign policy of his government would be conducive to the peace of the world.

The personnel of the Republican Cabinet will be announced tomorrow. There is every probability that Li Yuen Heng, the republican commander-in-chief, will become Vice-President, while Gen. Huang Sing will be selected Premier.

President Sun this morning held a reception for the principal generals in command of the revolutionary troops in Nanking, which will remain the seat of the provisional government for the present. It is possible that the capital will be afterward changed to Wu Chang, but it is certain that Peking will not be selected.

WILL SUPPORT THRONE.

[BY A. P. NIGHT WIRE TO THE TIMES.]

ST. PETERSBURG, Jan. 2.—A message from Kalgan, in the Chinese province of Chi Li, says that the princes of Southern Mongolia, who are loyal to the Taching dynasty, have resolved unanimously to support the imperial government in fighting the Chinese revolutionaries. They say they will declare their independence in the event of the establishment of a Chinese republic.

Busy Session.

CONGRESS HAS PLANS FOR MUCH WORK; TARIFF FIRST

[BY A. P. NIGHT WIRE TO THE TIMES.]

WASHINGTON, Jan. 2.—A busy session is in prospect for Congress when it reconvenes tomorrow. The deliberations may run well into the summer without even a halt for the national conventions.

With the Russian treaty abrogated and the pension bill and urgent deficiency appropriations out of the way in the House, the tariff legislation is expected, as soon as the Ways and Means Committee can send out the revised schedules. The iron and steel schedule probably will come first, and is expected within ten days. Tariff legislation, however, by no means, is all that is on the legislative programme, for heads of many important committees are certain to exert pressure for the consideration of important bills.

Anti-trust and labor legislation and revision of the statutes relating to injunctions are to be pressed by the Judiciary Committee.

Panama Canal legislation is to be urged by the Committee on Interstate and Foreign Commerce, members of which have just returned from a three weeks' inspection of the Canal Zone.

The Rules Committee has under consideration important matters, including proposed investigations of the money trust, the shipping combine and the so-called "harvester trust." This committee contemplates recommending the appointment of a joint committee to conduct a broad inquiry into all three subjects.

Investigations into the United States Steel Corporation and the sugar situation will be resumed next week. Each inquiry is expected to result in important recommendations.

The Committee on Foreign Affairs will press legislation affecting treaties with foreign nations, and the committees on expenditures in the various departments are planning to renew work with vigor for the purpose of recommending economies.

Many other matters are to be considered, among the most important being the appropriations which the Democrats have in their control for the first time for sixteen years. The curtailment of many appropriations is looked for. Legislation affecting the army and navy will be considered.

The tariff programme probably will be considered in a caucus of the House Democrats soon. The wool bill has been postponed until the full report of the tariff board can be digested. Meanwhile the iron and steel, chemical and sugar schedules are to be considered by the Committee on Ways and Means. Food schedules will be taken up later.

The Sherwood pension bill, passed by the House, will come up for the Senate's consideration soon. The bill providing for direct election of United States Senators still is in conference. The conferees are to meet within a few days, but thus far no agreement has been reached.

PROCEDURE TO RESTORE CHILD.

Los Angeles Mother May Recover Little Girl.

Daughter in Custody of Woman in Roumania.

[BY DIRECT WIRE TO THE TIMES.]

SACRAMENTO (Cal.) Jan. 2.—[Exclusive Dispatch.] Secretary of State Jordan certified to some papers today which may have the result of restoring to a heartbroken mother in Los Angeles the custody of her little girl, who is now held prisoner by an avaricious woman in Bucharest, Roumania. The papers certified are a power of attorney given by Mrs. Mina Luther Schwab of No. 332 Towne avenue, Los Angeles, to her brother, Lazar Jupiter of Bucharest, authorizing him to receive custody of the daughter, Helene.

It appears that Mrs. Schwab came to this country three years ago and left the child in custody of a nurse, who was to care for it until the mother had earned enough money to bring the child to America. Shortly afterward, the nurse died and another woman took charge of the child. Now the woman demands $4000 before she will let the child come to its mother.

Certain persons in Los Angeles have secured themselves in the case and tied it up with Roland B. Harvey, the United States Consul-General at Bucharest. Harvey wrote back that it would be necessary to have a power of attorney before the Roumanian authorities could take forcible possession of the child. Force will be necessary, he pointed out, since the woman has refused to give up the child. Until the necessary papers are sent him, Harvey is having the Bucharest police guard the interloping woman's home to prevent her from making away with the child.

Secretary Jordan made the necessary attestations today and forwarded the papers to Los Angeles, whence they will be sent to Bucharest and steps taken at once to free the little girl and send her to her mother.

INSANITY MADE DEFENSE.

Witnesses at Trial of Clergyman Accused of Burglary Testify to His Queer Mental Processes.

[BY A. P. NIGHT WIRE TO THE TIMES.]

EUREKA (Cal.) Jan. 2.—Insanity was made the defense in the case of Rev. Henry T. Adams, on trial for burglary, when the prosecution rested today. A number of witnesses took the stand to tell of the queer actions by the Arcata clergyman on various occasions.

Just before dark on the evening of the arrest, Adams was seen standing in his front porch with nothing but his shirt on, according to one witness. When pulled inside the house by the witness, Adams is said to have thrown out the back way on the ground, as he was afraid. His desire to see his aged grandfather in public was also put in the record as proof of the clergyman's mental derangement.

F. A. Wright, principal of the Arcata High School, testified that on one occasion Adams, after inviting a number of guests to his home and having a card game arranged, told the guests they could play as long as they liked, but that he was going to bed, and then did so. He also testified to several minor incidents in his acquaintance with the clergyman.

It is expected that arguments in the case will be reached Thursday or Friday.

POLICE ACCUSED OF GRAFT.

Shake-Up Occurs in Portland Department as Result of Indictment of Captain, Who Loses Star.

[BY DIRECT WIRE TO THE TIMES.]

PORTLAND (Or.) Jan. 2.—[Exclusive Dispatch.] Sweeping charges that the Portland police department is corrupt today as the result of the indictment last Saturday of Capt. George H. Bailey on the charge of accepting protection money from keepers of the underworld. On the order of Chief of Police Slover, Capt. Bailey was relieved of his star pending the result of the graft charges and there was a general shake-up among the officials.

Capt. Moore, who had been in charge of the day relief, was shifted to the night relief in Bailey's place and Lieutenant Riley was given the day relief. There was also a general upheaval among the patrolmen and detectives, resulting from the investi-

PORTLAND PRISONER PAPERS OF AN ANG

[BY DIRECT WIRE TO THE TIMES.]

PORTLAND (Or.) Jan. 2.—[Exclusive Dispatch.] Portland police tonight are endeavoring to ascertain the real identity of "Dr. J. C. Day Smith," who terrorized people in the Perkins Hotel, a prominent hostelry last night, and who is now believed to be Frank C. Smith of Los Angeles. Papers in his possession indicate that he is Smith or has come into the possession of Smith's effects. Day, or Smith, was detected coming out of a room not his own. When the hotel management sought an explanation he locked himself in his room, armed with a revolver defied capture. He also brandished the gun at a crowd that gathered in the street below him. He was arrested.

Day had a "demit" from the lodge of Grand Arch Masons in Chicago, in 1898, and he wears the charm of the order. He also carried two bank books issued to Smith, shares in a mining and oil company, a power of attorney issued by Smith to Nellie Day, of Fresno, and a will leaving the testator's property to the same person. With these papers were ten shares of the stock of a realty company, with a note saying that they were worth $2000 and should go to the woman indicated in the will.

Smith's business address is given as No. 542 Amestoy building, Los Angeles. The description of Dr. J. C. Day is Smith's and the question of identity or is doubtful.

Other articles found in the prisoner are two books of supposed check forms, one on the Ameloma Savings bank drawn by John A. Day, travelers' checks for $1640, issued to Smith, and a letter to H. H. Chase, a real estate man with the name of Lyndon Crosby, relative to the purchase of some property near Grants Pass, and a box of morphine and hypodermic needles.

Day admits that he is addicted to the use of morphine, and has used thirty grains a day. He has correspondence with a number of persons in Los Angeles, Tex., from which city he has been taking drugs, and has many papers relating to his affairs in Alaska.

The prisoner has been carrying a literary man's name, and has a great bulk of manuscript, a copy of a letter to a publishing house in Chicago, offering a story, and a letter to, or from, the author of a book on the American negro, by Kelly Miller, of Howard University, Washington, D. C. Day denies that he is a writer, and says that he found the manuscript in Victoria.

PROCEDURE TO RESTORE CHILD.

Los Angeles Mother May Recover Little Girl.

[BY DIRECT WIRE TO THE TIMES.]

SACRAMENTO (Cal.) Jan. 2.—[Exclusive Dispatch.] Secretary of State ... certified to some papers today which may have the result of restoring to a heartbroken mother in Los Angeles the custody of her little girl, ... now held prisoner by an ... woman in Bucharest, Roumania. The papers certified are ... of attorney given by Mrs. Etna ... Schwab of No. 233 Towne avenue, Los Angeles, to her brother, ... Jupiter of Bucharest, authorizing him to receive custody of the child, Helene.

It appears that Mrs. Schwab came to this country three years ago and left the child in custody of a nurse, with instructions to care for it until the mother had earned enough money to bring the child to America. Shortly thereafter, the nurse died and another woman took charge of the child. Now the woman demands $4000 before she will let the child come to its mother. Certain persons in Los Angeles have interested themselves in the case and ... with Roland S. Harvey, the United States Consul-General at Bucharest. Harvey wrote back that it would be necessary to have a power of attorney before the Roumanian authorities could take forcible possession of the child. Force will be necessary, it pointed out, since the woman refused to give up the child. Unless necessary papers are sent him, Harvey is having the Bucharest police ... the interloping woman's ... to prevent her from making away with the child.

Secretary Jordan made the necessary ... today and forwarded the papers to Los Angeles, whence they will be sent to Bucharest and Harvey will at once to free the little girl and send her to her mother.

TOO MANY UNEMPLOYED.

[BY DIRECT WIRE TO THE TIMES.]

PORTLAND (Or.) Jan. 2.—[Exclusive Dispatch.] The attempt of this city to furnish work at reduced wages to all needy unemployed assumed serious proportions today when 500 men appeared at the office of Park Superintendent Mische and applied for work under the special city appropriation of $10,000. So great was the rush for employment that applicants were closely questioned and only 200 were added to the ganga now on the city pay roll. City officials today decided that no more work would be given single men, under the special appropriation, at least for the present. They will continue to supply men with families.

Attracted by the announcement that Portland had jobs for the unemployed, hundreds of men are pouring into this city from Seattle, Tacoma and other northwestern cities. This complicates the situation greatly, as the city wishes to continue assisting her own deserving unemployed, and does not know how to avoid employing those coming in from other places.

FAIR WORK CAN BEGIN.

First Installment of State's Exposition Tax Is Paid In to the State Treasury.

[BY A. P. NIGHT WIRE TO THE TIMES.]

SACRAMENTO, Jan. 2.—Rapid and substantial progress toward maturing the plans for the Panama Pacific International Exposition to be held in San Francisco in 1915 has been assured through the payment into the State treasury of $551,442.24, representing the first installment of the $5,000,000 exposition tax. The figures were announced today by State Comptroller Nye, following the semi-annual settlement of county treasurers with the State.

This money has been raised by virtue of the bond issue authorized by the voters of the State. Each year for four years the State is required to raise $1,250,000, and to get that money this year the State Board of Equalization levied a tax of 5 cents on the $100 on all taxable property, including railroads and corporations.

State Comptroller Nye estimates that the first installment represents about two-thirds of the total tax for the year, and on this basis he places the total installment for the first year at $1,277,175.86, or approximately $27,000 more than is required. At all events the 5-cent tax insures the full amount of the first year's installment.

This first installment of more than $500,000 will be available for the use of the exposition directors immediately, and with this working capital it is expected that they will be able to go ahead with their work with a vim. Heretofore what money has been spent has been put up by the directors from their own pockets. They will now be reimbursed for what money they have spent, by filing the proper claims with the State Board of Control.

MERIT TO COUNT VOTES.

LONG SESSION MAPPED OUT.

[BY A. P. NIGHT WIRE TO THE TIMES.]

PHOENIX (Ariz.) Jan. 2.—The official canvassing board, designated by the enabling act of the new Arizona Constitution, to canvass the returns of the first State election, held December 12, will meet here tomorrow and begin their work.

The returns of each of the precincts, under the law, were sent direct to this board, instead of being counted by the Supervisors of the respective counties, as is usually the case, and it may take the board two weeks to finish its labors, as there are nearly 400 precincts to be counted.

All clerical arrangements have been perfected and the returns classified and placed in readiness for presentation to the board.

REQUISITIONS ISSUED.

REQUESTS ARE EXCHANGED.

[BY A. P. NIGHT WIRE TO THE TIMES.]

SACRAMENTO, Jan. 2.—The Governor's office issued a requisition upon the Governor of Oregon today for the return to San Francisco of Morris Goldberg, who is under arrest in Portland. Goldberg is wanted for stealing a diamond ring from M. M. Morris of San Francisco.

The Governor's office also honored the request of the Governor of Indiana for the return from San Diego of Oscar L. Van Dorn, who is wanted for breaking parole in Indiana.

WIFE REPENTS HASTY ACTION.

Former Actress Anxious to Rejoin Her Husband.

Leaves Him Hurriedly in the Hawaiian Islands.

Engages Passage Back to Honolulu on First Boat.

[BY DIRECT WIRE TO THE TIMES.]

SAN FRANCISCO, Jan. 2.—[Exclusive Dispatch.] Mrs. Jack Roberts, a young and pretty actress, known in San Francisco, and two years ago, before she married Roberts, a wealthy cafe proprietor, in 1909, was a sensation in the islands as a Salome dancer, was a passenger on the Oceanic steamer Sierra, which arrived from Hawaii today.

According to the passengers and attaches of the ship, the petite former actress spent most of her time in her stateroom crying and bewailing the fact that she unceremoniously left her husband and child on December 27, and took passage on the steamer for San Francisco.

In Honolulu, Roberts is known as the "much-married man." The pretty actress was his fifth wife.

After the Sierra was at sea a day, Mrs. Roberts relented her hasty action and began a series of wireless communications with her husband. He was at first obdurate and told her he wanted nothing more to do with her.

Three days out, while the Sierra was still within the wireless zone of Honolulu, the actress received this message:

"Dear: Take the next steamer back."

Mrs. Roberts, who is well supplied with funds, will return to Honolulu tomorrow on the Pacific Mail liner Manchuria.

"CRAZY" FOR HORSES.

Girl Horse Thief of Idaho Is Committed to Insane Asylum Because of Her Mania.

[BY DIRECT WIRE TO THE TIMES.]

BLACKFOOT (Idaho) Jan. 2.—[Exclusive Dispatch.] Marian Kirkpatrick, known as the girl horse thief of Idaho, was committed to the State Insane Asylum today. The girl has repeatedly been in trouble because of thefts of horses and an examining board of physicians decided that her extreme fondness for the animals made her mentally irresponsible.

Miss Kirkpatrick was awaiting trial on a charge of stealing a horse from a ranch near Bruneau, in Gwynee county, having been bound over to the district court. After taking the horse, she rode it to Boise, where she sold it for $45.

When the charge of horse stealing was first made, Miss Kirkpatrick put up such a strong defense that she interested the women of Boise, who took up her case and secured her temporary release. It then developed that she had been guilty of the same offense in the past.

HILLMAN ASKS REHEARING.

SAYS RECORD IS INCOMPLETE.

[BY A. P. NIGHT WIRE TO THE TIMES.]

SAN FRANCISCO, Jan. 2.—Clarence D. Hillman, a wealthy Seattle land promoter, sentenced to two years in the McNeil's Island prison for using the mails to defraud clients, filed a petition in the United States Circuit Court of Appeals here today for a rehearing. A continuance was ordered by the court until February 5. In the petition a rehearing is asked for on the ground that the records submitted to the Court of Appeals were incomplete and not sufficient to show full facts of the case. If the final decision of the court should be adverse to Hillman a suspension of judgment for forty-five days is asked for in order that further appeal may be carried to the Supreme Court of the United States.

SACRAMENTO MAN APPEALS.

[BY A. P. NIGHT WIRE TO THE TIMES.]

SACRAMENTO, Jan. 2.—William Henley, a local attorney, arrested several days ago under the new statute of 1911, which makes it possible to send victims of drink or drugs to the State asylum for treatment, is making a test of the law before the Third District Court of Appeals.

The case was argued and submitted this morning, and the court took the matter under advisement. Henley was arrested on a charge of habitual drunkenness, and thrown into jail. He was refused bail.

BREAKS UP A COLD AND CURES GRIPPE

The Most Severe Cold and Grippe Misery Will Be Relieved in Just a Few Hours.

You can surely end Grippe and break up the most severe cold, either in head, chest, back, stomach or limbs, by taking a dose of Pape's Cold Compound every two hours until three consecutive doses are taken.

It promptly relieves the most miserable headache, dullness, head and nose stuffed up, feverishness, sneezing, sore throat, mucous catarrhal discharges, running of the nose, soreness stiffness and rheumatic twinges.

Take this harmless Compound as directed, without interference with your usual duties and with the knowledge that there is no other medicine made anywhere else in the world, which will cure your cold or end Grippe misery as promptly and without any other assistance or bad after-effects as a 25-cent package of Pape's Cold Compound, which any druggist in the world can supply.

Pape's Cold Compound is the result of three years' research at a cost of more than fifty thousand dollars, and contains no quinine, which we have conclusively demonstrated is not effective in the treatment of colds or grippe.

ATTORNEYS GATHER EVIDENCE.

[BY A. P. NIGHT WIRE TO THE TIMES.]

SACRAMENTO, Jan. 2.—A Committee of Five from the Sacramento Bar Association, which is to investigate the action of Attorney A. H. Carpenter of Stockton in bringing impeachment charges before the last Legislature against the members of the Third District Court of Appeals, sitting at Sacramento, has been appointed by acting President Arthur M. Seymour, and will immediately take steps, it is announced, to gather evidence against the Stockton lawyer and file charges before the California Bar Association.

Formal charges are necessary to bring the matter to the attention of the State association, and since the impeachment proceedings were instituted here, the local association decided to take the initiative.

TRAIN HITS ROCK SLIDE.

EQUIPMENT GOES IN DITCH.

[BY A. P. NIGHT WIRE TO THE TIMES.]

OROVILLE (Cal.) Jan. 2.—Westbound freight train No. 51, on the Western Pacific, ran into a rock slide near Poe station late this afternoon and the engine and two cars were derailed. No one was injured. Traffic will be delayed for at least eight hours, as many of the huge boulders will have to be blasted before the debris can be removed from the tracks.

Two military trains which left Salt Lake City this morning are expected to reach their destination, San Francisco, on schedule time.

[BY A. P. NIGHT WIRE TO THE TIMES.]

STOCKTON (Cal.) Jan. 2.—The inquest held this afternoon over the remains of John Gofield, the government inspector who was killed Sunday by Harry Ashland, a small farmer at Avena, revealed, according to evidence given by the wife of the murderer, that Gofield ingratiated himself into her confidence and that the relations between her and the dead man were not forced upon her. When Ashland shot Gofield he told the police that he did so because his wife had been attacked.

COUNTRY WILD OVER REAL HAIR GROWER

THEIR METHOD DISCOVERED AT LAST.

$100 Reward If They Fail—Send Coupon.

That the American people are very quick to recognize an article of real merit is proven by the rapidly increasing demand for Radiance, a remarkable new treatment for the hair which has just recently been discovered. While this new treatment for baldness, dandruff, gray hair, falling hair, itching scalp, etc., is remarkably simple, it is a fact that nothing like it has ever been placed on the market before, although it can readily be seen by the treatment that this is the only safe, and most common-sense treatment, and that the success must follow in an astonishingly short space of time.

The proprietors of this remarkable treatment realize the fact that the public has had so much unsatisfactory experience with worthless treatments that a presentation of real merit is likely to be classed as a simple "hair tonic," and after giving the Radiance treatment a severe test in some of the worst cases of baldness, dandruff, falling hair, grayness, itching scalp, they guarantee satisfactory results or money back.

Upon receiving the coupon below, the Radiance Laboratory will send their guarantee which tells all about the $100 reward to all readers of the Los Angeles Times, together with full, free information regarding the new treatment. Don't send any money, for particulars are free. Simply cut out and send in the coupon below, and you will receive by return mail, full particulars regarding this remarkable discovery.

Baldness, Gray Hair, Itching Scalp, Etc.
FREE RADIANCE COUPON.

Cut this coupon out and mail to the Radiance Laboratory, Dept. 244, Scranton, Pa., for free information regarding Radiance, the new discovery for growing hair, conditioning dandruff, restoring gray or faded hair to its natural color and correcting all scalp and hair troubles.

Good for one week to all Los Angeles Times readers.

Day admits that he is addicted to the use of morphine to the extent of thirty grains a day. He has correspondence with a sanitarium in Houston, Tex., from which it appears he has been taking treatment. He also has many papers showing that he has been in Alaska.

The prisoner has pretensions to being a literary man and in his trunks is a great bulk of manuscript. He had a copy of a letter sent an eastern magazine, offering a series of articles to refute the attacks of Reuterdahl on the American navy. He is an elderly man, of dingy appearance. He denies that he is Smith and asserts that he found that person's effects in Victoria.

URGES BETTER TRUST CONTROL.

Secretary Nagel Says Federal Agency Is Desirable.

Would Safeguard Public Interest by Publicity.

Recent Supreme Court Decisions Emphasize This.

[BY A. P. NIGHT WIRE TO THE TIMES.]

WASHINGTON, Jan. 2.—"The mere breaking up of large combinations into a number of separate parts by no means meets the whole trust question," says Secretary Nagel of the Department of Commerce and Labor in his annual report, transmitted today to President Taft.

Secretary Nagel declares that the Sherman law has been proved to be an effective statute, beyond all doubt, and that a degree of combination of capital is quite necessary, but he adds that the Supreme Court decisions in the Standard Oil and tobacco cases have demonstrated that the next step in the control of great industrial corporations will be the creation of a permanent Federal agency.

How such control shall be exercised, whether by commission, Federal incorporation or other means, which have been advocated recently by Judge Elbert H. Gary, George W. Perkins and other financiers before the Senate Committee, which has been conducting hearings to determine what changes would be desirable in the anti-trust laws; Secretary Nagel does not definitely say. He favors, however, a development of the powers and scope of the Bureau of Corporations.

CONTROL IS NECESSARY.

"A certain degree of combination of capital is admittedly essential to the carrying on of our great business enterprises," says Secretary Nagel. "To control properly such necessary combinations we must have some administrative Federal office or commission which shall make this work its business.

"We must have a permanent authority, which shall, by steady and continuous supervision and publicity, safeguard the public interests and at the same time allow full scope for necessary and proper business efficiency and development.

"The decisions of the Supreme Court in the Standard Oil and American Tobacco Company cases have brought forcibly to the public attention a fact repeatedly presented in the reports of this department—the imperative need for the positive administrative regulation of great industrial corporations.

"The recent decisions and reorganizations which followed, have made it clear that another imperative step remains to be taken, and that this is the establishment, by appropriate legislation, of a broad system of supervision and publicity for all those industrial and commercial organizations engaged in interstate and international business.

"Whether this shall be done by means of Federal incorporation or by a Federal office or commission exercising powers of regulation and supervision, may be a secondary question. The first consideration appears to be the establishment of permanent administrative publicity, regulation and supervision. The time is peculiarly ripe for such action. Public opinion and the views of many corporation managers are as one."

BUREAU SUPERVISION.

Secretary Nagel recommends that the Bureau of Corporations be developed to take up the form of supervision he suggests. It would be but a logical expansion of the bureau's operations and policy, which, he says, have relied solely on publicity for the last eight years, and have demonstrated beyond question what a system of permanent supervision can do.

Mr. Nagel's report in full deals with the year's work in the many bureaus and divisions over which he presides.

In connection with the immigration service the Secretary recommends that any amendments to the immigration laws tend to relieve immigrants of undue hardship without letting down the bars against undesirables. Larger discretion should be lodged with officials, he thinks, to admit unfortunate members of incoming families where it is shown that society would be protected against burden and danger. He recommends also that examinations of immigrants be made before they embark for this country and that the time for deporting confessed criminals be extended.

TAKES UP CRITICISMS.

Secretary Nagel refers in passing to recent criticism of the immigration service. He says the bureau has endeavored to obey the general mandate of the law and relieve the individual of hardship wherever the statute allows it.

"In the meantime, Lincoln's advice finds renewed application," says the Secretary, quoting the words, 'If both factions, or neither, shall abuse you, you will probably be about right. Beware of being assailed by one and praised by the other.'"

One of the greatest operations of the year in Secretary Nagel's department was the completion of the thirteenth census.

A very important investigation on the cost of living is now being carried on by the Bureau of Labor. "The report promises to provide a basis for intelligent discussion of this much mooted question," says the Secretary.

RULING AGAINST BANKRUPT.

[BY A. P. DAY WIRE TO THE TIMES.]

WASHINGTON, Jan. 2.—The account books of a bankrupt are not his property, and their use as evidence before a grand jury is no violation of the bankrupt's constitutional right that he be not required to testify against himself.

COMMISSION MAKES RULING

[BY A. P. DAY WIRE TO THE TIMES.]

WASHINGTON, Jan. 2.—It was held today by the Interstate Commerce Commission that where two or more carriers are competing for business at equal rates between two points they should be allowed to continue the competition, despite the long and short-haul provision of the law.

This ruling, the commission explains, will enable competing carriers to meet the rates to a particular city or to a freight group made up by any other competitor which may initiate a reduction, "although discrimination against intermediate points may thereby be increased."

The commission may change the rates on complaint of intermediate shippers, if they are found to conflict with any other part of the law

Gov. Harmon's Name Mentioned Only Indirectly.

Meeting Declares for Only Progressive Members.

[BY A. P. NIGHT WIRE TO THE TIMES.]

COLUMBUS (O.) Jan. 2.—The Progressive Democratic League of Ohio came into being here today at a conference of Democrats of nearly every county in the State.

Although many of the conferees had entered the gathering with the avowed intention of declaring against the Presidential candidacy of Gov. Harmon, his name was mentioned only indirectly, and the organization contented itself with the adoption of resolutions urging the members to work against the selection of delegates to State or national conventions which had not proved themselves tried and true Democrats.

The Name of William J. Bryan, heralded as "the ablest to represent the progressive ideals in any party," was received with applause, and speakers made adherence to him the final test of a "progressive democracy."

The conference chose former Congressman J. J. Lentz as chairman. Mr. Lentz, later was elected president of the newly-formed league.

Resolutions set forth the following principles:

"That there shall be no backward step by the Democratic party either in the platform or leader named by the next Democratic national convention.

"That to guarantee a progressive platform and a progressive candidate it is necessary that Ohio Democrats take immediate steps to secure the election of forty-eight tried and true Democrats as delegates to the coming national convention.

"That to protect the progressive Democrats of Ohio against the possibility of any traitor among those forty-eight delegates, it is imperative that no advocate, associate, protector, attorney, agent, counsel, receiver, champion or hireling of Wall street or other predatory interests be chosen as delegate.

"That to protect the progressive Democrats of Ohio against the possibility of any traitor among the delegates to the State convention, it is imperative that none be sent to the State conventions except men who have shown by their records that they are progressive Democrats."

Accused Clergyman Has Sinking Spell When His Counsel Refers to His Recent Mutilation.

[BY A. P. NIGHT WIRE TO THE TIMES.]

BOSTON, Jan. 2.—Rev. Clarence V. T. Richeson collapsed in his cell late today when two of his counsel, William A. Morse and John M. Lee, broached the subject of his recent self-mutilation.

According to Mr. Morse, the subject had no sooner been opened than the former Cambridge pastor paled and seemed to lose all strength, sinking back upon his bed, from which he did not rise during the conference.

"When we entered the cell," Mr. Morse said, "Mr. Richeson was sitting up and seemed comfortable, although he could not walk unaided. Immediately upon mention of the act of mutilation he had a sinking spell and we were compelled to turn the subject and discuss other matters. The minister is mentally weak in the sense that he easily becomes nervous, and he certainly will have to improve greatly to be able to stand trial within two weeks."

Temple, where the crowd had assembled, shortly after 3 o'clock and asked that it be announced that the Senator would not appear. When this word was carried to Gov. Osborn he proceeded to the platform alone and after stating that the Senator would not be present, he explained that he had prepared certain things to say and, in view of the fact that they were to be published, he saw no reason for not saying them.

During the latter part of the address, a La Follette partisan in the rear of the hall began to shout "Who is paying for the hall?" but desisted when several near him suggested that he had better stop.

As the Governor concluded, Frank Robard, State manager of the La Follette campaign, rushed to the platform and shouted:

"Stay where you are, the Senator will be here within a half hour."

At this the crowd returned to their seats and Gov. Osborn added: "Good, I'll stay and introduce him."

A band, already hired, was ordered to the platform and played several selections while Robard endeavored to find out where the Senator was, evidently hoping to get him to Lansing in some way to answer the Governor. A half hour later Mr. Robard decided it was useless to hold the crowd longer and again the people were dismissed.

CRITICISES OSBORN.

Mr. Robard criticised the remarks of Gov. Osborn as "shameful," but the Governor asserted his right to say what he pleased so long as the La Follette people had invited him to the meeting.

The Governor was well received and was applauded when he suggested that both Taft and La Follette withdraw and that Roosevelt or Beveridge be induced to make the race.

The Governor had prepared a speech to be delivered in introducing Senator La Follette here. In view of the fact that the Senator missed his train this morning, Gov. Osborn authorized the use of the speech as a statement of his views. Gov. Osborn added:

"As between Taft and La Follette, I am for Taft."

Gov. Osborn criticised Senator La Follette as having "taken up those things which might be termed popular that contained the least danger to himself" and frankly said that he did not believe Senator La Follette could be nominated for the Presidency or elected if nominated. Gov. Osborn further said:

"The Senator La Follette style of campaign tends to arouse the passions and make for a condition of public intolerance which is always worse than personal or individual intolerance because it has so much more force.

"In Senator La Follette's speeches and writings I do not think he distinguishes between honest men in his business and dishonest men.

BIG BUSINESS NEEDED.

"We have got to have big business in this country if we are to compete in the manufactures and transactions of the world. But they should not be permitted to oppress the people. I have noticed also that while Senator La Follette did great work in ridding Wisconsin of corrupt railroad domination, he has never said anything against brewery domination in that State.

"What I wish to make clear about this statement is that the Senator has taken up those things which might be termed popular and that contained the least danger to himself. Now, this may be entirely unfair, but I have thought it and do think it still, and I wish to say it to you and to him face to face."

In beginning his remarks, Gov. Osborn said:

"I have known Senator La Follette and of him for thirty years and have followed his career always with interest and with varying degrees of admiration and approval.

"Right here let me state, so that there can be no misunderstanding about it, that if he is nominated for President (which at this moment I hope he will not be) I will give him my earnest and active support and will request my friends everywhere to support him with earnestness and devotion."

Gov. Osborn then referred to suits brought some years ago in Wisconsin by the Democratic administration against previous Republican Treasurers for interest on State deposits which had not been turned over to the State.

"Senator Philetus Sawyer," said Gov. Osborn, "had signed the bonds of one delinquent Treasurer or more. The statement is made that he stood to lose several hundred thousand dollars if the State won.

"The story is that he offered to retain Senator La Follette as an attorney in the cases. Senator La Follette's story is that Senator Sawyer tried to bribe him. But Senator Sawyer was never prosecuted for bribery or cited for contempt, and nothing was ever done.

SHOULD HAVE PROSECUTED.

"My idea of this matter is that Senator La Follette should have prosecuted and punished Sawyer for the criminal act that he alleged, or else he should have accepted it as a matter growing out of the blunted sensibilities of a man who had never had the polish of education or an ethical development.

"Senator Isaac Stephenson, pursuant to this agreement with Senator La Follette, started newspapers and otherwise in Senator La Follette's interest spent hundreds of thousands of dollars. It may be said to Senator La Follette's credit or otherwise that he broke with Senator Stephenson as soon as he landed in the Senate."

In conclusion the Governor said:

"I hope Senator La Follette may be retained in the United States Senate during his entire life time. If he is made President his influence will be over in eight years, even if he is elected for a second term. If he stays in the Senate he will be on the fighting line for a quarter of a century yet. I do not believe he can be nominated for the Presidency. I do not believe that he can be elected if he is nominated."

LA FOLLETTE REFUSES TO ANSWER OSBORN.

[BY A. P. NIGHT WIRE TO THE TIMES.]

GRAND RAPIDS (Mich.) Jan. 2.—Senator La Follette tonight refused to discuss in any manner the remarks made by Gov. Osborn in Lansing today.

"I discuss issues, not men," he said. "I have no comment to make."

"Will you pardon me," he was asked, "if I ask what you have to say to the Governor's proposal that both you and President Taft withdraw from the race?"

Senator La Follette merely waved his hand, saying: "I'll pardon you."

Put an Extra Stomach to Work

DIVORCES FILIPINO WIFE.

[BY A. P. NIGHT WIRE TO THE TIMES.]

ST. LOUIS, Jan. 2.—James H. Comfort, a naval lieutenant, stationed in Chicago, received a divorce today from Celerina T. Comfort, a Filipino, to whom he was married in the Philippines in 1901. He also received the custody of their 9-year-old daughter. Lieut. Comfort, who is a member of a prominent St. Louis family, testified that he and his wife separated in China last May, when she refused to accompany him to the United States.

DYNAMITERS FOIL HOUNDS.

[BY A. P. DAY WIRE TO THE TIMES.]

BEDFORD (Iowa) Jan. 2.—Bloodhounds failed today to find trace of the dynamiters who partly destroyed the new Clark operahouse here Sunday night. The north end of the theater was wrecked. It was to have opened last night and was in the hands of the contractor, who was finishing its equipment. Several workmen were in the building at the time, but none was injured. It is said three cannons of dynamite were exploded. The case was immediately taken up by the local authorities and bloodhounds put to work to find the perpetrators. The owner of the theater is J. J. Clark, who believes personal enemies were responsible for the explosion.

AID FOR LEAP-YEAR GIRLS.

[BY A. P. DAY WIRE TO THE TIMES.]

KANSAS CITY (Mo.) Jan. 2.—To encourage women in taking advantage of special privileges granted them in Lean Year, Casimir J. J. M. Welch, a justice of the peace, today announced that during 1912 he would perform the marriage ceremony free for any woman who can satisfy him that she "popped the question." "There are a lot of young persons in Kansas City who might as well be happy as not," said Judge Welch. "Only the young fellow hasn't quite sand enough to put the question. I've been there myself and I know."

CHANCE FOR OLD MAIDS.

[BY A. P. DAY WIRE TO THE TIMES.]

EVANSTON (Ill.) Jan. 2.—There will be no dearth of wedding bells in this aristocratic city during the present Leap Year if the efforts of Justice J. P. Boyer to assist "old maids" in getting husbands counts for anything. When Justice Boyer heard of the offer of an Elgin justice to marry free any woman who "pops the question" he decided he would offer additional inducements to Evanston women. The magistrate declared he would marry free any woman over 25 years of age who does the proposing, and take her word for it. Old maids over 35 he will marry free whether they propose or not and he will also marry gratis couples over 50 years.

FINDS FATHER IN KANSAS.

[BY A. P. DAY WIRE TO THE TIMES.]

SEDALIA (Mo.) Jan. 2.—Mrs. R. A. Higdon, wife of a prominent lawyer here, has just returned from a visit with her father, Charles H. Van Meter of Walnut, Kan., from whom she was separated for twenty-eight years. When Mrs. Higdon was 2 years old her parents, then living in Kansas, separated. Mrs. Van Meter came to Sedalia and married Seymour Seelover, a newspaper man, who later died. Mrs. Higdon was always known as Miss Seelover and was married under that name. A few days ago Van Meter, in a letter printed in a local paper, asked information of his daughter, whom he had not seen since she was 2 years old. Mrs. Higdon wrote to him and was invited to visit her father at his home. Mrs. Higdon's mother has remarried, as has her father.

ALL MAYORS INVITED.

[BY A. P. DAY WIRE TO THE TIMES.]

CHICAGO, Jan. 2.—Invitations will be mailed today to the Mayors of all cities of the United States asking them to visit Chicago for a municipal congress from March 7 to 12. The principal topic of discussion will be "The Practical City Beautiful." Municipal engineers and building commissioners are also to be invited, and preparations are under way to give them practical demonstrations of ideal municipal construction.

REFORM COSTS FREEDOM.

[BY A. P. DAY WIRE TO THE TIMES.]

CHICAGO, Jan. 2.—The fact that he had violated his parole so preyed on the mind of George Lacey that he resolved to begin the new year right by giving himself up to the police. He will be returned to the Michigan State Reformatory today.

SOCIALIST-UNIONITE LANDS IN JAIL UNDER INDICTMENT

Iowa Laborite Leader and Red Accused of Throwing Acid Bombs and Malicious Damaging of Property During Muscatine Strike—Others of the Gang Are Indicted.

[BY A. P. NIGHT WIRE TO THE TIMES.]

MUSCATINE (Iowa) Jan. 2.—With O. C. Wilson, the Socialist member of the City Council and business agent of the local Button Workers' Union, in jail, on charges of maliciously injuring button factories and throwing acid bombs, interest tonight shifted to probable developments tomorrow.

Other union-labor leaders are expected to be arrested as soon as they can be found. A published report this afternoon which said that Emmet Flood of Chicago, organizer for the American Federation of Labor, had been arrested, proved untrue. No indictment has been returned against Flood, so far as known, but the Sheriff's office was making inquiries for him tonight, and ascertained that he was en route from Chicago. He is expected to arrive here early tomorrow.

Wilson failed to obtain $3000 bond and still is in jail. He is a prominent Socialist leader in Iowa, and, as a member of the City Council, always has been active in municipal affairs. He said tonight he was confident he would find bail tomorrow.

Warrants on twenty-six of the thirty indictments returned by the grand jury Saturday remain to be served. Though the utmost secrecy is observed by the authorities concerning those indicted, it was learned that the majority of them charge offenses alleged to have been committed last spring in the early stages of the button workers' strike, with bomb throwing cases predominating.

Thomas Hoskinson, confessed slayer of Patrolman Theodore Gerischer, who is under life imprisonment sentence, today was arraigned on three charges of malicious injury to buildings. Edward Healey and William Murphy, button workers, entered pleas of not guilty to similar charges.

These three men, who are believed to be responsible for the indictment of other union-labor men, took active parts in the strike when it originated last spring. Each has been indicted for four alleged offenses.

MEXICAN REBELS HEMMED IN BY FEDERAL TROOPS.

[BY A. P. NIGHT WIRE TO THE TIMES.]

MEXICO CITY, Jan. 2.—Trapped in a canyon near Texca, Guerrero, 200 Zapatistas have been dodging for three days the bullets of fifty Federals under command of Col. Blanquet, according to news received here today. The fight practically was ended when a messenger left the scene. Only one Federal had been hit by the rebels, while a number of the rebels are known to have fallen.

This is the most spectacular of a series of encounters the Federals have had in the last few days with the Zapatistas in the region along the line between Guerrero and Morelos. Reports received by the government are that the Federal officials are slowly enmeshing the rebels in a net from which escape appears improbable.

Other reports are that the Zapatistas are gaining strength.

MEAT PACKERS DIVIDE FIELD.

Letters at Trial Show How Prices Were Fixed.

Armour's Former Manager Is Important Witness.

Pool Members Penalized for Violating Agreement.

[BY A. P. NIGHT WIRE TO THE TIMES.]

CHICAGO, Jan. 2.—Documentary evidence that the price of meat was fixed and the business apportioned on a non-competitive basis by the packers at their weekly meetings, was introduced by the government today at the trial of the ten Chicago packers before United States District Judge George A. Carpenter.

Special Counsel Pierce Butler, for the prosecution, read several letters received by W. D. Miles, manager of the Armour Packing Company, Kansas City, in June, 1897, in which there was given the amounts of beef to be shipped to certain eastern markets, and there was named the price to be charged, based on a margin of 40 cents on the uniform test cost estimate used by the packers.

The letters, which were obtained from W. D. Miles, former manager of the Armour Packing Company, also flatly refuted the statement of Henry Veeder on the witness stand that no meetings of the packers to fix prices and apportion business were held between April, 1897, and January, 1898, when a statistical bureau was maintained to compile records of meat shipped and prices obtained at different points. Miles, who severed his connection with the Armour interests in 1903, will, it is stated, be one of the star witnesses for the government.

TELL-TALE LETTER.

One of the letters dated June 19, 1897, read in part:

"Dear Sir: This afternoon it was agreed that each party will not ship during the current week in excess of shipments agreed upon for last week.

"Boston: At this point it was agreed that each party in interest will not ship during the current week in excess of his proportion of a total shipment of 100 cars, basing such proportion on the average weekly shipments to Boston for the eight weeks ending June 26, 1897.

"It also was agreed that parties in interest would endeavor to obtain for the current week margins of 10 cents.

"Pittsburgh: It was agreed that each party in interest would not ship in excess of 90 per cent. of the average weekly shipment for the four weeks ending June 12, 1897."

The letter contained directions limiting the total shipments of the week of June 26, 1897, to 32,277,023 pounds of fresh meat, of which 2,400,000 went to Boston and 712,913 to Pittsburgh. Several similar letters were introduced by the government, and it was pointed out that they were all unsigned and in the form Henry Veeder testified the packers' letters were written.

SPRINGS A SURPRISE.

After Attorney Butler had questioned Henry Veeder, secretary of the packers' pools, regarding the details of the combination from May, 1892, to July 1, 1903, when the witness said the last fresh meat pool dissolved, and he severed his connection with the packers, the government attorney sprang a surprise on the defendants by reading the letters and offering them in evidence.

Veeder previously had testified that the packers held no meeting during the existence of the "statistical bureau" from April, 1897, to January, 1898.

"Does the reading of these letters refresh your memory in regard to an arrangement at that time covering the shipment of beef and the fixing of the margin price?" asked Attorney Butler.

"No, although I do not question the genuineness of those letters," the witness said. "They indicate that if there was an arrangement, it was of a temporary character."

Forty cents a hundred pounds was the penalty assessed against members of the old packers' pool who overshipped their allotment into any particular territory, and the amount was distributed among the members discriminated against.

PENALTIES PAID.

The amounts were paid by check every week after the meetings at which the packers reviewed the shipments of the preceding week. This information regarding the inside workings of the old packers' pool between 1893 and 1896 was given today by Henry Veeder, when he resumed his testimony in the trial of the ten Chicago packers before United States District Judge Carpenter.

"Edward J. Martin of Armour & Co.," was the reply.

"Who represented the packers at these weekly meetings?"

"For Armour & Co., E. J. Martin and Arthur Meeker; W. D. Miles appeared most of the time for the Armour Packing Company. For Cudahy & Co. there was Michael Cudahy and Robert Byrne. The G. H. Hammond Company was represented by Jesse P. Lyman and E. A. Allen. Edward Morris and L. H. Herman appeared for Morris & Co., and Swift & Co. was represented by Gustavus F. Swift and P. A. Fowler."

"Would it be possible for a member of the combination to suspend operations in the shipment of beef into a certain territory one week and receive his part of the fines assessed for overshipments?" asked Attorney Butler.

"Yes."

"Was that ever done?"

"Yes."

"Did the arrangement for limiting the shipments on a percentage basis apply to other districts than to territory 'A'?"

Mr. Veeder stated that the same general rule applied to all the territory in which the combine did business.

"These payments and collections between members of the pool applied only to beef?"

"Yes."

"What use was made of the margin sheets?"

"It showed the profit made in each particular market."

"Then, a low margin report meant low beef for the next week?"

"Usually."

The witness said there were several new basic agreements of percentages made by the packers in the period described.

German Public Finds Fault With Management for Delay in Determining Causes of Deaths.

[BY A. P. DAY WIRE TO THE TIMES.]

BERLIN, Jan. 2.—Since the arrest of the wholesale liquor dealer who had been in the habit of disposing of wood alcohol and groceries to the inmates of the municipal night shelter for the homeless and the confiscation of the adulterated whisky found on his premises, no further poisonings have been reported to the city officials.

The official total of the dead is seventy-two out of 162 cases reported, but these do not include some who died outside of the municipal institutions. About twenty-six persons still are seriously ill.

The fact that a great proportion of the deaths might have been prevented if the cause of the sickness had been more promptly established, has excited much criticism. The authorities, in replying to this, assert that both ptomaine and wood alcohol were responsible for the early cases, but these were undoubtedly mostly caused by ptomaine poisoning.

Naval Academy Board Will Investigate Alleged Symptoms of Alcoholic Taste at Annapolis.

[BY A. P. NIGHT WIRE TO THE TIMES.]

ANNAPOLIS (Md.) Jan. 2.—A board of officers was appointed today by Supt. Gibbons of the naval academy to investigate an alleged outbreak of drinking among the midshipmen. This action followed a raid yesterday by naval and civil authorities on a clubroom in Annapolis which, it is alleged, was maintained by midshipmen. It was found to be well stocked with intoxicants.

ALFRED DICKENS DIES SUDDENLY.

SON OF FAMOUS NOVELIST VICTIM OF INDIGESTION.

Spends Three Months in This Country on Lecturing Tour—A Godson of Poet Tennyson, He Had Passed Great Part of His Life in Australia.

[BY A. P. NIGHT WIRE TO THE TIMES.]

NEW YORK, Jan. 2.—Alfred Tennyson Dickens, oldest surviving son of Charles Dickens, the novelist, died suddenly of acute indigestion at the Hotel Astor here late today.

He was in this country on a lecture tour.

Mr. Dickens was a godson of the poet Tennyson. He was in his sixty-seventh year.

Mr. Dickens, who spent the greater part of his life in Australia, going there at the age of 20, arrived in this country on September 27, landing at Boston. He rested there for ten days because of a slight indisposition before beginning a lecture tour which he opened at Lowell, Mass., on October 19. His travels to fill lecture engagements took him as far west as Denver. His last lecture was on December 23, before the State Teachers' Association at Indianapolis.

The lecturer was on his way to the theater last night when taken ill. He was better this morning and was preparing to go to Kingston, N. Y., to fill an engagement, when he was again attacked. He died shortly after being removed to his room from the hotel lobby.

Alfred Dickens's home was in Melbourne, Australia. No arrangements will be made for the funeral until word has been received from his children there. His wife died a number of years ago

JAPANESE YOKE HARD TO BREAK.

KOREANS WILL NEVER BE ABLE TO THROW IT OFF.

Chicago Professor Says Koreans Despise Japanese, but Sway of Latter Is Completely Established, and Dreams of Independence for Hermit Kingdom Are in Vain.

[BY DIRECT WIRE TO THE TIMES.]

CHICAGO, Jan. 2.—[Exclusive Dispatch.] Korea will never be able to shake off the Japanese yoke, according to Frederick Starr, professor of anthropology in the University of Chicago, who returned yesterday from a three months' study of the people of the Hermit Kingdom. Although the Koreans, being of greater stature, hold the Japanese in contempt, the sway of Japan over the "Hermit Kingdom" is thoroughly established, says the investigator.

"Should Japan and China again engage in war Korea is bound to be the center of conflict," said Prof. Starr. "Because of its geographical location and the nature of things, it would also be the battleground for a fight between Japan and Russia. Another war between Japan and Russia is not likely to occur, however, for some time. Dreams of independence for the Koreans are vain, for neither China nor Japan will secure it for them. China would not wrest Korea from Japan with the idea of giving the Koreans independence."

Prof. Starr found the Koreans more worthy of consideration than other writers and students, many of whom have called the people lazy and weak. To outward appearances, says Prof. Starr, the Koreans are calm and unemotional, but in reality they are neurotic, accustomed to paroxysms, which explains the success of the Christian missionaries there, according to Prof. Starr.

"Japan has done much for Korea," said Prof. Starr, "but there is nevertheless a hostility between the two countries, for the people despise each other. Japan will never successfully rule Korea until the Japanese have treat the Koreans as individuals and give them their respect. The Japanese built hospitals and schools, for which they get no thanks."

4% "TERM" Savings Accounts

"Term" deposits earn interest at the rate of Four Per Cent per annum, provided they remain six months or longer. They may be deposited for a fixed period of six or more months, or may be left indefinitely, subject to six month's written notice of withdrawal. Interest is computed from date of deposit, and is added to the account on January first and July first, thus compounding semi-annually, if not withdrawn.

3% CHECKING Accounts

"Special Ordinary" accounts, against which checks may be issued under moderate restrictions, earn interest at Three Per Cent per annum upon minimum monthly balances of Three Hundred Dollars or more. Interest is allowed and credited monthly. This form of account is most convenient for people whose funds are temporarily idle—your money can be earning income while you wait a more permanent investment.

MISSION GIFTS FALL OFF.

[BY A. P. DAY WIRE TO THE TIMES.]

NEW YORK, Jan. 2.—Gifts to foreign missions in 1911 by Protestant Christians throughout the world as tabulated by the Missionary Review show a decrease over the preceding year of $175,000. North America shows a total appropriation of $12,-300,000, nearly half of the grand total of $25,300,000. Great Britain gave $9,-000,000.

The missionary society having the largest income of all is an American society, with headquarters in New York. Of the five societies in the world having incomes exceeding $1,-000,000 a year each, four are American. The five are: Methodist-Episcopal, New York, $2,300,000; Church of England, London, $1,900,000; Presbyterian, New York, $1,700,000; Baptist, Boston, $1,100,000; Congregational, Boston, $1,000,000.

Third Member of Kansas Tar Party Begins On Year's Time Given Him by Court.

[BY A. P. NIGHT WIRE TO THE TIMES.]

LINCOLN CENTER (Kan.) Jan. 2.—Everett G. Clark, formerly a wealthy miller of Shady Bend, Kan., entered the County Jail here today, beginning his one-year sentence for participation in the "tar party" last summer, of which Miss Mary Chamberlain, a young school teacher, was the victim. Clark, Jay Fitzwater and Watson Scranton, were sentenced to a year each in jail after they had pleaded guilty. Scranton began serving his sentence at once, while Clark and Fitzwater gave notice of appeal and were released on bond. Fitzwater began serving his sentence several days ago.

WINTER KILLS CATTLE.

SUGAR CITY (Colo.) Jan. 2.—With the mercury ranging from 15 to 32 degrees below zero for more than two weeks and with from twelve to eighteen inches of snow covering the ground, Southern and Eastern Colorado are experiencing the most severe and protracted period of cold weather that has been recorded in these sections for many years.

Cattle, it is said, are dying from hunger by the hundreds, due to the deep snows covering the scanty range grass, a great part of which was destroyed by a prolonged drouth before the opening of last fall.

However, it is claimed the heavy snowfall insures bumper crops for next year, as the snow will saturate the ground and put the soil in excellent condition for grass and grain.

LOCKE'S NOVEL

Woman Willing to Give Up Children for Admirer.

[BY A. P. DAY WIRE TO THE TIMES.]

WINNIPEG (Man.) Jan. 2.—J. B. Snead, said to be a wealthy contractor of Ft. Worth, Tex., and Mrs. Snead, who, it is alleged, eloped with Albert G. Boyce from Texas to Canada, left here today for Minneapolis. Boyce and Mrs. Snead were being held here as undesirable citizens in Canada.

Boyce, the authorities here say, will be deported later.

The story of how Snead, after quitting his wife a thousand miles and spending $25,000 in the search, overcame all obstacles in international diplomacy, was revealed today when it was announced that his wife and her admirer, Albert G. Boyce of Seattle, son of the cattle king of the Southwest, would be deported from Canada as undesirable persons. According to Boyce, the charge of grand larceny is one trumped to extradite him, and he claims that it could never be proved.

The Texas authorities, it is said, contend that Boyce persuaded the woman to give him her jewelry, valued at $30,000, but no trace of the jewels could be found here, and both prisoners, who were guests at a fashionable hotel, refuse to state what became of them.

Final action in the case will be opened in Minneapolis tomorrow, when the wife will be confronted by her two children, her mother and her sister.

Snead said he wanted to take his wife back with him, regardless of the past. The woman claims that she was incarcerated in an asylum and that Snead did not give her a chance to explain.

She says she wants her children, but her love for Boyce is so great that she is willing to give them up for him.

Mexican Constabulary Sustains Loss of Five Men in the Fighting That Follows.

[BY A. P. NIGHT WIRE TO THE TIMES.]

EL PASO (Tex.) Jan. 2.—Active campaigning against the Zapatistas in the States of Puebla, Morelos and Guerrero is reported here. The rebels appear to have been dispersed in every engagement. A force of forty-three rurales of the Tenth Corps was ambushed in a mountain pass in the State of Puebla Monday by 200 Zapatistas, but fought their way out with a loss of five.

Gens. Bautalis and Casso Lopez are operating against the rebels in the vicinity of Cuautla and have been engaged in severe fighting since Saturday, the rebels making short stands and then fleeing into the mountains. The town of Huaquechula, State of Puebla, was taken by Zapatistas Sunday and completely sacked. Five hundred were in this party and a large detachment of Federal troops is now moving against them.

CALIFORNIA GENIUS DIES.

[BY DIRECT WIRE TO THE TIMES.]

OAKLAND (Cal.) Jan. 2.—[Exclusive Dispatch.] Ira Russell Hutchinson, the inventor of the Hutchinson mailing machine, died suddenly at the residence of his sister, Mrs. J. W. Wilkin, No. 2830 Twenty-second street, following a stroke of apoplexy. He was 53 years old and since coming to Oakland had been at work on his inventions.

His wife and daughter are at present visiting in Chicago and funeral arrangements will not be announced until they have been heard from.

The deceased's mailing machine is widely used in newspaper offices. He was born in Fresno, and had lived for two years in Oakland. He was the son of Mrs. Laura A. Hutchinson and the late Ezra I. Hutchinson of Fresno.

Cascarets Cleanse Liver and Bowels

No Biliousness, Headache, Sick, Sour Stomach, Indigestion, Coated Tongue or Constipation.

Furred tongue, Bad Taste, Indigestion, Sallow Skin and Miserable Headaches come from a torpid liver and clogged bowels, which cause your stomach to become filled with undigested food, which sours and ferments like garbage in a swill barrel. That's the first step to untold misery—indigestion, foul gases, bad breath, yellow skin, mental fears, everything that is horrible and nauseating. A Cascaret tonight will give you a thorough cleansing inside and straighten you out by morning. They work while you sleep—a 10-cent box from your druggist will keep you feeling good for months. Millions of men and women take a Cascaret now and then to keep their stomach, liver and bowels regulated, and never know a miserable moment. Don't forget the children—their little insides need a good, gentle cleansing, too.

STENTORIAN PROTEST.

than a hundred that will be introduced if possible during the will contest, was admitted into the action this morning. With its admission came the first victory for the contestant, as attorneys of the defendant strongly contested the introduction of the paper. It is the deposition of Dr. B. B. Harris of Newcastle, Pa., for many years the physician of Mrs. Thurston.

Attorney Leroy A. Wright contested its admission on the ground that it bared confidences existing between a family physician and a patient and was therefore improper. He cited authorities to support his contention. For the contestant, Judge J. W. McKinley held that it was competent evidence, saying that a physician who had treated a person for many years should be a good judge of a person's mental condition. The condition of Mrs. Thurston's mind at the time she made the will, naming Katherine Tingley, is one of the important issues in the case.

After hearing from opposing attorneys, Judge Guy ruled that the deposition should be admitted.

EMPHATIC DENIALS.

Denying each and every allegation of the complaint made by George L. Patterson, Attorney Wright, chief counsel for Mrs. Tingley, the principal defendant in the action, read with emphasis the answer to the complaint.

The contest, taken up this morning after an adjournment from last Wednesday at which time the case was opened and a jury chosen, is attracting much attention.

In the complaint of Patterson the first strong point brought out in the reading by Judge McKinley was the assertion that the only legal heirs of Mrs. Thurston are George L. Patterson, William P. Patterson, Julia P. Quinn, children of the decedent and two children of Julia P. Quinn. Reading from the complaint Judge McKinley said that Mrs. Thurston was 74 years of age when she died and that for five years previous she was of feeble mind.

Mrs. Thurston's first visit to the Point Loma Homestead in 1907 was then described and the assertion made that when Mrs. Thurston became a member she was required to take a binding pledge, this being a declaration to support the theosophical movement even the consideration of family ties being unimportant.

That part of the complaint in which it is asserted that Mrs. Thurston was told by persons at Point Loma that her son, George L., was not a fit person to have a large share of her estate was listened to attentively when read by Judge McKinley. Another paragraph that caused interest to be taken in the reading contained the assertion that a person, a member of the theosophical society, could not leave the homestead without permission from Mrs. Tingley, guards being posted on the grounds.

MARRIAGE TO THURSTON.

Reading of that part of the complaint that relates to the marriage of the decedent to Clark Thurston at Point Loma a year before her death, caused spectators to direct their gaze toward Thurston, the aged man with flowing white beard, referred to in the complaint as being unfit for marriage. Thurston appears feeble. He moved uneasily in his seat at mention of the allegation in which he is concerned.

Many more allegations are in the complaint, principal of which concern fraud and conspiracy.

In outlining what the contestant expected to prove, Judge McKinley said that Mrs. Tingley was a person of magnetic power, also that money was borrowed by Mrs. Tingley from Mrs. Thurston, the Isis Theater being concerned in the loan.

"When the first will made by Mrs. Thurston named her husband as the principal beneficiary, there arose a fear that the property would not pass to Mrs. Tingley," said Judge McKinley. "Then, in a second will, made in 1910, Mrs. Thurston was induced to name Mrs. Tingley as principal beneficiary."

WILL PROTECT FUR SEAL.

WASHINGTON, Jan. 2.—Hearings will begin tomorrow before the House Foreign Affairs Committee on the Sulzer bill to make effective the conventions between the United States, Great Britain, Japan and Austria for the preservation and protection of fur seals in the North Pacific Ocean.

Great Britain, Russia and Japan are expected to pass similar legislation after the American Congress enacts a law. Henry T. Elliot, fur seal expert, and William T. Hornaday, director of the New York Zoological Park, are to appear before the committee.

A similar bill has been introduced by Senator Root.

JUDGMENT IS INCREASED.

SACRAMENTO, Jan. 2.—By terms of an opinion written by Justice Burnett and handed down in the Third District Court of Appeals today, Mrs. Emma G. Butler of San Francisco is required to pay to the American-Hawaiian Engineering and Construction Company $7170, in addition to the $191,805 awarded by a Superior Court of San Francisco. The original suit had to do with the construction of a steel building in San Francisco. The item was not allowed by the lower court, so the construction company appealed and won out in the higher court.

TUCSON MAN WITHDRAWS.

PHOENIX (Ariz.) Jan. 2.—It was stated here tonight on authority believed to be reliable, that the Democrats had settled their differences over the position of president of the State Senate, which is shortly to assemble here, and that as a result of an agreement, A. A. Worsley of Tucson will not be a candidate, but that M. G. Cunliff of Prescott will be elected. The leading candidates for Speaker of the House, it was stated, are A. R. Lynch of Safford and Sam B. Bradner of Cochise county.

CONGRESSMAN SMITH ON JOB.

WASHINGTON (D. C.,) Jan. 2.—[Exclusive Dispatch.] Sylvester Clark Smith, elected in November, 1910, to succeed himself as Republican Representative in the Sixty-second Congress from the Eighth California district, will take oath and become a member tomorrow. Mr. Smith has been too ill previously to be sworn. He came to Washington a few days ago and has been gradually improving. He will be the last Representative elected to the Sixty-second Congress at the regular election to be sworn in.

FOR SALE—
I WANT YOU
To be one of a thousand families to join in the purchase and development of a pretty little valley—30 minutes from 6th and Broadway.
This protected foothill valley contains 1500 acres; is 1000 to 1200 feet above sea level, and only ten miles from the heart of Broadway—a veritable paradise excelling Pasadena or Hollywood. It is the last of the big estates in the foothills with balmy, mellow evening climate and will be taken over and made into residences for the members of this great city syndicate of home-buyers, under the direction of the Glendale local trolley system and the pathfinders of California's oldest rural homesite.
This is our TENTH project of this kind in California, all of which have earned from 100 to 1000 per cent. to members within a few years.
Each member of this Verdugo project will first receive a full sized building lot, or small acreage; at wholesale price of one-third what it would cost in any other way, and in addition holds joint ownership in 1000 acres of adjoining land and other assets of the project. You could not go to the corners of the big ranch and buy a lot or small acreage at any price. If it were handled in the usual way you'd pay three times as much. Upon this plan, you secure your lot or small acreage and get your profits from adjoining lands the value of which you help create by joining this organized movement.
The Tenth edition of "Western Empire's Land Booking and Home Securing Plan" is ready. Call or write for it. It will tell you of our nine previous great works, and financial details of this opportunity.
Also trips every week, week day.
Real opportunity requires action.
Investigate today for the books will shortly close.

San Jacinto and Hemet Lands

Make Your Reservation Today

$3.00 Pays All Expenses

If you have any intention of buying land in Southern California you should join this big excursion to the San Jacinto and Hemet lands—train leaves Los Angeles next Sunday morning at 9 o'clock and returns same day. $3 pays all the expenses, including railroad fare, luncheon and automobiles.

We want to show you the splendid holdings of the San Jacinto Land Company that we are selling in tracts of 5, 10 and 20 acres each, at $300 upwards per acre, with free water certificates. Terms one-tenth cash, balance 2, 3 and 4 years.

These lands lie in the most fertile section of Riverside county—this locality is famed for its alfalfa, olives, deciduous fruits, cattle, hogs and poultry.

We want you to see the magnificent water plant, which supplies all the water you can use at the lowest price in California. We want you to talk with people who are making good on this land.

Come to the office today and make your reservation.

YEAR BROUGHT AN ABUNDANCE.

Period Just Ended Witnessed Vast Work Performed.

Salt River Reclamation Great Benefit to Phoenix.

[Special Correspondence of The Times.]

PHOENIX (Ariz.) Jan. 1.—No year in the history of Phoenix has been filled so abundantly with everything that spells prosperity as the year just closed. Most important was the completing of the Great Roosevelt reservoir dam, which assures an ample supply of irrigation water to the whole Salt River Valley. Work is progressing on enlargement of the canal systems and in the establishment of new water power plants. Within Phoenix the business streets have been paved by the bituliic proceds and work is progressing on a $200,000 sewer system. Over 500 residences were completed during 1911, as well as a score of important business blocks. Work has been commenced upon a handsome Federal building, which is to be completed next October. Construction is well advanced upon a group of new buildings for the High School, to cost $150,000, while an $80,000 grammar school building was occupied in the fall.

The lighting of downtown streets by pillar lamps is to be continued indefinitely, the City Council having contracted with the Pacific Gas and Electric Company for the necessary electricity at the rate of 5 cents per kilowatt, a reduction of 3 cents on the former rate.

Work is to be commenced at once upon an extension of the Second-avenue electric road to the northwest, a distance of several miles, through a couple of suburban tracts. The Fleur-street line, accommodating the Indian school and Glendale cars, is to be doubletracked.

The business of the Phoenix Land Office, handling all land business in Arizona, increased 25 per cent. last year, compared with the figures for 1910. Entries have been general all over the territory, the development not being confined to any one or two sections.

About $50,000 will be spent this year in establishing at Parker an irrigation system for the Mohave Indians. Water for 6000 acres is to be pumped from the Colorado. The land is level and rich, and the Indians are to be encouraged to farm it upon the most approved lines.

DRIVING BIG TUNNEL.

L. C. Hill, engineer in charge of southwestern projects of the Reclamation Service, states that 150 feet of progress a month is being made in driving under the Colorado River the tunnel through which the Yuma irrigation project is to be supplied with water for the lands east of the river. The tunnel, which is to be 965 feet long, now is in about 400 feet. It is costing about $200 a foot, 150 men being employed, in three gangs. The tunnel is eighteen feet in diameter in the rough, or fifteen feet when the cement lining has been placed. The progress of the heading can be marked by the bubbles which come to the surface of the river, where compressed air has found its way out. At the Elephant Butte dam, on the Rio Grande, above El Paso, the main work at present is the building of a great timber flume, which is to carry the river while construction work is in progress on the dam.

In order to cheapen the cost of proper lateral ditches and of other permanent farm irrigation works, permission has been given the officers of the Reclamation Service to sell at cost all cement and lumber that may be needed by the farmers.

Plans have been made for erection in University Addition of a new hospital, to be under charge of the Deaconess order of the Methodist Episcopal Church. The location adjoins a tract upon which a Methodist college is to be built.

The Pinal Bank and Trust Company has been organized at Florence to provide banking facilities for that town. C. W. Paulson will manage the institution.

Tonight the new Empress Theater was opened for its first show. The auditorium has a seating capacity for 800. This theater is the seventh in the city.

Today the new offices of the Arizona Eastern Railroad Company, in the corner of the Hotel Adams block, were occupied. The company, local representative of the Southern Pacific system, has taken a five-years' lease of the room at $350 a month. It has been furnished throughout in mahogany.

Work has been commenced upon an automobile road map and guide of Arizona.

In proportion to population, Phoenix is believed to have more automobiles than any other town in the West. There are 600 cars in the city.

The common school enrollment of Phoenix reached 2147 during December.

On the basis of a bid of one-tenth of a cent per body, the rate now received, a Phoenix undertaking firm has contested in the courts an award by the Board of Supervisors of a contract for burying pauper dead at the rate of $4.50. The secret of the low bid lies in the fact that usually some relative is found who is willing to defray the cost of a decent funeral.

Benito Seema of Florence was killed at Mammoth Tuesday by the premature discharge of a blast in a mine in which he was working.

F. J. Gist of Glendale last week collected bounty from the Supervisors upon exactly 1000 pairs of jackrabbit ears, returning him 5 cents a pair. Most of the rabbits had been shot by him with a small-calibered rifle. Rabbits are no longer numerous in this valley. A few years ago rabbit drives were resorted to for protection of the crops on outlying farms. The decrease is believed mainly due to a mysterious disease which attacked the rabbits a couple of years ago.

A congregation of the Jewish faith has been organized in Phoenix and will be served by the Rev. Edward M. Chapman, late of Tucson.

Mayor of Portland Threatens to Ask Governor to Order Out Militia to Protect Non-Union Men.

[BY DIRECT WIRE TO THE TIMES.]

ROSEBURG (Or.) Jan. 2.—[Exclusive Dispatch.] Local authorities are taking determined steps to quell disturbances that are being started by unruly union strikers in the local Southern Pacific yards. Late last night strikes started a riot, one independent workman, J. I. Call, being assaulted and seriously injured. City Marshal Fenton single-handed knocked out the leader of the strikers, and the mob was quelled by his deputies, who used clubs freely.

Mayor Michelli today notified the strikers that unless they ceased their disturbances he would ask Gov. West to call out the local militia to handle them. In this he is backed by the District Attorney, Sheriff and a great majority of citizens. The Council tonight strikers started a riot, one in the procedure of the strikers in molesting the independent men, and empowered the Mayor to employ as many police as necessary to maintain order.

NEWSPAPER JURY LOOKS INTO BANKER MORSE CASE.

[BY A. P. NIGHT WIRE TO THE TIMES.]

ATLANTA (Ga.) Jan. 2.—A heated personal argument between a newspaper editor and Warden William H. Moyer of the Federal prison here resulted today in disclosing that Charles W. Morse, convicted banker, made $2000 in a Wall street deal through the courtesy of Warden Moyer. It was brought out that in the spring of 1910 Morse made the money by selling "short" on gas stock by means of a cipher message Moyer allowed him to send.

To show his gratitude, or for some other reason, Moyer said Morse subsequently offered to share the profits with him. This alleged act on the part of Morse so prejudiced the warden against the former banker, in the opinion of F. L. Seeley, who publishes the Atlanta Georgian, that he subsequently subjected Morse to disciplinary treatment characterized by the editor as "reprehensible."

Seeley is a personal friend of Morse. Last Thursday he printed in his paper a story hinting at a Congressional investigation into Morse's treatment in the penitentiary, citing an instance in which he was alleged to have been placed in solitary confinement in a dungeon "for giving a sick boy about to be discharged a paltry sum of money."

The publication so incensed the warden that he invited Atlanta newspaper men to the prison to show them just how Morse was kept in solitary confinement and to explain the circumstances. Editor Seeley responded in person as the representative of his paper.

MOYER MAKES REPLY.

Surrounded by newspaper men, Moyer read a statement he had prepared answering the accusations made in Seeley's paper. He declared that Morse had been kept in solitary confinement for two days in May, 1910, for refusing to divulge the source of about $466 found in l possession. As soon as Morse did so, he was released, he said. He showed the visitors a fair-sized, well-lighted and well-ventilated room in which he said Morse was kept.

"I question the accuracy of that statement," said Editor Seeley. "I have been reliably informed that Morse had no mattress and no blanket and had to sleep on the iron slats with only his coat under his head."

"That is untrue," the warden retorted, angrily. "Who gave you such information?"

"Mr. Morse, himself, and the physician attending him at the time."

The warden called in two deputies in charge at the time and both said they would take oath that Morse had both mattress and blanket.

"You have been prejudiced against Morse ever since that gas stock deal," Mr. Seeley charged, "and I think your treatment of him has been reprehensible."

WARDEN WARNS EDITOR.

"You are at liberty to print any facts in your possession regarding Morse's treatment in this prison," the warden retorted, "but I warn you to stick to facts, or I shall hold you personally responsible."

The "jury" wanted to know about "that gas stock deal."

Moyer said that on March 11, 1910, soon after the banker became a prisoner, he gave Morse permission to send a cipher message to New York. The next day he said he reported the matter to the Attorney-General and was instructed not to permit Morse to send messages again. Some time later he said, Morse came into his office and told him he had made $2000 "out of that gas stock deal, and wanted him to have half."

"Forget you ever told me that, Morse," I said to him," the warden asserted, "and do not say anything like that to me again."

Moyer said this incident was brought out when the prison was investigated last spring.

Prepared.

INCOMING MAYOR ROLPH HAS HIS MESSAGE READY.

[BY DIRECT WIRE TO THE TIMES.]

SAN FRANCISCO, Jan. 2.—[Exclusive Dispatch.] When, on next Monday afternoon, Mayor-elect James Rolph, Jr., delivers his inaugural message before the Board of Supervisors, he will have established a record for brevity in such addresses. Mayor Rolph's entire message, it is understood, comprises between four and five pages of legal-cap, not over 2500 words at the utmost, and will occupy in delivery possibly twenty minutes.

The message will be full of succinctly-stated facts. Its entire tenor is in keeping with the attitude of Mr. Rolph, since his election, that deeds and not words are what are going to characterize him during the four years that he will fill the Mayor's chair.

CITY HALL AND WATER.

It is understood that the matter of the permanent City Hall will be touched on and the early purchase of the Spring Valley water plant, two projects that the Mayor-elect has already placed before the incoming board, so that plans may be ready for discussion and action the moment the new board gets into harness.

In so far as announcements of the personnel of commissions or of his office staff, the Mayor-elect stated today that he would have nothing to say until such time as he was the duly qualified Mayor.

"The charter declares that the Mayor shall appoint," said Mr. Rolph, "and I will live up to the charter. When I am the Mayor and duly qualified to make appointments, I will make such appointments as are to be made, giving to the public my reasons in each case. I do not believe, therefore, I should make any announcements until Monday.

"Late information reaching me concerning the political party espoused by certain of the men that I have had in mind, has caused me to recast my appointments. The law is specific in regard to the number of men in any one political faith who may sit on public commissions, and for that reason, I have had to readjust my list.

"There are many matters to be considered by me before Monday, and I look forward to a very busy week," concluded the Mayor-elect.

For a month, the new Mayor has held daily conferences with his new Board of Supervisors, so that his new regime may be started immediately after he takes oath of office. All his committees have been appointed and they have been hard at work for weeks, notwithstanding they can take no official action until seated. This move is unprecedented in municipal affairs.

ADDS THIRTEEN NEW LAWS TO THE STATUTE BOOKS.

[BY A. P. NIGHT WIRE TO THE TIMES.]

SACRAMENTO, Jan. 2.—The Governor signed ten Assembly bills and three Senate bills today, which were passed at the special session of the Legislature. They included the Assembly bill by Judson, passed at the second extra session, which gives the State Horticultural Commission power to effect quarantines against the Mediterranean fruit fly pest, and the following:

A. B. numbers 8, 9, 10 and 11, Held, providing for the recall and the initiative and referendum in cities and counties.

A. B. 39, Griffin, providing for the recall of irrigation district officials.

A. B. 52, Held, relating to the establishment of grades by railway companies on public highways.

A. B. 61, Griffin, relating to the organization of irrigation districts.

A. B. 66, committee bill, dividing State into legislative districts.

A. B. 14, Rutherford, dividing the State into Congressional districts.

S. B. 11, Roseberry, giving the Industrial Accident Board power to gain information from employers concerning accidents to employees.

S. B. 44, Hewitt, giving cities power to ascertain by election whether they shall control their public utilities or let them be under the control of the Public Utilities Commission of the State.

S. B 48, Campbell, the conservation measure, which fixes water appropriation tenures at forty years and defines the powers of the Conservation Commission.

COLTON THREATENED WITH A DAMAGE SUIT.

SAN BERNARDINO, Jan. 2.—Colton is facing a $50,000 damage suit for canceling a lighting contract and awarding a similar contract to the Edison Power Company. Today the suit of the Home Gas and Electric Company of Redlands against Colton, to recover the amount of damages noted, was called for trial before a jury in Judge Oster's department of the Superior Court.

The contract held by the plaintiff was originally awarded Seth Hartley. Hartley assigned it to the plaintiff. Several days later the Trustees of Colton canceled the contract and awarded another contract to the Edison Power Company.

The Home plaintiff corporation had gone to large expense in building a pole line to the Colton town limits, where construction was stopped by the town authorities. The company sues to recover the cost of this work besides the profits which would have been reaped under the terms of the contract had it not been withdrawn.

NARROW ESCAPE.

Deputy Sheriff Todd, an officer of ponderous size, encountered three bootleggers late last night, and fired his revolver to signal aid. The bootleggers fled, the officer pursuing. He was seen racing through the night by a special officer, who mistook him for the fugitive, and the special officer turned loose with his revolver. Deputy Todd had a very close shave from being riddled. For some moments the two officers stood at bay before Todd could make the other understand the situation.

WRITER WILL FARM.

Walter V. Woehlke, magazine writer of Santa Monica, has purchased a ten-acre orange grove at Rialto, and proposes to make that section his home. The writer formerly lived here, where he was for a very brief time employed on a local paper. During the year he has been writing a series of irrigation articles for the Saturday Post, and in this work became enthused over the Rialto citrus belt.

HEAD IS CUT OFF.

An unknown Mexican crawled beneath a string of Santa Fe box cars in the local yards at an early hour this morning to get out of the rain, and as he crossed a rail the train was bunted by a switch engine, the man's head being severed from his body.

MAY SUSPEND TRAFFIC.

DULUTH (Minn.) Jan. 2.—[By A. P. Night Wire.] Advices received today from Winnipeg and the Canadian head of the lakes are that the car shortage problem is serious and that there is evidence of a tie-up in traffic. The actual number of cars moved daily is said to be less than 200.

Midnight Collision on the Glendale Electric Line Injures Many, But Slightly.

The rear-end collision between Glendale and Burbank electric cars near Ivanhoe, shortly after midnight yesterday, will go down in Los Angeles railroad history as peculiarly fortunate in results. Although the number of men and women injured exceeds twenty-five, none of them is seriously hurt.

Besides the nineteen names on the list given out by the Pacific Electric officials, it is said about a dozen, perhaps, more were cut or bruised but not sufficiently to warrant their reporting it.

Officials of the road have satisfied themselves the accident was unavoidable, and that it occurred despite the efforts of the conductor of the stalled car to flag the following one. The motorman of the first car was working on the broken trolley when the crash occurred. He saved himself from being catapulted off the roof by holding onto the roof running board.

Following is the list of injured as given out by the Pacific Electric officials: M. F. Gray, Burbank; Della Torrance, Glendale; Bley Hull, address not given; E. Clark, Tropico, deputy constable; Harry Burt, No. 324½ South Hill street; C. E. Salveley, secretary of Police Chief Sebastian, elbow bruised; Mrs. Garber, address unknown; S. M. Ackerly, address not known; Henry Stockbridge and Mrs. Stockbridge, actors; Charles Gibiyn and Mrs. Gibiyn, latter cut on face by broken glass; George Reuter, this city, back sprained and bruises; Mrs. Pearl Harrison, West Park avenue, Tropico, cuts on face and hands; Charles Wood, Burbank, bruises and contusions; Emmet Riley, Burbank, possible fracture of left ribs; Motorman Harrison, Burbank car, bad body bruises; Mrs. E. O. Williams, No. 1442 West Fourth street, knee hurt and sprained ankle; Mrs. J. J. Schremp, same address, right ankle broken, cut on face and hands.

PACKING PLANT DAMAGED.

Swift Company Sustains Loss Approaching a Half Million Dollars in Chicago Blaze.

[BY A. P. NIGHT WIRE TO THE TIMES.]

CHICAGO, Jan. 2.—Fire which broke out tonight for the second time in the packing-house buildings of Swift & Co., in the heart of the Union Stock Yards, and adjoining the scene of the disastrous stockyards fire of a year ago, threatened the whole Swift plant and many adjoining structures.

The first blaze did about $25,000 damage to a warehouse. Tonight's fire, fanned by a cold wind, drove the firemen back and made certain a large loss. The fire started in the smokehouse, a long five-story brick building, and spread to an adjoining warehouse.

Firebrands blown by the wind endangered adjoining buildings.

The blaze started within half a block of the building where a year ago Fire Marshal James Horan and twenty-four of his men went to their death beneath the ruins of the Morris & Co. warehouse.

Early estimates of the loss are from $400,000 to $500,000.

WANTS TO AVOID PANIC.

Senator La Follette in Grand Rapids Address Says Radical Change Is to Be Avoided.

[BY A. P. NIGHT WIRE TO THE TIMES.]

GRAND RAPIDS (Mich.) Jan. 2.—In his speech here tonight, Senator Robert M. La Follette talked on the tariff.

"I am a Republican," he said, "and I believe in protection. But I do not believe in any kind of protection that permits and fosters the building up of combinations and monopolies such as have been built up in the last decade.

"If the next decade were to see as great an advance in combinations as the last one, I want to say to you business men that you will be swept out of existence. The water must be squeezed out of the stocks. We must have a change in the business system. But we must not have a change so radical that it will bring on a crash. If we were to have a real panic, not one big business corporation would be left when it had passed."

Senator La Follette's speech practically was a repetition of those made at Saginaw and Bay City, Monday night. He concluded with an outline of the progressive platform—the direct election of United States Senators, Presidential primaries and the initiative, referendum and recall.

The Senator made no reference to the speech delivered at Lansing this afternoon by Gov. Osborn, in which the Governor advocated the withdrawal of both Taft and La Follette from the Presidential race.

PROTEST AGAINST HOOK.

RENO (Nev.) Jan. 2.—Anticipating the nomination of Judge Hook to the Supreme bench, the Nevada Railroad Commission tonight wired to the Nevada Senators and Congressman asking them to oppose the confirmation of the nomination. The resolution strongly urges the nomination of Franklin K. Lane, or if not, says "some other broadly progressive man in sympathy with the people and not with special interests should be named."

"We are authoritatively informed," the message reads in part, "that Judge Hook's sympathies are all with the public service corporations in the matter of their regulation. No man should be placed on the bench at this time whose views upon this all-important point are open to the smallest doubt."

Opposition to Judge Hook, it is learned from one of the commissioners, is based largely upon his decision in the Oklahoma rate case now on appeal to the Supreme Court.

BANKS SHOW INCREASES.

WASHINGTON (D. C.) Jan. 2.—[Exclusive Dispatch.] The abstract of the condition of the national banks of California, exclusive of San Francisco and Los Angeles, at the close of business on December 5, as reported to the Comptroller of the Currency, shows the average reserve held at 17.16 per cent, as compared with 16.85 per cent. on September 1. Loans and discounts increase from $82,776,846 to $88,776,403. Gold coin from $6,071,291 to $7,277,269. Total specie from $7,522,853 to $8,996,122. Individual deposits from $97,416,436 to $110,999,460.

BIG BOND IS "BROKEN."

CHICAGO, Jan. 2.—[By A. P. Night Wire.] When United States District Judge K. M. Landis some months ago refused to consider a bill of review filed by counsel for the executors of the will of John Alexander Dowie, founder of Zion City, he fixed the appeal bond at $5,100,000. The United States Circuit Court of Appeals held today that the enormous bond was "neither reasonable nor authorized under the statute," as no stay order was involved. Accordingly the bill of review is reinstated.

WRECKED IN FRIGID WEATHER.

BEMIDJI (Minn.) Jan. 2.—[By A. P. Night Wire.] A southbound passenger train on the Minnesota and International Railway en route from International Falls to Minneapolis was wrecked at Farley, about seventeen miles north of here today. Sixteen persons are reported injured, one fatally. Failure to close a switch is said to have caused derailment. The temperature is 30 degrees below zero.

WORK AGAINST HARMON.

COLUMBUS (O.) Jan. 2.—The conference of insurgent Democrats opened here today with indications that the doctrines advocated by Gov. Judson Harmon would be condemned. No candidate will be indorsed for the Democratic nomination for President if the orginators of the movement can avert such a proceeding.

"Progressive planks in the Democratic platform is what this organization will endeavor to obtain," said former Congressman Lentz. "The movement will be carried throughout the Union."

JUDGE'S HOME DYNAMITED.

TYRONE (Ky.) Jan. 2.—[By A. P. Night Wire.] The home of Police Judge John Lancaster was blown up with dynamite here today and practically wrecked. No one was injured. It is believed that revenge was the cause for blowing up the house. An investigation is being made.

LOST BY FORGERIES.

WASHINGTON, Jan. 2.—[By A. P. Night Wire.] Herbert F. Johnson, Federal examiner in charge of the Albion National bank, today reported to Comptroller Murray that the bank admittedly has been defrauded of $90,000 by forgeries.

YOUNG WOMAN RUN DOWN AND HURT BY AUTOMOBILE.

[BY DIRECT WIRE TO THE TIMES.]

PASADENA, Jan. 2.—[Exclusive Dispatch.] Miss Mamie Adamson, who lives at No. 2029 B street, South Pasadena, is at the South Pasadena Hospital with a basal fracture of the skull as the result of an automobile accident near Sierra Vista at 6:30 o'clock last night.

Miss Adamson, who is about 20 years of age, had just alighted from a Pacific Electric car on her way home from Los Angeles in company with her father, when she stepped aside to avoid collision with a motorcycle and was struck and knocked down by an automobile. The name of the driver of the machine could not be ascertained here tonight.

The injured woman was taken in the machine to her home and later removed to the hospital. At a late hour last night she had not regained consciousness.

Died Soon After.

BELLE OF CHINATOWN RUN DOWN BY ENGINE.

WHILE crossing the dimly-lighted tracks at the Marchessault and Alameda-street crossing at 9:30 o'clock, last night, Mrs. Gon Toy, a former belle in the oriental colony and reputed to be one of the most beautiful Chinese women on the Pacific Coast, was struck by a passing Southern Pacific engine and received injuries that caused death shortly after midnight.

The woman was the wife of Chon Tue Duck, a wealthy Chinese druggist, at No. 242 Marchessault street, and lived with her husband in the family home at No. 302, a few doors away.

She had been shopping in the business district and was returning to her home, when a light engine, backing north on Alameda street, came upon her without apparent warning. She was thrown under the wheels, which passed over the right hip. Upon her immediate removal to the Receiving Hospital, it was found that her condition was such that an operation was deemed inadvisable.

Information obtained by Lieut. Adams last night tended to show that the engine responsible for the accident was No. 2417, in charge of Engineer McComas, but the authorities were unable to get into communication with him last night in order to ascertain his side of the case. The engineer did not stop after the accident. Friends of the engineer assert that the accident might have happened without the knowledge of the driver.

BAND CONCERTS TO BE PROVIDED.

Crown City People to Enjoy Musical Feasts.

Federal Government Refused a Sign Concession.

Rose Tournament Receipts More than Expected.

PASADENA, Jan. 2.—Although definite arrangements have not yet been made, the concerts of the new Pasadena Municipal Band will probably begin next Sunday or the following Wednesday. There will be two each week, except between February 15 and March 15, when there may be three concerts a week.

"We intended to take this question up at this morning's session, but did not have time," said H. R. Hertel, one of the city commissioners, last night. "However, it has practically been arranged and we expect to begin the concerts next week. The first one will be, I think, either next Sunday afternoon or the afternoon of the following Wednesday.

"The intention of the Commissioners is to have the band supply two concerts a week, Wednesday and Sunday afternoons. Between February 15 and March 15 there will very likely be three concerts, I do not now know upon just what days.

"The concerts will probably all be given at Central Park. That is where they have been in the past and the people are accustomed to go there to hear them. To change from one park to another necessitates hauling the benches to and fro.

"As in former years we will ask the band not to play ragtime music on Sundays. Just how late in the spring the band will continue to play I do not know. This will depend entirely upon the appropriations. We will probably save enough out of them to have music on the Fourth of July. It is also customary to have the city band play on Decoration Day."

Little business was transacted yesterday by the Commission. The session was one of the shortest that has been held for some time. The bills allowed were: $3594.26, for the fire department; $2822.07, for the police department, and $1479.40, for the park department.

REFUSES PERMISSION.

Even the United States government was refused permission to set aside the provisions of the city ordinance relating to street signs yesterday. Postmaster Wood made the request of the Council that in view of the fact that the postoffice is one of the most important places in the city, the Postoffice Department of the United States be permitted to hang a sign with the word "Postoffice" upon it across the sidewalk.

The Councilmen after some discussion took the stand that the fact that the request came from the government was no reason why the ordinance should be set aside and refused the desired permission.

Mayor Thum and City Clerk Dwyer were authorized to proceed with the purchase of the $16,000 worth of auto fire apparatus, recommended by the City Commission.

In a petition signed by T. P. Lukens and T. H. McCoy, Jr., the Pasadena Realty Board yesterday urged the Council to enact such legislation as will prevent what it maintains is an abuse of the freedom of the city streets.

"Attention is called to a practice," the petition reads in part, "by many in driving along the streets of our city in such a position as to force an overtaking vehicle to drive across the street railroad tracks in order to pass, thus increasing the danger of passing vehicles from contact with the rail.

"Another abuse of the public streets is frequently indulged in by teamsters driving side by side, thus taking up the entire space on the going side, forcing vehicles to cross the coming side of the street, endangering life and property by coming in contact with street cars, if there are any on the streets, or endangering collision with coming cars on their own side."

Much routine business was transacted.

COUNTING THE MONEY.

Officers of the Tournament of Roses Association, although tired out by the strain of the work of the last few weeks, put in the greater part of yesterday checking up the results of the undertaking. It was announced last night from the headquarters of the organization in the Chamber of Commerce building that a financial statement will not be forthcoming for several days, as it will take this much time to go over everything and find just where the association stands.

It is believed by the directors of the organization, however, that the receipts will total something in the neighborhood of $16,000. G. Frost, who had charge of the sale of tickets, yesterday turned over to the directors $12,000 as a part of the sum.

VETERAN IS CALLED.

Selwyn Willard Wood of No. 852 South Lake avenue died suddenly at his home early yesterday morning of heart failure. He had lived in Pasadena eighteen months, and before that in Glendora, and was well known. He was 68 years of age.

He was a Civil War veteran, having served as sergeant in Co. F, Eighth Illinois Cavalry. He was also a Mason and was a native of Illinois.

He leaves a widow, four daughters and one son. The daughters are Mrs. Joseph Grinnell and Mrs. Harry Swarth of Berkeley and Miss Helen Wood and Miss Miriam Wood of this city. The son is Willard S. Wood, also of Pasadena.

The date of funeral services has not been set as yet. Interment will be made at the Glendora Cemetery. It will be private and the Masons will have charge of the services.

CITY BRIEFS.

The local Salvation Army corps yesterday was given five wagonloads of food that was left of the supply laid in to feed the New Year crowd. It was turned over by the organization to poor families of the city.

The funeral of Stanley DuBois, who died last Saturday at his home, No. 1339 East Walnut street, will be held next Friday morning at 10:30 o'clock at the chapel of the Presbyterian Church. Interment will be made in Mountain View Cemetery.

The funeral of Miss Ella F. Thompson, who died at her residence, No. 1141 Pine street, Oneonta Park, last Monday, will be held at 4 o'clock tomorrow afternoon from the Ives, Warren & Salisbury chapel. Interment will be private.

A series of revival meetings opened last night with services in the First Pentecostal Church of the Nazarene, corner North Fair Oaks avenue and Mary street.

Word has been received yesterday that Col. G. G. Green, owner of the Hotel Green, who is now in Woodbury, N. J., will arrive in Pasadena within the next week or two.

Six reports reached the police from victims of pickpockets the day of the Tournament of Roses.

Regular class work began at Carmelita playgrounds yesterday and will continue until next summer.

The Pastors' Union of Pasadena yesterday drafted a letter of commendation as a mark of the esteem in which the members hold Rev. Milton M. Kilpatrick, pastor of the United Presbyterian Church, who soon goes to a new field in a southern city.

W. S. Lacey of Pasadena city, general organizer for the Fraternal Aid Society, has returned home after an absence of a year or more.

The schools opened again yesterday and there was a large increase in attendance, many families who recently moved to the city having waited until after the holidays to enter their children.

Reports from the public library show that there has recently been a remarkable increase in the number of persons who have drawn upon the institution for reading.

Stephen Brown, who was arrested with two others last Monday at Tournament Park and between whom and Patrolman Adams a fight ensued, in which each was injured, appeared before Police Judge McDonald yesterday and was sentenced to serve thirty days in the County Jail. John Pinkham and Ralph Gipson, the other two, will be tried this morning and the 24th inst., respectively.

DEATH IS TAKING TOLL.

Ranks of Veterans Being Rapidly Thinned by Disease and the Hand of Time.

SOLDIERS' HOME, Jan. 2.—If deaths among veterans of the war, generally, are in proportion to those occurring in this home, there will soon be but a handful scattered here and there throughout the United States. Scarcely a day passes without at least one more being borne to the last resting place on the hillside—and it is no longer unusual for some old hero to say: "I'm tired. Help me to my bed."

Such was the case at noon today, when Bernard McGraine, as he passed out from the dining-hall in barrack L, and staggering as he reached the doorway, would have fallen but for the sergeant of the company, who caught him and assisted him to his bed, where he instantly expired.

McGraine served during the Civil War in Company F, Eleventh Illinois Infantry. He was admitted to the home from Baker City, Or., in 1897; was a native of Ireland, and was 71 years of age.

OTHER DEATHS.

Peter Knapp, formerly of Company H, 128th Ohio Infantry, a native of Ohio, admitted from Los Angeles in 1895, died December 28, aged 66.

David L. Crutchfield, formerly of Company I, Seventieth Indiana Infantry, a native of Indiana, admitted from Los Angeles in 1911, died December 20, aged 81.

Gabriel C. Wacht, formerly of Company B, Fifth Pennsylvania Infantry, a native of Sweden, admitted from Los Angeles in 1899, died December 30, aged 78.

Jeremiah Lucy, formerly of Company C, Fourth United States Cavalry, a native of Ireland, admitted from Phoenix, Ariz., in 1911, died January 1, 1911, aged 59.

Society is now at Coronado.

AVIATION CLUB BUYS LAND.

Los Angeles Flying Association Will Construct Shops and Level Big Track for Use of Flyers.

TROPICO, Jan. 2.—The Aviation Club of Los Angeles has purchased 180 acres of land of Griffith J. Griffith, one-half mile west of the city of Tropico, on the east side of Griffith Park. The old Spanish adobe farm house, which the Griffith family tenanted for many years, is located on this land, and it is the design of the aviation club to enlarge and remodel the building for a clubhouse, making of it a resort equal to any in the country. There will be machine shops built for manufacturing and repairing, and hangars to house the machines.

NEWS BRIEFS.

The work on Tropico avenue is nearly completed, the contractor setting the pace by working holidays. The sidewalks are receiving the finishing touches, when it will be turned over to the city. The improvement of other streets is to be pushed rapidly forward, as contracts have been let for them.

Rev. C. R. Horton and wife entertained their sons and daughters today. There were eighteen children and grandchildren present.

Long Beach Girl Leaves Home for Stage.

Police of Two Cities Searching for Runaway.

Engineer at Substation Gets a Terrible Shock.

LONG BEACH, Jan. 2.—The parents of Miss Edith Moody, aged 16, today sought the aid of the police in locating the child, who has been missing since yesterday morning.

Edith, who is a pretty girl, slender and of medium size, brown-eyed and brown-haired, was sent by her mother to the grocery yesterday morning from the home on Linden avenue. The child called at the grocer, made her purchases and told the grocer to set them aside for a few minutes until she should call for them. That is the last seen of her, and her parents are much distressed. She has a dim scar on the left cheek and when she left home wore a soft black hat, long black coat, gray sweater, blue skirt and tan shoes.

Some time ago Edith became imbued with theatrical ambitions and began gathering her clothing for a runaway, but she confided her plans to a chum, who notified her parents and the plan was nipped in the bud. Since then the girl has been restless at intervals of a month, and it is thought that yesterday, seeing the crowds going to Los Angeles, the old longing seized her and she boarded a car for Pasadena, and is perhaps unable to get back unless she has met with misfortune of some sort. Postcards with a good photo of the girl and her description were sent out this evening by Chief Moyer to all the surrounding towns and cities.

ENGINEER INJURED.

Jack Gerard, who recently was appointed assistant engineer at the Pacific Electric substation, was severely injured last night.

He was supervising some changes and was working on the brushes connected with one of the dynamos when a short-circuit developed in the dynamo and an immense ball of fire leaped out and ran up his right arm, burning it to the elbow, in addition to a severe shock, which knocked Gerard prostrate.

A workman temporarily bandaged the injured arm and Gerard pluckily remained at work during his shift. After being relieved he sought medical attention, and was told to go to bed and not attempt to work for several weeks.

SIGHT SAGE MONEY.

Supt. J. D. Graham of the public schools, received a letter today from the Russell Sage Foundation, in New York City, saying that complimentary notices of the local High School and its work had been read in the New England Journal of Education and asked for all literature dealing with the school's domestic science department, cafeteria, gymnasium and other special features be sent to the foundation headquarters. The High School and grammar grades reopened today after the Christmas holidays with increased attendance in both divisions.

Long Beach boatmen who expect to operate between Long Beach and Catalina this summer, say that prospects are favorable for securing permission to build a wharf at Avalon, at which to dock their boats.

Friends of Jack Allen, a shoemaker, are worried over his absence and fear that some harm has befallen him. Allen was last seen three weeks ago, and since then his shop has been closed and several patrons have been unable to get their work left with him. Nothing in his room has been disturbed, and his absence cannot be accounted for.

The members of the new City Council, who take their seats next Monday morning, held an informal caucus tonight to decide upon the presiding officer and outline their plans for legislation. They also discussed, it is understood, some of the prospective new appointments of Mayor-elect Hatch. It is probable that Victor Humphreys, re-elected from the Seventh Ward without opposition, will be president of the Council.

Santa Monica.

NEW MAYOR FAVORS A REVISION OF CHARTER.

SANTA MONICA, Jan. 2.—Mayor Dow tonight sent to the City Council his message, which embodied suggestions for municipal legislation for the term. He made many recommendations to the law-making branch of the municipal government, and among other matters recommended an early revision of the city charter. He also recommends that suit be at once filed by the city to compel the railroads to sell tickets and check baggage direct to Santa Monica from eastern points. He also favors compulsory consolidation of the two telephone systems, and he very much desires that the city acquire the private water plants and operate them as municipal properties.

Samuel L. Berkeley, the new president of the City Council, was elected as the Sixth Ward candidate of the Citizens' Municipal League. He came to this city from Iowa, and has been prominently identified with the business interests of the beach since coming west. He is active in Sunday-school work, being a member of the Baptist Church.

The new City Council met tonight and organized by the election of S. L. Berkeley to the presidency. Mayor Dow's appointments were announced and confirmed as follows:

City Engineer—W. W. Phelps.
Street Superintendent — Henry E. Stone.
Building Superintendent — H. W. Hollwedel.
Clerk to Mayor — Frank L. Edinborough.
Members of the Board of Health—J. A. Baisley, F. J. Wagner.
City Attorney—Harris W. Taft.
Park Commissioners—C. F. Schrader, Roy Jones.

Samuel L. Berkeley,

New president of the Santa Monica City Council.

The Council re-elected J. J. Carrillo police judge.

The Board of Education met tonight and elected Mrs. D. G. Stephens president to succeed herself.

POSTAL BANK.

BANNING, Jan. 2.—The local postmaster has been notified to prepare for the opening of a postal savings department here on January 18. This town will be the first postal bank point to be designated between Colton and Yuma, and the success of the venture will be watched with interest, as the banks are not numerous in horticultural towns, such as Banning.

FAMOUS ENGLISH PREACHER.

Pastor of City Temple in London Will Be Heard in Claremont Congregational Church.

POMONA, Jan. 2.—Rev. J. R. Campbell, pastor of the City Temple in London, Eng., will be at Claremont Saturday night, where he will deliver a sermon in the Congregational Church. The pastors of this city are planning to give him an enthusiastic welcome. His sermon is to be preceded by special music, the musicians of the College City and Pomona taking part.

STRANGE CHUMS.

A. W. Snyder, proprietor of the Hotel Angelus, has two pets that are inseparable. They are a deer and a dog. Instead of being an enemy, the dog is a protector and guardian of the deer and will allow no one unknown to approach his companion without proper introduction. The animals drink and eat from the same dishes, and when released from the yard are tied to the same chain, never antagonizing each other. About a year ago Snyder, with friends, was hunting in the North. While he was chasing a buck, his dog was running down a fawn evidently only a few days old. The animal was frightened and ran into Snyder's arms. Snyder took it home and much to his surprise the dog was friendly toward it.

JIM MADE A MISTAKE.

Santa Ana Officer Is Approached by Man Who Had a Wheel to Sell and Is Locked Up.

SANTA ANA, Jan. 2.—A man who says his name is Jim Shelton made a mistake last night when he attempted to sell a bicycle to C. E. Jackson, a constable. Shelton did not know Jackson was an officer and when him he would sell a good wheel nearly new, for $15. Jackson arrested the man on suspicion, and the officer is certain that the wheel is a Victor, No. 71,944, is stolen, but as yet found no owner.

Shelton is still in jail.

SLAYER LOSES HIS COURAGE.

San Diego Man Weeps During Court Proceedings.

Claims He Was Hypnotized by His Victim.

During Escape Is Made from the County Jail.

SAN DIEGO, Jan. 2.—Trembling from nervous exhaustion and at times breaking into cries of a child, George W. Harrington, the real estate broker who Saturday shot and killed Frederick Knesbone in the Union barber-shop on E street, this morning sat through the proceedings of the Coroner's jury, which returned a verdict charging Harrington with murder.

At the conclusion of the hearing Harrington, while leaning on the arm of his attorney, Tudor S. Rogers, repeated declarations that he never meant to kill Knesbone.

"He hypnotized me, and I couldn't keep from it," said Harrington. "If he hadn't have hypnotized me I would never have dared to." cried Harrington.

Attorney Rogers sought to prevent Harrington from talking and advised him to be quiet and not say too much. While waiting for the police automobile to return Harrington to jail, he was in the office of the undertaker's parlors, where the inquest was held. While there Harrington recognized and spoke to several acquaintances, newspaper men and real estate brokers, with whom Harrington was popular. Attorney Rogers kept him from talking and his friends advised him to shut up. Harrington throughout the time was in a state of nervous collapse. He kept his face buried in a handkerchief and sobbed like a child. Harrington appears to be suffering great agony. His eyes are red from lack of sleep and his condition is such that the jail officials have been instructed to keep a close watch to prevent any attempt to destroy himself.

At the inquest the barbers employed in the shop where the shooting occurred, E. C. McCoy, the clerk who sold Harrington the revolver with which the shooting was done, and officers who made the arrest, testified as witnesses. W. E. Gentry stated that Knesbone came into his shop, followed by Harrington. Gentry appeared to be quarreling, although he did not regard their quarrel as conversation as serious. Harrington told Gentry some time before that he had decided on a way to get even with Knesbone and that he would shoot him with a revolver. Harrington then left the shop and Knesbone followed a few minutes later. Gentry was in a chair in which to cut Knesbone's hair. Soon after the hair-cloth was adjusted Harrington came to the door and walked up to the chair, remarking something like, "You don't think I'll shoot you, do you?" Gentry says he then heard five shots. Gentry then ran into a corner and when Harrington had finished shooting he asked Gentry to take him to a saloon to buy him a drink. Gentry accompanied Harrington to the saloon and while there Deputy Sheriff Jack Cornell came in and placed Harrington under arrest.

W. F. McCoy, clerk in a sporting goods store, stated that when Harrington came into the store he did not appear excited and he did not consider that he was intoxicated. He sold him a 38-caliber Smith & Wesson revolver and a box of Iver Johnson smokeless cartridges. The cartridges and revolver were introduced as evidence and Gentry turned over to Dist.-Atty. Utley. The jury's verdict was that the jurors find that Frederick Knesbone came to his death by a gunshot wound at the hand of George Harrington, and that it is murder."

Members of the jury were John M. Bowker, H. Miller, J. L. Parker, Frank Smith, T. H. Jacks, Charles Truitt, W. Kane.

Ontario.

WILL RAISE TEN THO DOLLARS FOR BU

ONTARIO, Jan. 2.—Ten thousand dollars is to be raised by public subscription in Ontario in five days for the purchase of lots and building for the Ontario Y.M.C.A.

For a year or more this move has been under discussion and at a late meeting of the Ontario Chamber of Commerce, the plan of securing association equipment was indorsed as a public necessity. A few weeks ago representatives of the State Committee held a conference in this city with local men. The quick campaign was decided on as well as the size and style of the proposed building. Plans were taken on three lots at the corner of C street and Laurel avenue, the total size of the tract being 197 feet.

The lots will cost in the neighborhood of $4000, while it is proposed to spend between $40000 and $50000 on the building, which is to be of Spanish architecture. The local association already has some splendid assets, the gift of the Ontario Athletic Club, which will be placed in the new building. The building will contain a meeting place for the men, educational class rooms, shower baths and parlors. The field, which is of ample size, will be fitted as an athletic park, where indoor baseball, football and basketball may be played. The lots will be so arranged that it can be used at night. With this equipment it can be done and if at any time a larger building is needed, funds now secured are available.

The drive for the erection of this building will be secured by subscription in Ontario and adjacent territory, the funds covering a period of three years.

...using a piece of cast iron from ...bunk in a corridor of the ...Jail, Frank T. Owens, wanted ...on a misdemeanor ...and who served two years in San Quentin for burglary, dug his way from his cell to a ventilator eight inches square and slid down the ventilator to freedom. The escape took place some time last night and a blanket hanging from the ventilator was the first indication of the escape discovered this morning. He had tied two blankets together to lower himself through the ventilator.

Owens, who weighs 116 pounds, was serving six months in the County Jail for stealing from a minister of a San Diego church. Five prisoners asleep within a few feet of Owens's cell and thirty more on the same floor denied all knowledge of his escape this morning.

HEAVY RAIN.

Heavy rain, which began at an early hour this morning, is continuing almost without interruption. There is little wind and the temperature is mild. Reports from the back country and the mountains are that the rain is extending over a large area. It is badly needed in San Diego county and the forecast issued by the local station of the weather bureau says more rain tonight. Storm warnings for vessels northbound are being displayed on the water front.

NOT SATISFIED WITH SITE.

Fullerton Will Probably Vote Again on the Location of Proposed New School Building.

FULLERTON, Jan. 2.—Local residents who were not satisfied with the site purchased for the new High School building had an injunction issued recently, preventing the trustees from letting the contract for the new building which will cost over $100,000. It is now believed there will be a compromise and that an election will be called at once to vote on the matter of changing from the Krug site to the Central tract.

The fifteen-acre Krug place was purchased by the trustees for $15,000, which included the cottage, water stock, a well and the walnut crop. The trustees had advertised for bids and were ready to let the contract when the injunction papers were served on the board.

Some weeks ago the High School Board had an option on the ten-acre Central tract for $15,500, but if it is now purchased it will cost $22,500. Some residents of the district favor the Central tract, because it is closer in than the present site. It will take a two-thirds vote to change sites and if the Central tract is purchased the board will then have three sites.

Under the direction of these men $10,000 is to be pledged in five days. There will be twelve teams of business men to do the work, each with a captain and five members.

The first active work in the matter was a supper tonight at the Odd Fellows' Hall, attended by the team workers and a large number of others interested in the work. A number of enthusiastic speeches were delivered.

No subscriptions were taken tonight, but tomorrow morning will be received when headquarters are opened at the Citizens' Savings Bank. A huge clock is to be placed at the headquarters and each day at 1 o'clock p.m., the hand will be moved to indicate the total amount subscribed to date. Besides the competition between the different teams the race is against time as no subscription is binding until the full amount is subscribed and the five days is the limit of effort. The campaign motto is "Everybody Gives."

NEWS BRIEFS.

A. Geraldo, a Mexican of Cucamonga, was arrested yesterday afternoon by officers of that town at San Bernardino, charged with burglarizing the White House general store at Cucamonga, early Sunday morning. When taken Geraldo was in a badly intoxicated condition and had some of the stolen articles on his person. The greater part of the loot taken, however, valued at something like $200, has not yet been recovered.

A light rain which started falling over the city about 5:30 last evening and continued until well on towards midnight added .03 of an inch to the season's total, making it 3.37 inches, just 2 inches more than at the same time last year.

Second Assistant Postmaster-General Files Report

Offers New Plan for Transportation of Mail.

Speaker Clark Gets a Unique Communication.

[BY A. P. NIGHT WIRE TO THE TIMES.]

WASHINGTON, Jan. 2.—A feature of the annual report of Joseph S. Stewart, Second Assistant Postmaster-General, made public yesterday, is a recommendation that the government pay only for what it receives in the transportation of the mails.

An elaborate discussion of the proposed plan of Postmaster-General Hitchcock to pay the railroads for actual service performed is presented. This plan, it is urged, "would eliminate all distinction between payment for weight and payment for space, and would be based on the space occupied by the mails in transit and the haul of the same."

The plan would enable the government to transport the mails at a rate of 6 per cent. above actual cost to the roads, the Interstate Commerce Commission to have authority to resolve any differences that might arise between the railroads and the Post-office Department as to an equitable adjustment.

For the fiscal year ended June 30, 1911, the expenditures of the second assistant's bureau aggregated $31,-942,209. The appropriations for the current fiscal year amount to $37,993,-580, all of which probably will not be expended because of economies that have been introduced.

Recommendations concurred in by the Postmaster-General, are made to Congress for new legislation for the service. Among these are a readjustment of compensation for transportation of mails by railroads to permit the payment of vessels for the second class on mail routes to South America, the Philippines, Japan, China and Australia, 4000 miles or more in length, at a rate not exceeding that applicable to vessels of the first class.

CLARK GETS REVELATION.

WASHINGTON, Jan. 2.—[By A. P. Night Wire.] "The Visions and Revelations of the Prophetess Irene," in eight big handwritten books, the first of which reached the office of Speaker Champ Clark yesterday, is the latest advice offered to Democratic leaders on the management of national affairs.

"I will send you seven or eight more of those records containing the full copy of all the word entrusted to my care just as fast as I can get it all copied," the "prophetess" says. "I want you to allow W. J. Bryan, Mr. Taft, Teddy Roosevelt, Secretary Cortelyou, the Chief Justice, the Secret Service and all statesmen to know and have copies of this and all the eight books you will have sent to you. Some day I will see you and may talk to you if you need any interpretation of this word."

In the 404 pages of manuscript are the visions which Speaker Clark's correspondent says "must be followed if the United States is to escape the doom of Sodom and Gomorrah." Included in the revelations are instructions for petrifying and drying ice so it will resemble popcorn; burning water, making cheese out of straw, shoes out of dog and salmon skins, meat out of the bark of trees and window panes of frozen air.

The first of the books of the new revelations was packed up and returned to the sender, Paterson, N. J., with its express charges collect.

REVOLT IN PARAGUAY.

PARIS, Jan. 2.—[By A. P. Night Wire.] The French Minister at Asuncion, Paraguay, has succeeded in getting through by a circuitous route, a dispatch to the Foreign Office, dated December 28. He says that the revolution continues, but without serious fighting. This is the only authentic communication that has reached the Foreign Office from Paraguay since the revolution broke out.

ZAPATISTAS REPULSED.

CUAUTLA (Morelos, Mex.) Jan. 2.—[By A. P. Night Wire.] Zapatistas attacked Vaultepec last night, but were repulsed by Federals. Casualties were few. The rebels blew up a bridge near Ticumen on the Interoceanic Railway, necessitating the abandonment of a passenger train near there last night. The passengers and crew walked into this city.

WABASH DISPUTE.

NEW YORK, Jan. 2.—[By A. P. Night Wire.] George Gould and his financial associates will be ousted from the control of the Wabash Railroad, now in the hands of receivers, if the plans of the Protective Committee for the 4 per cent. refunding bonds, headed by James N. Wallace of the Central Trust Company are carried out. This is the committee organized in opposition to the Pierce Committee, representing the Equitable Trust Company, trustees of the bonds, whose plans to reorganize the road have received the indorsement of Mr. Gould and of Kuhn, Loeb & Co.

RIO GRANDE SUED.

SALT LAKE CITY, Jan. 3.—[By A. P. Night Wire.] Violation of the hours of labor law is alleged in a civil suit against the Denver and Rio Grande Railroad Company, commenced by United States District Attorney Booth in the Federal Court here, yesterday. Fifteen employees, most of them engineers and brakemen, are said to have been required to work without a ten-hour interval for rest. Damages aggregating $7500 and judgment for costs are asked by the government.

REYES'S SON ARRESTED.

MEXICO CITY, Jan. 2.—[By A. P. Night Wire.] Charged with implication in the Reyes revolutionary plan, Rodolfo Reyes, son of Gen. Bernardo Reyes, was arrested yesterday afternoon and placed in Santiago Military Prison, where his father is confined. Young Reyes prior to his arrest placed himself voluntarily at the disposal of the authorities. He denies his guilt.

Gen. Reyes yesterday became slightly ill and unless improvement is shown tomorrow, he probably will be transferred to the Military Hospital.

FIGHT ON AGAIN.

The cases of William B. Hammers and his wife, Josephine Hammers, charged with perjury in connection with an affidavit made as witnesses in behalf of an assignee in a desert land investigation, will be called in Judge Wellborn's court Monday. This follows the decision of the United States Supreme Court reversing Judge Wellborn, who sustained a demurrer to the complaint and rule that a desert land claim could not be assigned and that therefore perjury could not be committed in the alleged connection.

RAID OPIUM SMOKERS.

Armed with search warrants, Inspector Fred C. Boden of the State Board of Pharmacy last night raided two Chinese opium joints located in a rooming house over No. 305 Marchessault street. Chong On, who was found in one of the rooms with a full smoking outfit, tried to escape by jumping out of the second story window. He was captured by policemen stationed in the rear of the premises.

TRY REYES'S FOLLOWERS.

BROWNSVILLE (Tex.) Jan. 2.—[By A. P. Night Wire.] A jury was empanelled late today in the United States District Court in the trial of F. A. Chapa of San Antonio and eighteen other alleged followers of Gen. Bernardo Reyes, charged with neutrality law violations. Pleas of not guilty were entered.

NEW YORK, Because of the vacancy on the bench of the United States Circuit Court, the total of Washington D. Thomas, president of the American Sugar Refining Company, and other officers and directors of the company, was put over from January 3 until March 4. The defendants are charged with violation of the Sherman law.

NEW YORK, The foundations of the Atlas Portland Cement Company, James M. Walker, chairman, announced yesterday, that the company has secured through the Central Trust Company of Chicago, a loan of $2,000,000 for the payment of the January 1, coupons, on which the company had defaulted. The trust deed will make a charge of 6 per cent. on all bonds and coupons deposited under the plan.

CONNELLSVILLE (Pa.) Announcement was made yesterday at the offices of the Frick Coke Company, the coke subsidiary of the United States Steel Corporation, that 1500 additional ovens soon will be fired, and all its plants in the region operated six days a week. The Frick Company claimed it would have 4000 ovens in operation within two weeks. There also is unusual activity among independent producers, the demand for coke being created by improved conditions at the blast furnaces of the Pittsburgh district.

NEW YORK, Some two thousand or more laundry workers went on strike yesterday for higher wages and a shortened working day, and the employers say that before they will give in New York will have to wash its own clothes or buy new linen. Employees in dye houses and hand laundries were affected.

ATLANTA (Ga.) That the conspicuous striped prison garb would be discarded at the Federal prison in this city was the announcement of the warden of the penitentiary yesterday. Only convicts who work outside of the walls of the institution will wear the distinguishing clothing in the future, the announcement from the warden announced that the "rule of silence" during meal hours had been abandoned.

NEW ROCHELLE (N. Y.) This town, the home of the late President Taft, is well under the dead pointer and painter by naming for him the union railroad station now being built here. There is also under way a project to erect in his honor a statue or a monument and control of the matter.

HONOLULU, It was reported here yesterday that Gov. Walter F. Frear of the Territory of Hawaii will be appointed early next year, with a view to his being made Assistant Secretary of the Interior in the near future. It is known that Frear has been close in the administration of Washington, and the report is given great credence. Gov. Frear declined to make any statement regarding the rumor.

NEW YORK, The body of a man who died on Thursday last in the Bellevue Hospital has been identified after a day's stay at the morgue as that of Richard Worthington, once a well-known politician, and for several years United States Consul at Malta. He was 65 years old, and leaves a prominent family in Connecticut, N. Y.

A Satiny Complexion and Beautiful Hair

MRS. B. R. in VERNON'S.

"Rough and red skin, chaps and cold sores are the bane of women in Winter. To get rid of these, apply Mother's Salve before retiring. It is a splendid remedy for pimples, eczema and other skin afflictions, and has no equal in healing old sores, burns, scalds and cuts.

"A better protection than powder for the complexion is to rub the face, neck and arms gently with a solution made by dissolving an original package of mayatone in half a pint of witch hazel. It will not rub off or show and makes the skin soft, satiny and pliable, and prevents growth of hair.

"Don't catch cold washing your head. To make a dry shampoo that will clean the scalp and hair, put a cupful of corn meal in a fruit jar, add the contents of an original package of therox, and shake well. Sprinkle a spoonful on the head and brush through the hair. It will leave the hair light and fluffy and heighten its original color."

THIRD STREET MERCHANT GETS BIG WINDFALL.

Astonishing Results of Christmas Week Buying.

Seldom, if ever, does a merchant meet with an opportunity of securing a large stock of goods at a price way under the wholesale cost, yet that is just what happened to Herington, 110 W. Third st., a few days ago.

The details of the transaction, which took place before Christmas, have just come to light. It seems that Mr. Herington was down at the wholesale house when he noticed a number of cases of the newest styles in Men's winter suits and cravenettes which had not been unpacked since received in October.

"What you got there?" asked Herington.

"There's a lot of the finest suits and overcoats that ever came to Los Angeles," answered the wholesaler. "Those fabrics were many of them woven in Europe and the garments were made up by one of the largest clothing manufacturers in the country according to the very best and most popular New York 1911-12 styles.

"We have tried our best to sell the 230 suits and 120 cravenettes in that shipment, but business this fall has been so dull that we were unable to get a single retailer to take them over."

Mr. Herington examined the stock carefully and turned away.

"What will you give me for the lot?" asked the wholesaler.

"Well, I don't want them," said Herington, I'm pretty well stock up myself."

"Make me an offer anyhow."

In a spirit of jest, Herington said: "Oh, $2500."

"They're yours," exclaimed the wholesaler. "Just about $7.00 each and I have sold the same thing all fall at $12.50 to $15—but I need the cash worse than I do the goods.

"We will send them to your store at 110 W. Third street."

Mr. Herington was astonished. He well knew that the suits were the sort that usually retailed at $12 to $20 and had absolutely no idea of making the purchase at the preposterously low figure he quoted.

However, he received the entire lot in excellent condition. The cases have just been opened and the suits and overcoats placed on sale at his store.

When seen yesterday, Mr. Herington said:

"I shall sell these suits at just $10, neither more nor less. The men who secure their clothing and overcoats here this week will reap the benefit of my unusual good luck in purchasing.

"I'll say this much, too. There isn't a suit there that can be duplicated in town for less than $15, no matter where a man goes—upstairs clothing stores or anywhere else."

Mr. Herington's reputation for unexcelled values in men's clothing should throng the store at 110 West Third street this week while these wonderful values are being shown.

BUREAU OF INFORMATION.

Times Office, No. 311 South Spring street.

NEWS IN BRIEF

Enterprise Discussed.

The industrial city at Domingues Junction was discussed last night by the members of the Evening City Club. Rev. Dana W. Bartlett led the discussion.

For the Commander-in-Chief.

The Chamber of Commerce yesterday appointed a Reception Committee of seventy comrades and 160 other leading citizens for the reception to be tendered Commander-in-Chief Trimble of the Grand Army of the Republic and party next Tuesday evening.

Chamber's Nomination Today.

The annual nomination of officers and directors for the Chamber of Commerce will be held in the directors' room at 4 o'clock this afternoon. This nomination calls for the election of sixteen directors and four officers. The election will be held next Wednesday from 9 a.m. until 3 o'clock p.m.

Caught in Cog Wheels.

Federated Improvement Meeting.

The first meeting of the Federated Improvement Association for the new year will be held tomorrow night in Blanchard Hall, and every possible effort will be made to provide an interesting programme, so that all who attend may be entertained as well as benefited. The new officers are as follows: President, J. M. Glass; vice-presidents, Joseph Mesmer, H. S. McCallum; treasurer, Louis Hansen; secretary, H. M. Chapman.

Pioneers and Their Friends.

The Pioneers of Los Angeles will hold an old-fashioned sociable tomorrow night in Columbia Hall, northwest corner of First and Spring streets, to which the Native Sons and Daughters of the Golden West and their friends are invited. There will be a fine programme of music, refreshments will be served and short addresses will be made by W. H. Workman, Henry Hazzard, Ed DeCamp and J. J. Byrne.

Costs to Keep Cows.

The Supervisor of the Angeles Forest Reserve has received from the Department of Agriculture the schedule of prices to be charged for grazing privileges during the coming year. During the summer season, from April 1 to November 15, the figures will be 50 cents each for cattle and 40 cents for horses; for the winter season, from October 16 to March 31, 38 cents for cattle and 36 cents for horses. For the year-long period, April 1, 1912, to March 31, 1913, the cost will be 50 cents for cattle and 65 cents for horses. It is estimated that about 4300 head of both classes of stock will be grazed on the reserve in the year.

Internal Revenue Swells.

Figures furnished yesterday by Collector of Internal Revenue Parker, Sixth District, disclose the largest sale of government stamps in the history of the office during December. Taxes paid were $40,-482.30; cigars, $4643.76; tobacco, $302.94. The collections for the first six months of the fiscal year 1911-1912 were $437,350.77; collections for the first six months of the fiscal year 1910-1911 were $381,497.09; an increase of $55,853.68, or 14.6 per cent. The collections from tax paid spirit stamps for the first six months of 1911-1912 were $185,052.99; for the first six months, 1910-1911, $160,949.67; an increase of $25,-004.32; a gain of 15 per cent.

A Bountiful Feast.

G. G. Johnson, a member of the Chamber of Commerce, has returned from Holtville with an enthusiastic story of the New Year feast prepared by the citizens of that city. Under the direction of G. H. Williams, president of the Fiesta, 11,000 persons were served turkey, coffee, mince pie, cheese, pickles, cream and other dainties. Johnson states that 5950 pounds of turkey was dispensed, 1950 pounds of mutton, 3000 pounds of beef, 1500 mince pies and 1200 loaves of bread. Afterward there were chariot races, bronco busting, steer roping, jackrabbit and greased-pig round-ups and a ball in the evening.

For Law Students.

To make it as easy as possible for law students to enter the law college of the University of Southern California in mid-season, the faculty has arranged for a special course in elementary law during the month of January. It provides five recitations each week. This will fit the student coming in at the second semester in February, so that he can have a good working knowledge of elementary law and will be able to take up enough subjects in the second semester so that with the addition of a term in the summer school the full work can be completed in the three years of day work or four years of night work.

Cleaning the City.

CRUSADE ON TO BANISH VICIOUS.

POLICE AFTER CROOKS AND OTHER SUSPECTS.

The Chief Issues Orders that the Dragnet Be Spread and the Results Are Almost Immediate—Swindler Is Captured Waiting for Victim. Imposter Cripple.

Determined to rid the city of all suspicious characters as well as known violators of the law, officers working under the direct orders of the Chief of Police began spreading the dragnet yesterday with the result that crooks and confidence men were kept on a hot griddle last night.

As soon as the order was received from the head of the department, Detective McNamara of the East Side Station, who is reputed to know many of these characters, was given a squad of seasoned men and the work of ferreting out the malefactors began in earnest. Among the first prisoners taken to the City Jail as a result was Kent Marshall, an alleged member of the former Soapy Smith gang, whose operations in the swindling line extended from San Diego to Alaska.

Marshall, according to the police, had given up the old gold brick and confidence game swindle and was seeking victims in a new wire-tapping scheme when he was captured at Sixth and Spring streets while waiting for a "client" with money.

Frank Domingues, attorney, appeared before the Chief and offered bail to any amount for the release of the prisoner. Chief Sebastian decided that Marshall was too anxious to emerge from the clutches of the law, and it was decided to hold him pending further investigation. It is believed he may be wanted in other cities on more serious charges.

Later in the night Pat Gorman, who says he is the organizer of the newsboys' union of Seattle, was picked up at Second and Main streets by Plain-clothes Officer Robinson on a charge of trying to swindle sympathetic passersby with a tale that he was a downtrodden union man crushed by the enemies of organized labor. To give emphasis to his story, Gorman displayed a seemingly crippled hand and explained that he was unable to work at an honest living on account of rheumatism.

He admitted his connection with the I.W.W. when taken to the City Jail, and an examination of his alleged maimed hand showed at once that he was an imposter seeking to work on the sympathies of good people.

THEY WANT CHEAPER ICE.

Meat Dealers' and Grocers' Organizations Plan the Formation of a Company to Manufacture Ice.

J. F. Paulding, secretary of the Merchant's Exchange, declared last night at a meeting of the Retail Meat Dealers' Association that plans have been perfected for the organization of an independent ice company, unless the concerns now doing business here establish a minimum rate of 20 cents a hundred pounds for their product.

A hundred contracts for ice at this rate were signed at the meeting, and another hundred contracts are all that is necessary to make possible the establishment of the new company, according to Paulding.

Supporting the Retail Meat Dealers' Association, which has 215 members, are the Retail Grocers' Association and the druggists of the city. They are all affiliated with the Merchants' Exchange, which has a membership of 1500 concerns, 1200 of them consumers of ice.

The meeting last night was presided over by R. M. Meek, president of the Retail Meat Dealers' Association. The grocers will hold a meeting tomorrow night. The dealers complain that the local ice companies have recently increased the minimum rate of ice from 14 cents to 25 cents per hundredweight. This rate is much higher in the outlying districts, according to the members of the Merchants' Exchange.

WOULD TAKE HIS MEASURE.

Japanese Scrub Boy Longs to Return to the Hayward and Offers President a Fancy Vest Indgement.

Harry C. Fryman, president of the Hayward Hotel Company, feels it incumbent on himself as a host to be polite when occasion demands it, but yesterday he received a letter which left him in doubt as to whether he has acquired the first principles of etiquette.

The letter is from a former scrub boy at the Hayward. All scrub boys are not paragons of politeness, but this one is a Japanese. He has been on a leave of absence at his own request, but he labors under the misapprehension that he has been discharged and now he begs the great honor to be returned to his post of distinction and furthermore craves in language as flowery as Nippon's cherries in April for the never-to-be-sufficiently-appreciated honor of measuring Fryman's honorable boniface for a fancy vest, which he will make with his own hands when he is not at the business end of a mop.

He assures Fryman that he is greatly learned in the use of shears and tailor's goose, having excellently qualified in this honorable profession, and he begs the pleasure of taking this measure and making the vest as a memory he may cherish all his life, whether he is reinstated in his honorable position at the mop helm or not.

Public Service: City Hall, Courts.

SUMMARY OF THE DAY.

The reappointment of Gen. Chaffee by the Board of Public Works was confirmed by the Council yesterday.

Councilman Lusk has renewed the effort to have the City Hall sold and the proceeds applied to a new building at Temple Block site.

A beautiful 13-year-old girl was contended for in the Superior Court yesterday by her father and mother, and when the judge gave the mother the custody of the child, the girl thanked him.

At the City Hall.

CITY HALL AT TEMPLE BLOCK.

NEW EFFORT TO PROVIDE FOR ITS CONSTRUCTION.

Council Receives Resolution Providing for the Sale of the Present Site and Applying the Proceeds, With Other Money, to Carrying Out Civic Center Idea.

A new effort to bring about the erection of a new City Hall at the Temple Block, where the city owns a site, was made by Councilman Lusk yesterday and indorsed by the whole Council. His idea is to adhere to the civic center idea evolved by Mulford Robinson five years ago and for which there is already a nucleus of public buildings.

Incidentally the Lusk resolution requests the Public Service Commission not to continue with its plans to build at Fifth and Olive streets. The Council has no veto power on this project but has always opposed it. The only way to prevent the construction of the six-story water building is for the Mayor to remove the Public Service Commission. This he refuses to do. He also approves the Commission's site and approves the Commission's plans.

Lusk proposes the sale of the present City Hall site and the use of the money, with additions, on the Temple Block site. The new charter permits the Council by a two-thirds vote to sell public land but a minimum price must be fixed in the ordinance ordering a sale. The ordinance is subject to a referendum. Lusk deplores a beginning of many buildings, scattered throughout the city, as he fears the water building will invite.

Lusk's resolution was unanimously referred to the Building Committee of which John Topham is chairman. Topham said he favors building a City Hall at Temple Block without delay but thinks the city should acquire a larger area—taking in the Bullard Block, for instance. It is the purpose to have the financing of the project taken care of in the July budget.

The Lusk resolution reads:

"Whereas, the city of Los Angeles, about two years ago, purchased what is known as the Temple Block for the purpose of erecting thereon a new City Hall, and

"Whereas, the city of Los Angeles is paying annually the sum of $40,000 to $50,000 in the way of rents for its various offices and departments by reason of the insufficiency of the present City Hall to accommodate them; and

"Whereas, under section 207E of the amended city charter the City Council may order the sale of the present City Hall and site by passing an ordinance of intention to that effect; and

"Whereas, it is believed that the proceeds of the sale of the present site, with perhaps some small addition thereto, would be sufficient to erect on said Temple Block a building sufficiently commodious to house and accommodate all the departments of the city government, including the water department of the city, and thus save to the taxpayers the $40,000 or $50,000 expended annually for rents; and

"Whereas, the erection of such City Hall on said Temple Block would be in keeping with the idea of a civic center and would very greatly add to the beauty of the city and especially to the convenience of its citizens; therefore be it

"Resolved, First—that it is the sense of this Council that the necessary steps be taken at once for the sale of the present City Hall and site (provided it can be sold for a fair and reasonable price) and that the proceeds thereof be applied to the erection on said Temple Block of a City Hall commensurate with the growth, needs and fame of our beautiful city;

"Resolved, Second—That the Public Service Commissioners or Water Board be respectfully requested not to erect a building at Fifth and Olive streets for the use of the water department, to the end that all our public buildings as nearly as may be shall conform to the idea of the civic center and especially to the needs and conveniences of our people."

MILK REFERENDUM.

TO BE FILED TODAY.

The petition invoking the referendum against the ordinance seeking to establish certified milk and to require the tuberculin test of all dairy cattle supplying the city, will be filed with the City Clerk today by John P. Steele, petition expert. He says it will contain nearly 24,000 signatures, nearly twice the number required. The petition was circulated by 100 canvassers, who were employed by the Milk Producers' Association.

It is not probable the whole number of signatures will be filed today as there is no desire to force an immediate special election but to suspend the ordinance until a regular or special election on some other subject. If the petition should show more than 15 per cent. of the vote cast last month for Mayor, a special election within thirty days will be necessary. If only 10 per cent., no special election will be necessary. The question cannot be submitted at the annexation election called for February 1.

Steele reports that there was little difficulty in getting the signatures and that he canvassers find much sentiment against the ordinance.

Yesterday Steele visited the District Attorney's office to obtain a warrant for one of his deputies for forgery. He says the deputy reported F. J. Zeehandelaar, Thomas L. O'Brien and scores of other prominent men as signers. They denied ever seeing a petition.

COUNCIL FRICTION.

BETKOUSKI AND M'KENZIE.

Parliamentary proceedings in the Council between Betkouski and McKenzie promise to be like Tommy Miller's prize fight—"a contest between friends wid a grudge."

Yesterday McKenzie was asked to sign a report of the new Supply Committee confirming the orders that had been made for supplies during the preceding week. It is the usual and innocent way of doing such things.

Betkouski says he explained the process to McKenzie, but the latter, before he signed, added the words "for the present" to the report. When the clerk read them Betkouski grew angry.

"It is strange that one member of the Council should not take the word of another on such things," said he.

McKenzie retorted that he intends to sign nothing that he does not understand, no matter how good the word of any Councilman may be. He said he welcomed aid in all matters but if it was not offered he would find out for himself just the same.

Mayor Wants Stenographer.

The Mayor has asked the Council to provide a stenographer for his office to relieve Frank G. Henderson, private secretary, of a double load. The Council has referred the request to the Supply Committee, of which Betkouski is the head. Now the Mayor opposed the appointment of Betkouski as chairman of the Finance Committee and succeeded. City officials are wondering whether Betkouski will hurry to grant the request for a stenographer.

New Election Expense.

The election expense thermometer took a jump yesterday when the Council was asked for $12,000 more by the City Clerk to conduct the annexation election February 1. Since last July the city has spent $76,000 in elections and the $12,000 is regarded as not the last that will be needed in addition.

City Hall Brevities.

Mayor Alexander has sent a message to the Council urging a new fire engine house south of Washington and east of Long Beach avenue, where, he says, it is needed. The request was referred to the Budget Committee.

W. H. Mead, W. H. Hoegee and others, have asked the Council to order the widening of the Los Feliz road between Vermont avenue and a point 600 feet east of Holly street, to a width of 120 feet, and to condemn all the land needed on the north side. They request that all expense be assessed against the property abutting the Los Feliz road.

Neighbors to the number of fifty have asked the Council to repeal the ordinance permitting a tuberculosis hospital on two lots on the Semi-Tropic Spiritualists tract, in the Edendale district. They say the hospital is a nuisance.

The Board of Public Works, reorganized yesterday, following the confirmation of Gen. Chaffee by re-electing A. A. Hubbard, president, and Gen. Chaffee, chairman of the Advisory Committee of the aqueduct.

At the Courthouse.

A RAY OF LIGHT IN MURKY COURT.

MOTHER IS GIVEN CUSTODY OF LOVELY DAUGHTER.

Parents Wage Bitter Warfare for the Child, Each Asserting the Other Is Unfit to Care for Her. She Thanks Judge When He Gives His Decision.

Into Judge Densmore's courtroom in the Hall of Justice, murky with the recollection of many sordid crimes tried there, stepped yesterday 13-year-old Lorena Frances Hughes of Long Beach. The picture of loveliness and girlish innocence seemed strangely out of place as the maiden, clinging to the hand of her mother, Mrs. John E. Bigelow, appeared before the bench as a suppliant.

Lorena is the prize for which her parents, divorced and remarried, contended. The father, Fred U. S. Hughes of Franklin, Pa., had petitioned the court to be appointed her guardian, as he desired her to benefit by a legacy left the child by her grandmother. The mother would not part with her and she petitioned to be appointed her guardian.

Each parent alleged that the other is not a proper person to care for the girl. But Mrs. Bigelow showed the court yesterday that she had been awarded the girl's custody when she obtained a divorce decree in San Francisco. Furthermore, she showed that Lorena had always been with her and that she had crept so deep into her heart that it would kill her to give the child to her divorced husband.

The court examined the divorce decree and awarded the child to the mother. Hughes was not present, so that the affecting scene which ensued was spared his eyes. With a glad cry, Mrs. Bigelow drew Lorena to her and kissed the pretty face. Lorena smiled through her tears.

"Thank you, judge," she said, as she tripped out.

WIDOW FILES HER PETITION.

Mrs. Mary D. Little and her daughter, Mrs. Lulu M. Thompson, filed a petition yesterday for the revocation of the will of Samuel W. Little, who died January 30, last, worth approximately $500,000, leaving a large part to charitable organizations.

The will was admitted to probate February 5. It is dated May 31, 1903, and contains four codicils. W. H. Avery was appointed executor.

The petition alleges that Little was of unsound mind and incompetent at the time he made his will, owing to his advanced age, impaired eyesight and feebleness. It is alleged not to be the will of the old man and the court is asked to make an order to show cause why the probate and codicils should not be revoked, and letters testamentary to Avery be revoked and issued to the heirs. Avery, it is alleged, was the confidential adviser and counselor of Little, and that as a rule Little depended upon him.

The petition cites that those interested in the estate are the widow, Mary D. Little and her daughter, Lulu M. Thompson. Other heirs enumerated are: Samuel M. Little, a son and his wife; Anna E. Curson and Mary M. Thompson, daughters; Lewis P. Ferguson, Jr., a great-grandson and various other relatives.

In his will Little leaves one-fourth of his estate, after certain bequests have been distributed, to the Y.M.C.A., W.C.T.U. of this city, the Los Angeles Orphans' Home, the Home Missionary Society, the Methodist Episcopal Church, the Foreign Missionary Society of the Methodist Episcopal Church, the Constituted Authorities of the Methodist Episcopal Church of California, Arizona and New Mexico, to be used for the support of such superannuated ministers and their wives, and orphans of ministers of the Methodist Episcopal Church, each church to have a twenty-fourth part of the estate. The widow is left the homestead in Brooklyn Heights Ganahl Tract, and sums of money are willed to the members of his family and relatives.

In his answer, Avery sets up that Little was sound in mind and in making his will was not influenced.

TEASES ABOUT COLT.

WIFE SAYS HE'S CRUEL.

Among other alleged cruelties which Mrs. Sarah T. Langdon says her husband, Leslie, practiced upon her was threats to sell a colt they jointly owned, in order to annoy her. Mrs. Langdon's suit for divorce will be heard by Judge Monroe today. She says she is 16, and Leslie 30. They were married in this city February 16, last.

Beginning July 1, she states that her husband became quarrelsome and fault-finding and in October began to drink. She declares he has thrown her clothes out of the house and told her to get out. According to her, he bought hair combs at Long Beach and showing them to her, said: "These are for you when you behave yourself and quit your growling and grumbling around." She believes Leslie to be worth $10,000, and asks $50 a month alimony.

UNTIES LEGAL KNOT.

DECIDES UNUSUAL CASE.

An unusual decision was rendered yesterday by Judge Densmore in the case of A. B. Chappell against J. D. Thompson and Fred J. Wright.

It was a suit on a judgment secured in Iowa against the defendants. It appeared from the testimony that Thompson and Wright have not been in California more than two years. The life of a judgment in this State is five years. It has fifteen years to run in Iowa. Hence the judgment did not begin to run until they came into the State.

Apparently there is no decision in the California courts bearing on this question. Judge Densmore searched the statutes of other States and found them at variance. Plainly the judgment was not outlawed, and the decision was given in favor of the defendants.

COURTHOUSE NOTES.

BREVITIES MISCELLANEOUS.

CASE SUBMITTED. Yesterday afternoon marked the close of the three-day suit of Etta D. Turner against Wesley Haskell and F. C. Wolff, involving the ownership of land and the payment of a judgment for $2000 growing out of injuries alleged to have been received by the plaintiff by Haskell's automobile. Judge Houser, before whom the case was tried, ordered it submitted on briefs. Miss Turner alleges that Haskell, in order to evade payment of the judgment, conveyed his property to Wolff and that the latter transferred it to Miss Mira Hershey. The latter testified that it was a bonafide purchase. Haskell denies the allegation of fraud.

HERE FROM RIVERSIDE. Judge Frank E. Densmore is presiding in Department Two of the Superior Court, exchanging benches with Judge McCormick. The latter is trying a suit in which Judge Densmore is disqualified because the latter's half-brother, Lafayette Gill, is attorney for the defendant.

INFORMATIONS FILED. The District Attorney yesterday filed informations against the following: E. C. Roberts, charged with having issued a fictitious check; Robert W. Hammett, grand larceny; N. Komal, assault with a deadly weapon; Antone Abila and William Dougall, arson. The latter will be tried on a charge of having set fire to a vacant dwelling-house belonging to the Pomona Security Company. The prisoners will be arraigned Friday. In Judge Densmore's court the following informations were filed: John Perry, burglary; M. Castro, assault with a deadly weapon; Charles Hartwell, Henry Schubert, C. H. Van Ostern and Edward Brauer, burglary. They will be arraigned tomorrow.

FILES WILL. The will of William Billings Clapp of Pasadena was filed for probate yesterday. Clapp died December 27, aged 59. He leaves to his widow, Velma W. Clapp, the undivided interest of the estate of his father, William T. Clapp, who left property in Los Angeles worth $30,000. Mrs. Clapp is named executor without bonds.

DAMAGE SUIT. Suit was filed yesterday against the Southern Pacific by Henry H. and Claire Moody for $10,000 damages. Mrs. Moody asserts she was probably permanently injured May 21, 1907, when a Southern Pacific train ran off the track near Burbank.

By the Council.

GEN. CHAFFEE CONFIRMED; NEW COMMITTEES NAMED.

THE confirmation of the reappointment of Gen. Chaffee on the Board of Public Works and the naming of a new and unexpected list of standing committees were the important acts of President George Williams yesterday at the first regular session of the Council.

The acts were his because as president he had to cast the deciding vote on Gen. Chaffee's confirmation and the committees were his because he declared "they are selected by me and by me alone." No one doubts his quoted statement.

The confirmation of Gen. Chaffee was a surprise to the four new Councilmen, who had elected Williams president the day before, with the understanding that he sympathized with their plans of reorganization of the department of public works. Langdon, McKenzie, Reed and Topham voted against the confirmation. Andrews, Betkouski, Lusk and Whitfen voted for it. Thus the old and the new were again aligned against each other.

"All looked anxiously at Williams when his name was called. "Aye" he said promptly. By this he realigned himself with the "solid five" element of the former Council.

When the appointment of Gen. Chaffee came up Reed tried to have it and all the others sent in with it delayed for a week. He said the new members did not want to confirm persons they do not know. Whereat Betkouski, smarting under the set back of Monday, said he was surprised that a Councilman should betray ignorance about the city officials who had been in office a long time and were being reappointed. The effort to delay was lost, even Topham voting against it. But he wanted immediate action under the belief that Whitfen and Williams would vote against Gen. Chaffee. They had so expressed themselves heretofore. The result of the ballot led some of the new members to wonder if, after all, they had not been deluded when they supported Williams against Lusk. Like the old members on the day previous they whispered "throw down." Williams and Whitfen say they "changed their minds."

The other appointees confirmed were as follows:

Library Board—Mrs. Shally H. Tolhurst.

Park Commission—Dr. J. E. Cowles.

Purchasing Agent—Arthur L. Baker.

Municipal Art Commission—Mrs. Hugh L. McNeil.

But if the new four, sarcastically called the "foxy four" by the old members, were surprised by the Chaffee vote of Williams they were made furious by his committees. The new members had "slipped" a list of desirable committees to the new president before he went to the country yesterday. It gave Whitfen, Reed, Williams, Topham, McKenzie and Langdon the important chairmanships and disposed of Betkouski with the head of the Harbor Committee, which meets two or three times a year. The back seats were also filled by Andrews and Lusk. The old members were squelched.

But Williams ignored this list and also the earnest wishes of Betkouski and Andrews that they head the Finance and Legislation Committees. President Williams seems to have found a way to separate Andrews and Betkouski as widely as the opportunity permitted.

Betkouski was placed on the Finance Committee it is said because Topham insisted on it. Topham could have had the membership. The list of committees indicates that the old members have the best of it, but Betkouski is sandwiched between Whitfed and McKenzie on finance, and between Langdon and McKenzie on the Supply Committee. But McKenzie fared even worse, landing only the Bridges Committee, which seldom meets.

The new committees are:

Finance Committee—Whitfen, Betkouski and McKenzie.

Legislation Committee—Lusk, Andrews and Reed.

Supply Committee — Betkouski, Langdon and McKenzie.

Public Welfare Committee—Andrews, Topham and Lusk.

Street and Boulevards Committee—Langdon, Andrews and Topham.

Harbor Committee—Reed, Lusk and Langdon.

Land and Public Buildings Committee—Topham, Whitfen and Lusk.

Bridges, Gas, Light and Water Committee—McKenzie, Betkouski and Reed.

In the Inferior Courts.

COURTROOM IS NOT A THEATER.

SPECTATORS ARE SENT AWAY BY ORDER OF JUDGE.

Men Who Battered a Street Car Conductor Look Considerably Weather Beaten, but He Is Unable to Appear—Tipsy Negro Is Reckless With a Gun.

When Police Judge Rose convened court yesterday morning the crowd was so large it was found impossible to close the courtroom door. Casting his eye over the cosmopolitan gathering for a moment, the judge said:

"Bailiff, clear this courtroom of every person excepting those having business here. This is no place for spectators."

When Bailiff Ijubbard had resumed his seat, Judge Rose said:

"If I see the same spectator in here twice I will throw him for vag."

E. F. Buster and Charles Kennedy were arraigned for beating a Pacific Electric conductor after being ejected from a Stephenson-avenue car. Both men showed battle bruises.

"The Stephenson-avenue car man used brass knuckles on us," said Kennedy.

"Where is he?" asked the court.

"In such a condition he can't be produced in court," said the arresting officer.

"Guess it was a case of everybody fighting," mused the court as he fined both men $10 or fifteen days.

Billy Stevens, a husky-looking chap, admitted he had begged money from pedestrians.

G. W. Adair, colored, who was too intoxicated to hit a flock of barn doors, insisted on shooting in a Main-street gallery. The proprietor protested against the reckless manner in which Adair handled his rifle when he was almost shot through the abdomen.

"Fifteen days," said the court.

"We all was jus' a wrestlin,'" said E. N. Johnson, (colored) when arraigned with Joe Simons for fighting. "We all is powerful good friends, ain't us?" He appealed to Simons.

"Deed we is," replied Simons.

"The officer says you were on the ground; why didn't you get up?" asked the court.

"Well, it was this 'ere way," replied Johnson. "He was a sittin' on my coat."

"Ten dollars or ten days," was the sentence.

Charles Henry was one of half a dozen New Year's Eve celebrants who was fined $5 for discharging firearms within the city limits without having a permit.

THE COURT KNEW.

SAW PASADENA SPEEDSTERS.

About a dozen automobile speeders faced Police Judge Rose yesterday morning. In their haste to get to Pasadena to witness the Carnival of Roses, they forgot to keep a weather eye upon their speedometers.

F. C. Curry, D. L. Milts, C. Sutterly, J. H. Molton, O. Shilling, A. B. Hastings and D. H. Reeves were arraigned one after the other. All promptly pleaded guilty and paid $25 fines except Curry.

"My father was with me," he said, by way of argument against his alleged guilt. "We both kept our eyes on the speedometer. We did not know we were exceeding the speed limit."

The elder Curry stepped forward, and held up his right hand to be sworn, when Judge Rose interrupted him with the remark:

"I went over to Pasadena, too, yesterday. My son also drove the car. Perhaps you are a bit like my boy. When I told him to run a little slower, he looked at me and said:

"'Who is driving this car?'

"I'll bet 9000 machines passed me in fifteen minutes yesterday on route to Pasadena. And there wasn't one of them but what was exceeding the speed limit. I didn't see you; perhaps you beat the others over. If you were going as fast as the other fellows did, I guess you are guilty."

"Perhaps I am," said the younger Curry. "But if I am, I don't know it."

"We'll make it $25 or twenty-five days."

ADMITS GEM THEFT.

TELLS HOW IT HAPPENED.

Juan Jose Sandoval, a South American negro who assaulted and robbed Morris Marvin, a South Main street pawnbroker and gem merchant, Friday morning, pleaded guilty when arraigned before Police Judge Fredericksen yesterday morning. He was bound over to the Superior Court under $10,000 bail. Marvin identified the negro.

"My act was not premeditated," said Sandoval. "I stole the gems on the spur of the moment. Their glitter dazzled me. I had been drinking all night, and that morning took a drink in every saloon I came to. I went into this man's place to buy a stick pin. When I saw those diamonds, I just hit him, grabbed the gems and beat it."

Plays Bad Hombre.

D. Garcia was fined $125 because he attempted to shoot the night clerk of the National Hotel, 420 North Main street, when he was refused a room Saturday night. Patrolman McCarran was the complaining witness.

There were no vacant rooms when Garcia sought refuge. He came back half an hour later, and when refused a second time, poked an automatic revolver through a crack in the front door and shouted:

"I'll have a room or I'll shoot someone."

Three times he pulled the trigger, but there were no reports because the gun was not filled with the right kind of cartridges. James Williamson, a roomer, didn't know that when he ran up to the Mexican and knocked the gun from his hand with a chair.

Had Punishment Enough.

R. Sanchez and J. Agualla presented a sorry spectacle when arraigned before Police Judge Rose yesterday morning. They had been arrested for fighting.

Sanchez's shirt—he was minus a coat and vest—was covered with congealed blood which had come from a cut on the face. On the back of his head was a second wound. The back of his shirt was saturated from a wound between the ribs from a knife thrust. Agualla had a scalp wound and a cut on the face.

"Both of you seem to have received some punishment," remarked the judge. "I don't think the court ought to be very severe. I'll let 'em off easy. This time it'll be $15 or fifteen days."

Subject for a Sermon.

Frank Guarrall, a Mexican, was sentenced twice by Police Judge Rose yesterday. The first time the man answered to Bailiff Hutton's English pronunciation of Garcia, the Mexican mistaking it for Guarrall. Garcia was arrested for having attempted to shoot up a hotel. Guarrall was accused of indecent exposure. As Garcia, Guarrall was fined $25. The mistake was discovered when Guarrall was arraigned the second time. He was convicted and fined $150.

"Who is going to pay rent and take care of my wife and babies?" asked the man.

"I don't know," replied the court. "I was crazed by liquor," sobbed Guarrall.

Confederate at Large.

Sam McNair denied the charge of having carried concealed weapons when arraigned before Police Judge Williams in the University Police Court yesterday. He is the man who had a running fight Sunday morning with half a dozen police officers in a lumber yard. McNair was convicted, and will be sentenced this morning. When arrested he had two watches on his person. His companion has not been arrested.

The Sentence Stands.

Jesus Richera was fined $20 by Police Judge Rose for chasing a man up Main street with an empty revolver. His white wife sat in the dock with him, weeping silently. After sentence had been imposed, the woman told the court the man who was chased first tried to beat her husband.

"Where is that man?" asked the court.

"I don't know," said the woman.

"Sentence stands."

Big G For 30 Years the Standard Remedy for Diseases of Mucous Membranes

Experienced pharmacists will tell you Big G is the greatest standard remedy for diseases of mucous membranes—discharges from the nose, throat and urinary organs. Avoid substitutes. To experiment is dangerous. Big G, used everywhere since 1888, has proved safe and reliable. Many cheap substitutes are sold in its preparation, containing zinc, silver nitrate, lead acetate, alcohol, cocaine, or some narcotic. It may be used full strength without fear. Why not cure yourself? Sold by druggists, or you can have it sent prepaid, upon receipt of $1.00. Full directions and booklet with testimonials mailed sealed in plain envelope on request.

Oil News of Interest from Fields in General.

Activity grows apace in the Fullerton-Brea Canyon oil field. The new well of the Amalgamated Oil Company, No. 2, is flowing 600 barrels of oil a day, and it is of a finer gravity than the product of well No. 1. The company has drilled through the sand with No. 3 and will make a test for a lower and richer sand. If this plan is not successful it will perforate in the upper sand.

The Union Oil Company's lease on the Graham and Loftus land adjoins the Amalgamated, and it is said work will begin shortly, but as yet no material has been hauled to the ground. In the old Brea Canyon field the Fullerton Oil Company's No. 7 well, which was doing 1500 barrels a day several weeks ago, is now down to a daily production of less than 200 barrels. The old Monges well is still keeping up its remarkable flow of 2400 barrels a day of high gravity oil.

The Delaware Union Oil Company, which bought its property from Graham and Loftus several months ago, is about the busiest operating company in the Fullerton field at this time. It is running five strings of tools constantly, and has made many improvements and betterments in the way of machine shops, new buildings, etc. In the old portion of the Fullerton field there is much hope of increasing the production, but the more recently developed territory is rich in promise and performance. It is conceded that the new production will come from the La Habra Valley, where many wells are being drilled. The Standard, the Union and other companies are operating in this territory.

To the west of the Puente hills, up the canyon from Brea Canyon, the Union Oil Company owns thousands of acres and oil seepages abound, but the productin is meager and when more prolific fields were found this territory was temporarily abandoned. The Union maintains a large camp on the east side of the mountain range.

The town of Brea has profited greatly by the enlarged activity of the Fullerton field. Four months ago it was only a railway station, but now it has grown to be considerable of a village, and all lines of business are carried on. Most of the big oil well supply houses have established branches in Brea.

VISITING THE FIELDS.

MISSION OF EASTERNERS.

Dr. G. A. Haney and other directors of the Hughes River Oil and Gas Company, which operates in the West Virginia and Kentucky oil fields, have recently visited the Midway field. They have decided to take over certain holdings of the Philadelphia Gas Company in the northern field and install compressors to extract the gasoline from the wells owned by the company.

There has been some talk about building a glass factory if natural gas could be found in sufficient quantity, but Dr. Haney's investigations are against such a project. He has gone from Bakersfield to San Francisco.

Aldridge in Nevada.

W. H. Aldridge, the well-known mining engineer now located in this city, left yesterday for the Mason Valley property in Nevada, where the new smelter will be blown in tomorrow. Mr. Aldridge has charge of this property and is also managing director of the Inspiration Copper Company, which was recently consolidated with the Live Oak. He will be away from Los Angeles several days.

News Notes and Personals.

Thomas A. O'Donnell, field superintendent of the American Petroleum Company, has gone to the Coalinga field to inspect the company's property. He will visit the other northern fields while he is away.

J. C. Sperry, general manager of the Crocker interests in the Coalinga field, came down from San Francisco the other day to have a look at the property.

President Bohn of the California Counties Oil Company came down from San Francisco the other day to inspect the property of the company, which is located in the Coalinga field.

R. E. Gosse of Vancouver, B. C., arrived in Coalinga the other day and will remain several days looking over oil properties in which he and his associates are interested.

Stanley Dewhig of the California Oilfields, Limited, of the Coalinga field, has arrived from San Francisco and will remain in the Coalinga field for several days.

J. W. Reid of Los Angeles and Arthur F. Parish of London, Eng., are spending a few days in the Coalinga and other northern oil fields. They are interested in British holdings in the oil fields.

Nat C. Gulberson and party have reached Coalinga from Lemoore in an automobile, and will spend several days in the field looking after business interests.

H. A. Davis, salesman for the Standard Oil Company, is making his last trip through the northern oil field towns before departing for Honolulu where he will represent the company. He will be succeeded by R. L. Mann.

Harry Davies and family of Salinas have been spending a few days on the Kern Trading and Oil Company lease with C. Carter, an official of the company in the Coalinga field.

Guy H. Salisbury of Coalinga has returned to that city from San Francisco, where he spent the Christmas holidays with his family. He is well known in the oil fields.

LINEMAN INJURED.

Cyrus A. Lyon of No. 666 Austin street, a lineman for the Sunset Telephone and Telegraph Company, fell about twenty feet with a broken pole at Avenue Twenty and Dayton avenue yesterday afternoon. The pole broke off near the top, and fell on top of Lyon when he struck the ground in a sitting posture. He is injured internally.

HOW FAR FOR AMBULANCE.

Demand That County Hospital Conveyance Be Sent to All Parts of the County Raises Legal Question.

A peculiar question came before the County Supervisors yesterday, on a complaint that the ambulance of the County Hospital had refused to answer a call some forty or fifty miles from the city. The custom has been to order all patients brought to the city by rail, and they have then been met at the station by the ambulance. Recently an auto-ambulance was secured and now the people in some parts of the county are demanding that it be sent direct to the residence of the patient. In order to determine the question of their legal rights in the matter, it was referred to the District Attorney for an opinion. To comply with the unusual demand, Chairman Pridham said it would be necessary to have several more auto-ambulances, and the desire of the Supervisors is to fix the limit of distance to which the ambulance may be sent.

BOARD OF SUPERVISORS.

Contract Awarded for Improving Streets in Highland Park District. Other Minor Matters.

The contract for making improvements in the streets outside of the city, in the Highland Park district, was yesterday awarded to R. W. Law by the County Supervisors, on his bid of $39,800.

Two bids were received for the construction of a garbage incinerator for the County Hospital, according to the specifications advertised. One for $2475 was from a San Francisco firm, and that of H. L. Boyd of this city, was for $1065. The bids were taken under advisement.

The Supervisors decided to construct an oil pit at Florence Station on the Southern Pacific Railway, for road-building purposes.

The board will meet at 10 o'clock this morning to hear arguments for and against the proposed ordinance regulating the taking of abalones.

LENT IT TO THE BARBER.

First Man Arrested in New Year for Neglect Found a Novel Use for His Spare Change.

"What did I do with my money?" answered Wright C. Hughes on the witness stand in Justice Young's court yesterday morning, in reply to the sharp questioning of Deputy District Attorney Graham. "I guess I must have lent it to the barbers," he said gravely. "I lent $35 to one barber and $25 to another and $15 to another," he added.

Hughes was the first man to appear in the court in 1912 charged with failure to provide for his minor children. According to the officers, his is a peculiarly aggravated case. He has been married seven years and has three children, all under 5 years of age. His wife, who was in court, said he had contributed nothing for a long time toward maintaining the family, though he had steady work as a laborer at $2.50 a day.

"I think this man should be sent to the rock pile and have the county give his $1.50 a day earnings at that work to his wife," said the Deputy District Attorney. Justice Young asked Hughes what he did with the rest of his money and Hughes said it took all that to support himself.

"I agree with the views of Mr. Graham," finally said the court, "and I shall commit this man for trial before the Superior Court."

When Mrs. Hughes heard what sentence had been pronounced, she wept bitterly.

HE STOPS NOT.

The police are searching for the owner of automobile No. 49,929, registered under the name of James Heming, Hotel Decatur, Ocean Park. He is wanted to answer to the accusation of having knocked down Frank Flores of No. 994 Diamond street, a newsboy, in front of the South Main-street entrance to the Hotel Van Nuys. The boy sustained a broken ankle. The driver of the machine, a White steamer, did not stop to pick up the boy or inquire as to how seriously he had been injured.

THE SINGERS' ENUNCIATIONS.

Next week opera is to be sung in French in this town. The fact that several of us do not understand French should not deter us from attending the performances, because it doesn't matter in which language opera singers vocalize. Nobody can understand what they say, anyway.

THE SOMETIMES GUEST.

Among the surging throngs on the streets of the City of the Angels, which is also the City of Delight, there continuously appear farmer men from the bean, the raisin, the lemon, orange, wheat, barley, cotton and other belts of the Golden State buying new automobiles and things like that.

SWEARING OFF.

There seems to have been less swearing off this New Year than usual. It is perhaps just as well. New Year's resolutions break as easily as pie crusts. And it is better never to have sworn off than to break a good resolve. At the same time, however, we trust that every good-looking girl will resolve to take advantage of her leap-year privileges.

MANY CHANGES.

There is a French saying that in every man's life there is always the woman who is going out, the woman who is in, and the woman who is arriving. It seems to be much this way with the administrations of Central American republics. One of them has ousted a recent revolution, one of them has set up a new provisional government, and another expects civil war any day.

CHANCE FOR TALK.

We note that the new Finance Minister of the Chinese Republic is a man named Chin Chin Tao. There is an old saying that "money talks," and we trust that the gentleman now selected to handle the funds will find himself constantly well supplied. But even though money wouldn't talk we judge from the honorable Chin Chin's name that he is equipped to keep up a conversation himself.

THE DIFFERENCE.

In Denver Monday a man locked himself in a room in one of the hotels and married a young woman whose irate father stood in the hallway and pounded on the door for admission. The old gentleman probably realized most keenly the difference in the position of standing outside looking in and standing inside looking out. Most of us at some time have occasion to appreciate the discrepancy in these situations.

MISUNDERSTOOD.

An Alabama woman confided in a friend Monday that she had murdered her son-in-law. We suppose the young man had it coming. A man has almost anything coming when he adopts some mothers-in-law into his family. At the same time, we are concerned lest the killing of their daughters' husbands will become the popular pastime of mothers-in-law as a sort of poetic license belonging to woman's rights.

TRAMPLING ON THE FLAG.

"Words are the breath of a mouth, but a writing is immortal," says the proverb. A photograph is even more reliable than a writing. "The apparatus can't lie." Let Gompers protest and whine and recant as he will, he never can get away from the photograph that was taken of him, at Oakland, tramping upon the American flag while addressing a union-labor meeting.

There are offenses for which the statutes prescribe no adequate punishment, and insulting the emblem of our country is one of them. It is a pity that the old Puritan punishment of the ducking stool cannot be revived. One could witness with complacency, if not with delight, the spectacle of this cockney anarchist strapped in an armchair that was lashed to the end of a plank suspended over the Hudson River, and given two or three dips in its icy waters.

THE QUEUE.

The Chinese in the United States are in earnest sure enough in aiding with money and influence the establishment of a republic in their native land. They have evinced their sincerity by cutting off their queues. The queues were the visible sign of allegiance to the Manchu dynasty. History is silent as to whether queues first came into Central and Southern China along with Genghis Kahn, but there is little doubt that queues and the Manchu dynasty will go out together.

The Chinamen in the United States number 119,050. Of these not less than 70,000 are queue-wearing males. These can now combine patriotism with profit by severing their back hair and placing it upon the altar of their country—that is to say placing it in the shape of "rats" upon the bargain counters of the department stores. Ladies who wish to enlarge their crowns of glory will now have an opportunity to do so at reduced rates. But Cholly will not know when the head of his inamorata is pillowed upon his breast, whether he is sheltering the auburn or ebon locks of his beloved, or whether he is furnishing a pillow for a relic of the discarded Manchu dynasty. "Tou sabe me, John."

DID NOT INSURGE MUCH.

The insurgent Republicans of Ohio do not seem to have insurged much after all. At the Columbus convention, held on New Year's Day, they declared "for a substantial and equitable revision of the tariff, schedule by schedule, preserving the protective tariff principle, the measure of which shall be the difference in wages and raw material at home and abroad."

That is exactly what the Old Guard, under the leadership of President Taft, have been and are fighting for. It is Republican doctrine, as announced at the last national Republican convention, before "progressive" or "insurgent" Republicanism was ever heard of.

The Ohio "progressives" indulged in a diatribe against corporate and trust evils. They want to "effectively regulate and control in the public interests the great instrumentalities of modern business." They want to "provide against recognized wrongs," such as "the exploitation of humanity for profit" (whatever that may mean if reduced to plain English.) They denounce "agreements to control production, market prices and the like," and generally they hurl the anathemas of insurgent denunciation against the trust evils, which President Taft has attacked more effectively than any of his predecessors in office.

Roosevelt talked, but Taft achieved. While insurgency was "resoluting," Taft was accomplishing. While La Follette has been making maxims Taft has been urging the making of laws. All the substantial things for which "progressive" Republicanism clamors, regular Republicanism has been quietly achieving.

The one measure which the Ohio convention favored and which President Taft does not favor is what is called "the Pinchot-Roosevelt conservation policy." It is not probable that many members of the insurgent convention knew exactly what was meant by the "Pinchot-Roosevelt conservation policy." Pinchot knows what it means. It means withdrawing the coal lands in Alaska from entry, so that they may not come in competition with the Pocahontas Coal Company. It means unlimited license to accuse President Taft of bribery, and when investigation was ordered to withdraw the charge.

The convention divided on the question of indorsing La Follette for the Presidential nomination, but finally concluded that such indorsement would be inexpedient at this time, and did not indorse. Mr. Crandall of Cincinnati let a large-sized cat out of the bag when he said: "Senator La Follette told me it would not be wise to indorse him as a candidate at present, for fear of alienating the men who stand for his principles, but will work at first for another candidate."

That savors of old-fashioned boss politics. That is hardly consonant with the avowed principles of the party which advertises itself to be "absolutely pure and perfect." To put up a kindly disposed, harmless, unobjectionable man—Jimmy Garfield for instance—lure him from his mamma, flatter him with a complimentary vote, cajole him, dance the White House before his eyes, allow him to fill the cup of ambition to the brim, and then all of a sudden to illustrate the proverb that "there's many a slip twixt the cup and the lip" and give the coveted prize to La Follette. Progressive, insurgent, "just too good for anything" men and brethren, is that what Teddy the Terrible would call a square deal?

LAW MUST AND SHALL BE UPHELD.

The pursuit of the lawless leaders of labor organizations has passed from the hands of the authorities of California and of other commonwealths into those of the Federal government. The great dragnet is brought to land from time to time, and in each haul there are being caught those known as the "higher-ups." Those in charge of the investigation assure the public that the authorities are not yet done and that other arrests are to follow, climbing higher and higher at each step.

Now the situation is perfectly simple, and we hope the rank and file of the labor-union organizations will continue to look at it at the proper angle and to encourage and not oppose or try to thwart the government. It is a matter of punishing those guilty of gross lawbreaking, with the final intent of stopping this violation of the law. There is nothing at all in the minds of those conducting the investigation savoring of resentment. There is no question of vengeance. Every step taken is solely for the purpose of maintaining the law. The McNamaras are in the penitentiary, and those charged with being accomplices are under arrest, not because they belong to labor organizations, but because they have either broken the laws or are charged therewith.

The laws these men are charged with breaking are right, just, and moreover necessary for the protection of society. There can be no dispute about that. We have anarchy reigning among us, if property may be ruthlessly destroyed and if human life may be cruelly taken. If there are any laws not altogether right on the statute books of any commonwealth or of the nation, until repealed they must be enforced, and this shall be done at all hazards. Now it is our fixed opinion that at least 90 per cent. of the men and women enrolled in labor unions will take this view of the case when it is put squarely up to them. As lawbreaking organizations, they have no place in American life. Whatever of benefit there is in them to the members of the various organizations and to laboring people in general must come under obedience to the laws. Inside of the laws these organizations may work in security and peace, and where their operations are guided by wisdom and calmness they will do much good.

Another principle necessary to recognize on the part of all is the right of every man or woman to decide personally whether or not to join the unions. This principle carries with it the right of the employer to hire any person he may see fit, in other words the "open-shop principle."

At this point some of the less intelligent and thoughtful members of labor unions may balk. But the maintenance of that principle is better for the members of labor unions. If those who belong to such organizations may exclude from earning a living those who do not, then that principle is like the "universal solvent;" there is no limit to its operation. Of this fact we have unquestionable proof before us. Inside of the labor-union organizations there is an inner circle whose purpose is to secure employment for those within the circle to the exclusion of those without.

In Washington in the Government Printing Office there is an inner circle of the Typographical Union known as the Wahnetas. Those who join this inner circle are required to take a hide-bound oath, the purpose and effect of which is to secure employment and promotion to places of higher emolument for those who belong to this inner association, and to the exclusion of those who do not. The members of the International Typographical Union have taken up a crusade against this inner organization as earnest and strenuous as the industrial world has ever carried on against the labor-union organizations themselves. The same impropriety of conduct is charged against the Wahnetas by the other printers as against the Typographical Union by non-union printers. Another charge against the inner circle is that besides securing employment and advancement for the members of the association, to the exclusion of other members of the Typographical Union, incompetent men are promoted over the heads of those more competent.

A third point, and one in which we shall be upheld by all decent members of labor-union organizations, is that the American flag should be held sacred as the emblem of national sovereignty.

All intelligent and just-minded members of all unions should recognize these facts: First, that the laws must be obeyed; second, that the right of every man to earn a living is an inviolable one, and third, that patriotism, as manifested by respect for the flag of the country, must be cherished.

INTERESTING PRESIDENTIAD SITUATION.

The year A. D. 1912 is supremely interesting to politicians of all shades of opinion all over the United States, and scarcely less so to other plain citizens who have the interests of the country closely at heart and who appreciate the responsibility resting upon them to select a President for the ensuing term of that office. In six months from now the national conventions of the two great parties will have taken place, and we shall not be guessing at the standard-bearers; they will be before us, looming up as the most conspicuous objects on the political horizon.

There are in the two parties something like a dozen candidates, most of them "aspiring," a few of them "receptive." The Democrats have entered an exceedingly large number of more or less well-groomed "nags" for the race, while in the Republican paddock there are only three Presidential "equines," "dark" or otherwise.

The President, William Howard Taft, certainly aspires to succeed himself, and yet his mind is more receptive than obtrusive. He is attending to the duties of his office with earnest diligence according to his own lights, and worrying less about the nomination than any of the other dozen candidates in the field. It is alleged by the anti-Taftians that he is unpopular. Strange! He received more holiday greetings than any predecessor who ever inhabited the White House, and shook hands on New Year's Day with over 8000 persons of distinction, a larger number than ever thronged up the White House steps before. There is one thing evident to all unbiased and careful observers, that is that the President is gaining in the good opinion of the people of America every day. There seems to be no doubt that he will be renominated. To pick any other Republican would be political suicide.

Senator La Follette of Wisconsin is decidedly in the aspirant class. He is going about, as a certain other one of God's creatures mentioned in Holy Writ, "like a roaring lion."

These are the only Republican aspirants. That T. R. is in a receptive mood and ske "in the hands of his friends" it needs not John Burroughs from the woods and streams, nor any freak from the wilderness, nor angel from heaven come to the light of day to tell us.

The Democrats, who have a host of aspirants and no receptives, so far as announcements up to date go, are in a great quandary. Gov. Woodrow Wilson of New Jersay has been steadily and rapidly losing ground for days and weeks and months. His about-face on certain freak policies from his chair as professor of economics and politics in Princeton University to an aspiring candidate for any and all political offices in sight, his mistake in the Senatorial contest in his own State, and that chasing of the Carnegie pension have made him a veritable undesirable to no end of American citizens, including a large portion of his own party.

Gov. Harmon of Ohio is mentioned oftener as a Democratic candidate than any other aspirant excepting Wilson. With the following of Bryan solidly against him, it is difficult to see how the Ohioan can land the coveted prize. Remember that for him and all others in the Democratic convention it will take a two-thirds vote to be nominated, unless the historical policy of the Bourbons is departed from, and they are said to never learn nor forget.

There are three others trailing along after these two, any one of whom might possibly be nominated in case of a serious deadlock in the convention. Representative Underwood of Alabama stands out prominently as the candidate of the Southern States, the first one since the outbreak of the Civil War. Gov. Marshall of Indiana has many voices in the country. His permitting the McNamaras to be taken from the State is looked upon in a dubious light by a good many who otherwise admire him. They say Marshall is "in bad" with the labor-union organizations. In the name of the great Jehosaphat, if complying with the law to bring within the reach of justice of criminals of that character is to put a man out of the race for President, then it is about time we all began to despair of the republic.

The last of this trio is Gov. Foss of Massachusetts. Until a few years ago he was in the Republican fold, and now differs not one whit from insurgent Republicans who will stay within party lines. But Foss has carried his own State and Congressional districts therein several times on national issues.

And so there is one conservative candidate, the President, Mr. Taft, against a whole field of broncos, Republican and Democratic.

So far Gen. Reyes and the other enemies of President Madero have failed to unscramble Mexico.

It won't be long until vacation trips to Panama will be just the thing in the winter season. It is no place to go during the heated term.

The increase in the price of gasoline is of but little interest to the folks who never rode in any but other people's automobiles. They don't care much.

The action of the English government in excluding the Chicago packers from tendering contracts, is a hard blow. Still, they have managed to stave it off for eight years. And that is something.

Voters are tired of investigations that lead nowhere. The reign of scandalous attack that marshaled the Democratic vote of a year ago, in scores of magazines and hundreds of newspapers, and constitutes the center of support for the small body that now seeks to control the Republican party, has ceased to convince or persuade

The Letter That Never Came.

BURDETTE AT THE BAT.

CXXVI.

Whose Funeral Is It?

About a week or ten days gone by there was a passing thrill of unpleasantness at a funeral in a middle-sized town of an eastern State, occasioned by a disagreement between the remains and the widow, with an accompanying clash of authority between the officiating clergyman and the undertaker. The pastor was inclined to support the views of the late lamented, while the funeral director stoutly, albeit with the chastened melancholy which befit the occasion and which always deepens as the director gets his own way, maintained the cause of the widow.

And all because the remains interfered with the management and conduct of the funeral. For the time being, the widow triumphed, although that is too harsh a word, for there was no bitter conflict. But the question raised at this funeral is still an open one. What right has a man to arrange the programme for the conduct of the funeral which by common consent is called "his?"

It seems that this man and his wife had always lived together most happily; belonged to the same church; were blessed with congenial tastes; she was a member of one or two societies of women, and he belonged to a certain fraternity of men.

Now, this man's fraternity had a song of their order with which they closed their meetings, of which the dead, during his life, was exceedingly fond. He loved its sentiments, which, like many "order" hymns, were sentimental to the verge of banality, but there was nothing wicked about it. It assumed the glory and bliss of paradise as the sole and exclusive right and property of the order, entrance into which state of blessedness was possible only on the ability of the applicant spirit to repeat the proper pass-word and to give the correct grip, which was a combination of fingers and thumbs so intricate as to automatically stamp the order as a total abstinent organization. Possibly it was the fact that she herself possessed neither the word or grip that set the widow against the use of the hymn at her late husband's funeral, either at the service in the house or the exercises at the grave, where the order took charge. You can scarcely blame her for disliking this assumption of a sort of Mohammedan heaven at the grave of a Christian man. Anyhow, she had her way.

The Compromise.

They sang "Why Do We Mourn Departing Friends" at the house, and "I Would Not Live Away" at the grave. And the hymn of the order, which described heaven as a kind of grand lodge meeting in perpetual session, with only members in good standing and with paid-up dues in everlasting attendance, was omitted from the ritual. This otherwise consisted mainly of a sort of mournful calisthenics interspersed with mysterious gestures, and the intoning of the fraternal services by gentlemen who were just learning to read in words of one syllable, and who naturally added to the bitterness of death when they charged against the orthographical entanglements of "incomprehensibility," "sarcophagus" and "inconsolableness." You have no doubt listened to such.

The Rights of the Remains.

The general question raised by this occurrence, which is now a closed incident, is, what rights, if any, beyond the privilege of being the nucleus around which the exercises arrange themselves, what rights has a man at his own funeral?

He is there, it is true, but as an unlavited guest. Nobody wants him there, unless it may be a few impatient heirs to his late fortune. Nobody asked him to come. Nobody wanted to have a funeral at that time of the year. In the great, the very great majority of instances, the most unwelcome thing a man ever does in the course of his long life is to provide his funeral, for people who had always hoped he would attend theirs. Now, when he has done that, it would seem that he had done all that is demanded—and that isn't of him. What right has he to say who shall bury, not "him," for there is no "him" any more, but his "remains"—that is, what little is left of him, which is nothing.

Misplaced Thoughtfulness.

You have heard the neighbors extol the thoughtfulness of a man, who, before passing on had selected the minister, the text and the chapter to be read—the two latter not infrequently so glaringly inappropriate to the occasion as to make the preacher envy the corpse. They tell you that he selected his pallbearers; the hymns to be sung at the service, which were grotesque impossibilities, and the very inconvenient hour for the funeral.

I have known men who left, among their dying wishes and instructions, the insistent request that the sermon should be preached by a minister who would have to travel a thousand miles to comply with the request. And a list of pallbearers which would call together men from half a dozen counties. And a quartette that sang only at grand opera prices. And an elaborate service in a church which the remains never attended in their lifetime. And I have known mourners who struggled pitifully to observe the wishes of the dead. And the estate was a mass of debts.

Not His Funeral, But Ours.

In bald and pitiless fact, the dead man is not at all interested in the service which commemorates his virtues, sometimes going too far as to invent them, and lovingly forgets all his faults. It would make no difference to the man in the casket if this order and intent of the service were reversed. Little he cares for praise or censure. Little cares he for the deep reverence which may be paid to his "dying wishes," or the utter disregard which may be shown them. True, it is called his "funeral," the old Latin word probably has the same root as "fumus," smoke—referring to the cremation; but it is not his service. With that he has absolutely nothing to do. He is the only one present who has no interest whatever in the proceedings. The service of consolation and hope is for those who loved him; for those who respected him; for those whose lives will be lonely without him.

The old saying "It's none of your funeral," ceases to be a ghastly pleasantry, and becomes a cold fact, when addressed to the dead man. A dead man has nothing—not even a funeral.

I may not ever scale the mountain heights
Where all the great men stand in glory now;
I may not ever gain the world's acclaim
Or win a wreath of laurel for my brow;
I may not gain the victories that men
Are fighting for, nor do a thing to boast of;
I may not get a fortune here, but then
The little that I have I'll make the most of.

I'll make my little home a palace fair,
My little patch of green a garden fine,
And I shall know each humble plant and vine
As rich men know their orchids and their blooms rare.
My little home may not be much to see,
Its chimneys may not tower far above,
But it will be a mansion great to me,
For out of it I'll take a board of love.

I will not pass modest pleasures by
To grasp at shadows of more splendid things,
Disdaining what of joyousness is nigh
Because I am denied the joy of kings.
But I will laugh and sing my way along,
I'll make the most of what is mine to-day,
And if I never rise above the throng
I shall have lived a full life anyway.

MAPPING THE GREAT HIGHWAY

Times Party Finding the Best Route.

Citizens Along the Way Show Great Interest.

Teams Ready to Break the Road Through.

BY BERT C. SMITH.

[BY DIRECT WIRE TO THE TIMES.]

BANNING, Jan. 2.—[Exclusive Dispatch.] In a Stoddard-Dayton driven by Charles E. Bigelow, I am out in the desert on a path-finding trip.

At the recent good-roads convention in Phoenix, the delegates declared themselves as urgently in favor of the construction of an ocean-to-ocean boulevard and indicated the route by which they thought the national highway should enter California.

In a general way, the delegates selected a route to run through Yuma; thence through Imperial Valley and Banning and on through Redlands and into Los Angeles.

Mr. Bigelow and I are traveling over this route, consulting the prominent men along the way; our object is to find out just exactly where the greatest route roadway ever planned by man should be located, in relation to the different towns.

After a fast drive to the edge of the California desert, we arrived in Banning tonight.

MUCH INTEREST SHOWN.

Preparation was made for the run through the deep sands of the desert tomorrow to Palm Springs and thence to Mecca.

All along the route from Los Angeles the stripped Stoddard-Dayton, national boulevard path-finder, has been welcomed by throngs. Whenever a stop was made crowds surrounded the car. Scores of prominent citizens in the valley towns have shown their interest in the national boulevard plan.

C. O. Barker of Banning, in a conference with Bigelow tonight, outlined the proposed route through the San Gorgonio Pass and told the autoist that sentiment in this valley town is strongly in favor of the national boulevard plan.

PLANS OR BANNING MEN.

Prominent men of Banning tonight launched a plan to build the ocean-to-ocean boulevard through the San Gorgonio Pass from Whitewater, the first desert oasis reached after leaving this point. Then the plan is to build across the low hills from Whitewater to Palm Springs, a well-watered town in the midst of a wilderness of sand dunes.

With a definite plan to build the highway through the San Gorgonio Pass, men of Beaumont tonight swung into line with a big boost that is to result in a ratification meeting to route the highway straight into Redlands.

When the Stoddard reached Redlands, after a scouting trip, a delegation of citizens surrounded the car. Residents of Redlands favor the San Timoteo road, as the logical route for the ocean-to-ocean boulevard. This would send the highway right into the heart of their city and the macadam road would skirt the foot of Smiley Heights.

SMILEY IS BUILDING.

As an argument in favor of this route it was urged that A. K. Smiley is building a terraced road that will join the highway. If the national turnpike follows the San Timoteo, this would send the new road down into the main street of Redlands in front of the City Hall and out over the valley road toward Riverside.

Walter Brookins of Redlands favors the San Timoteo route. He is one of the good roads boosters of the foothills city.

Dr. W. H. Burke of Redlands also is working hard for the national turnpike and has a host of strong supporters behind him.

H. H. Ford, president of the Redlands National Bank, was at a conference yesterday with Brookins and S. W. Wilder.

These two of national highway boosters have started a plan which may result in turning Federal aid toward the Beaumont-Banning route. Wilder is working hard in an effort to meet every Redlands-Riverside and San Bernardino man personally. Money is being raised to start work

MORE STUNTS AND LESS ANEROIDS.

AVIATION SHOW TO BE THREE-RING AIR CIRCUS.

A Bird's-eye View of What Will Be Doing at the Next Big Aviation Show at Domingues Field—Unique Races and Army Experiments. Women Flyers.

BY HARRY CARR.

With his hand on his heart, Dick Ferris solemnly assures me that this is not going to be a scientific exhibition of flying at Domingues Field in January.

"Nothing like it," says Dick. "This is going to be a three-ring aerial circus."

So I feel better. I couldn't stand seeing another scientific exhibition of flying.

All that ever happens at a scientific exhibition is this:

You sit on a cold grand stand shivering, while some men with yellow badges scurry around a field solemnly examining things that look like watches. Then someone comes in front of the grand stands and bawls something you don't understand through a megaphone.

The next day you find out through the paper that whatever it was that the fellow bawled through the megaphone wasn't right, because he mistook an ice pick for the aneroid.

Dick claims there will be so many stunts going on at the next show that nobody will have any time to fuss around with aneroids.

This is going to be a real show.

Dick says he is going to start it with a unique street parade showing the progress of locomotion. In the parade will be a camel and an Indian pony with a travois, a cowboy and an old prairie schooner; then a farm wagon and one-horse shay; then carriages and wagons and bicycles, from the old "Ordinary" and Star to the latest safety bike and motorcycle, and finally the automobiles, beginning with the earliest models to be found, down to the racing car. The climax of the parade will be the aeroplanes drawn through the streets.

NOTHING SLOW.

The show will begin every day at 2 o'clock, and Dick states that, until 4:30 o'clock, when the programme closes every day, there won't be a single minute when half a dozen

POLO DOINGS AT CORONADO.

Lord Reginald Herbert Will Arrive Soon.

Army Teams Coming if Money Can Be Had.

Pasadena and Canada Will Play Friday.

BY R. A. WYNNE.

[BY DIRECT WIRE TO THE TIMES.]

CORONADO, Jan. 2.—[Exclusive Dispatch.] The eyes of the polo enthusiasts of California are turned toward Coronado this week.

Four teams have gathered there, and are playing a round-robin of matches which will give the first idea of the relative strength and weakness of each.

With the arrival at Coronado January 18, of Lord Reginald Herbert of London, an English team will be formed of Lord Tweedmouth, Lord Herbert, Viscount Gower and a fourth man not yet named. This will leave Dupee, Hobbs, and Capt. Besley for the Coronado team.

Lord Herbert is a strong polo player, having played the game in India and England for several years. He is a fellow member of the Royal Horse Guard of London, with Lord Tweedmouth and the two noblemen have often played together at polo.

THE WEISS BROTHERS.

Wednesday the Weiss brothers' team, which is known this year as the Pasadena A. team, will arrive at Coronado. The team is composed of Reggie Weiss, Harry Weiss, Tom Weiss and Carleton Burke. The ponies of the team were shipped Tuesday. The Pasadena team will play the Coronado team today and the Canadian team will play the winners of this match Friday, of this week.

The Coronado team should defeat the Weiss team on form, as John Hobbs, captain of the Coronado team, is playing the best game of his career. Lord Tweedmouth and Viscount Gower are superb players, and with Walter H. Dupee back in the saddle, the Pasadena team should not be able to do much with the southern team.

The Pasadena team will have the benefit of better team work and fully as good ponies as the Coronado team, but the individual brilliancy of the latter team should win the match for them.

Every morning the colony of polo enthusiasts at Coronado are out on the Country Club grounds. The Coronado Club possesses three distinct polo fields. They are adjoining and two of them are used as practice fields, while the third one, which lies directly

WHIFFS FROM THE OLD SPORT PIPE

If one has to chop a paving stone, I dare say a finely-ground razor will do the work as well as anything; but it's hell on the razor.

That's the way I feel about Freddie Welsh fighting Bobbie Waugh. If all that is desired is to get Mister Waugh a good licking, why I guess Freddie can do the job; but it's rough on Freddie.

Why he should be shuffled off into the trial horse division is something I can't understand.

His career in London as an actor, fussing around after the lights were lit, certainly didn't do him any good.

Freddie is perfectly frank in saying that he lost much of his speed in that experience. His awakening came when he tried to fight Matt Wells and was beaten.

"I admit," says Freddie, "that I was astonished and frightened at the way I had lost speed. But I emphatically deny all those stories about my having lost my stamina and strength on account of the life I led while on the stage. I think I ought to know my own condition better than anyone else.

"I know in my own heart that I am as strong as I ever was. I know that I could be just as fast again if I could only get a chance. I can name you a long list of men who have been beaten worse than I was and have come back.

"All I need is enough fights to make me fast again. I am in the same condition as a violinist or a pianist out of practice. If they will only give me a chance I'll be there again."

It appears to me that the ideal fight at the present time would be between Packy McFarland and Welsh.

Wolgast is undoubtedly out of it for a long time to come. The two who stand as heirs apparent are Freddie Welsh and Packy McFarland. Believe me, two heirs apparent are one apparent too many.

It ought to be decided which one of them two boys is in a position to claim the championship if Wolgast can't hold his title.

I suggested this fight to Freddie last night and found him a ready listener.

"In order to get a fight with Packy," said Welsh, "I would be willing to give him even more generous terms than Ad Wolgast made him.

"As I remember it, Ad compelled Packy to make 133 pounds three hours hours before the fight. I will beat this: I will let him make 133 pounds five hours before.

"Packy is too good a fighter for me to give away weight to and fight right now, however. I simply must get at least two fights before meeting him.

McCarey Thinks Bobby Will Come Through.

Lightweight Card Is Shoved Along One Week.

New Stunt to Be Tried in the Preliminary Bouts.

Freddie Welsh and Bobby Waugh are to travel over the twenty-round route, at Vernon, January 19. "Uncle Tom" McCarey last night decided to move the card along a week. He had planned to put on the winner of the Waugh-Giblin mill January 12, but last night he determined to stage the men one week later.

McCarey is strong for Waugh. After the showing that Bobbie and Giblin made Monday, not a few followers of the game thought that Waugh would be easy picking for Freddie. However, McCarey thinks the mill will be a good one and he says he is certain Waugh will give the fans a run for their money when he tackles the clever Britisher.

"I believe Waugh has a good future in the prize ring and I feel that it is up to me to give him a chance against a good man in order to see what he can do," McCarey said last night. "I like him because he fights all the

WOLGAST BETTER, JONES JUBILANT.

Manager Tom Jones says that Ad Wolgast is doing nicely and will soon be on his feet. The congestion, which had settled on his right lung, was all gone last night, according to the report of the attending doctor. He had no fever at all and Jones is at last showing a smile after weeks of pessimistic visage.

The champion has stood his long spell of sickness remarkably well and is by far the most cheerful of the stable at the present writing. He says if he ever gets on his feet again he will start to fight as soon as they take off the hot towels, which all goes to show that the old fighting spirit is still there, and the little title holder is far from a has-been.

Hard to Beat.

FAMOUS ATHLETES WOULD REPRESENT LOS ANGELES.

Los Angeles Has Every Chance to Shine in the Olympic Games This Year, With Jim Donahue and Smithson, Besides Many Good Men in the Local Intercollegiate Circles.

JIMMY DONAHUE and Forrest Smithson of this city, who are among the best track athletes in the country, probably will be signed by one of the northern athletic clubs to represent it in the Olympian tryouts at San Francisco in June, if the money to defray their expenses is not forthcoming in this city within the next two weeks. As yet nothing has been done here in the way of providing for representatives in the big meet that is to be pulled off in the Bay City and it is necessary that some action be taken before January 20, before which time every athlete who will be eligible for a place on the American team that will compete at Stockholm must have become affiliated with some club.

Smithson is a co-holder of the world's record for the 120-yard hurdles, of 15 1-5s. He also is a star performer in the sprints. His mark for the fifty-yard dash is 5 2-5s. He was a member of the Multnomah A. C. of Portland before coming to Los Angeles and he may rejoin that organization in order to get the opportunity to try for a place on the American team, if the necessary provisions for having him represent a local club are not made.

Donahue is a high-class athlete of unusual versatility. He took second place in the national all-around championships of the A.A.U. at Chicago last summer, being beaten only by Fred Thomson, the national champion.

Smithson and Donahue prefer to represent a Southern California club in the San Francisco meet. They hope that the necessary expense money will be raised here within the next two weeks. Both of these men have an excellent chance to excel in the Coast competitions, which means that they would be practically assured of places on the American team.

It is not fair to the athletic possibilities of the South to let an international meet like the Olympic games this spring go by without a single entry from the clubs or other organizations here. Owing to the fact that some of the local associations have put up any money for the general expense fund, the Southwest will not have any voice in the selecting of the men who will represent the Coast in the tryout meet, which will be held at Reno in June.

San Francisco, Portland and Seattle are all going to send men to compete in this meet, but they have not any better athletes than are right here. Even taking Smithson and Donahue out of the dope sheet, there are a number of good men in the local intercollegiate circles who would make any of them sit up and take notice.

It would be a good thing if Fred Thomson, the Occy Tiger of word-wide fame as an all-around athlete, could enter the games as a representative from Southern California. We all know that he has three times won the A.A.U. all-around national championship. At the present time he is in Princeton and will go to the games in Sweden from the Eastern Intercollegiate Association, unless the present plans miscarry.

If to get back to the present facts, Smithson and Donahue are here and in training for the meet and it will behoove the sports of Los Angeles to get busy. Los Angeles hands the cities of the country in the matter of public playgrounds, fields of sport and athletics and it would not look right to see it not represented in the Olympic games of this year.

Smithson's records might interest a few of the fans who want to know who he should be sent to the games, and here they are:

75-yard dash, 7 1-5s.
100-yard dash, 9 4-5s.
220-yard dash, 21 2-5s.
440-yard dash, 49 4-5s.
60-yard low hurdles, 6s.
60-yard high hurdles, 7 2-5s.
70-yard high hurdles, 8s.
70-yard high hurdles, 7 4-5s.
90-yard low hurdles, 9 2-5s.
120-yard low hurdles, 12s.
120-yard high hurdles, 16 1-5s.
110-meters high hurdles, 15s.
220-yard low hurdles, 23s.

James Donahue started his athletic career in 1902 at Ridgefield Park, New York, where he won the all-around Y.M.C.A. championship. His list of athletic conquests will also be interesting to those who are following track and field sport here.

April 7, 1904, he won the all-round Y.M.C.A. New York championship from a field of fifty fast men.

November 30, 1908, Madison Square Garden, New York, indoor championship of United States, second in 220 low hurdles.

February 2, 1909, State Armory, New York, won 120-yard high hurdles in 15 4-5s.; 60-yard sack race in 9s.; 440-yard dash (one-tenth-mile track,) 54s.; pole vault, 11ft., 3in. All events indoor.

July 14, 1909, Ascot Park, Los Angeles, championship Pacific Coast, 120-yard high hurdles in 15 2-5s.

October 1, 1910, took second in all-round A.A.U. meet, winning five firsts and four seconds, held Occidental Field.

October 15, 1910, national championships, New Orleans, third in high hurdles.

February 22, 1911, Los Angeles Pacific Coast championship A.A.U., first running broad jump, second high hurdles, third low hurdles.

August 12, 1911, A.A.U. all-round championship of United States, took second place, scoring 6400 out of a possible 10,000 in ten events, meet held at Chicago.

Forrest Smithson,

Holder of world's record in 120-yard hurdles at 15 seconds. He is the best man for the Olympic games in the south.

AVIATION MEET.

stants are not going on at the same time.

The great fault with the other two aviation shows that were given here was the slowness. You sat for hours and saw nothing.

Ferris says that the altitude and endurance tests will not be really classed with the daily stunts at all, but will be pulled off on the side. Endurance and altitude tests will be going on all the time.

One of the most interesting of the special programmes will be the night show. Dozens of machines will be in the air at the same time that night. Some of them will be outlined against the night with electric light bulbs. Others will travel in the dark and will be the targets for searchlights.

If possible, Mr. Ferris will persuade the Navy Department to send one or two war ships to San Pedro that week to take part in the exercises. If this is done, unlighted aeroplanes will be sent out over the war ships at night and the ships will try to protect themselves from secret attack with their searchlights.

The War Department has already given assurance that Capt. Paul Beck and Lieuts. Ellison and McClusky will be sent here to carry out important war experiments.

The government will also be asked to send some of the new aeroplane sharpshooters here from the army.

The conditions will be unusually favorable for army experiments, owing to the unusually large number of airships to be on hand. There will be a swarm of them.

So many airships have already signed the lists that the management has already made arrangements to erect large tents back of the grand stands; the regular hangars will not come anywhere near accommodating the entrants.

In addition to enlisting the army in his show, Dick has called the Post-office Department into the ring. By special arrangement with the Postmaster-General, mail will be carried every day to and from Dominguez Field.

The duck hunting from aeroplanes and the marriage in the aeroplane, and the regular passenger service whereby you buy a ticket for an airship ride as you would on a merry-go-round, have already been exploited pretty thoroughly.

One of the most interesting features of the show will be the considerable number of women aviators entered. It is not certain at this time just how many skirted flyers will take part. Several have already entered.

In addition to the aeroplanes, there will be a cracking good hot-air balloon show in addition. Some of the most famous balloon people in the loon show. Some of the the aeroplanes, the balloons will issue tickets and carry passengers daily.

SCIENTIFIC AFTER ALL.

Although Dick has solemnly sworn to me that he will keep the soft pedal on the scientific stuff, a number of important experiments will be carried out. Among other things, two or more records—the altitude and the endurance—are almost certain to be broken.

Many improvements have been made in the plan for taking care of the public. The crowds will be met at the electric cars and carried up the hill in automobile conveyances. Instead of the tickets, which have always been an infernal nuisance, turn stile mah registers will be put in.

The most appealing part of the show is that nobody will be asked to contribute a bean. It is the first "mutual benefit show" ever held by aviators.

Realizing that aviation must be turned into a regular show business, the most prominent aviators in the country have banded together to share the work and to share the profits.

Not a cent will be asked of the business men. Big money prizes will be put up for the winners of the stunts, but the money will be put up from the daily receipts.

The success of the meet seems to be assured by the fact that the aviators will be compelled to put up a good performance or lose their own chances of making money.

CAMPUS BRIEFS

The southern colleges and High Schools open this morning after the Christmas holidays, and the next big thing on the programme is track and field sports, though, of course, the classroom work will be run along as usual.

Yesterday Coach Dean B. Cromwell reported for the season on the U.S.C. cinder path and when his sunny face came into view all the track men in sight rushed for their togs and had a real work-out, one day ahead of the schedule.

While the athletes were starting work on the field, Warren Bovard, the genial young manager of the university, was mussing up his raven locks in an attempt to fix the schedule for the coming season.

U.S.C. is in rather a funny position this season. There are meets with Stanford and Berkeley scheduled, but other intercollegiate contests with the institutions here, are now a matter for conjecture and it remains to be seen if the rest of the conference colleges will try and keep U.S.C. out of the manager during the rest of the year.

The university is ready to meet them on an equal basis in regard to every particular, but will stand out for the athletes from the affiliated colleges. These same athletes will be required to make all the scholarship standards, held by Pomona and Oxy, so we can't see any ground for holding out on the university for the remainder of the southern intercollegiate year.

The U.S.C. track and field schedule for the year is as follows, though there may be several changes if the conference colleges hold out again:

January 20, interclass meet; January 27, Citrus Union High School on Bovard Field; February 17, Los Angeles High School on Bovard Field; February 22, team to be entered in A.A.U. championship meet on Bovard Field; March 2, Stanford University on Bovard Field; March 9, date held open for meet with Pomona at Claremont; March 16, conference meet held at Claremont. U.S.C. will enter team if invited; March 30, Berkeley at Berkeley; March 30, Stanford at Stanford.

On April 6 the big interscholastic meet of Southern California will be held on Bovard Field under the management of the university. This will be the largest event of its class ever staged in the South, as High School track and field sports have come up to a marked degree lately. This meet will be for the championship of Southern California at large and teams will be entered from almost every High School in the South, making a list of about seventy-one in all.

In looking over the U.S.C. schedule we find, tucked away in a corner, a little meet with the Citrus Union High School. Now the point of interest here is that Boyd Comstock is coaching the citrus men, and for the past two years has been working with Jackson, a sprinter, to hand Waldo Throop a lacing in the century dash.

Comstock says that his boy is right this season, and for all the Cardinal sports to hold tight when the race starts. It will be remembered that Comstock wore the university colors through four hard seasons and was one of the best all-around men ever turned out of the place, but now he would rather spill a few beans for Warren Bovard et al. than draw a month's salary.

Coach Ralph Noble of the Los Angeles High School will have all his track aspirants out for the initial work this afternoon on Bovard field. Ralph says that he will have to build up a new team for this season, but L. A. High generally comes in on the finish.

Harry Seward, captain of the Stanford crew, and formerly of the Los Angeles High School, says that though the track team got smeared by the faculty, the crew will be O.K. this year. None of the men have merly managed the Richmond team been lost through graduation, and it in the same league, and for twenty looks like a big year for the Cardinal on the water.

years had charge of the Davenport team.

FIN WINS MARATHON OLD RECORD HOLDS.

[BY A. P. NIGHT WIRE TO THE TIMES.]

EDINBURGH, Jan. 2.—Kolehmainen, a native of Finland, won the professional Marathon footrace for 26 miles 385 yards, and the championship of the world at the Powder Hall Athletic grounds today. His time was 2h. 32m. 34⅘s.

Hans Holmer (United States,) who won the race last year in the record time of 2h. 33m. 31s, was second, ten yards behind. Fred Cameron of Amherst, Mass., was third.

There were nineteen competitors, including Tom Longboat, the Indian runner, who dropped out of the race at the sixteenth mile when he was leading by 100 yards.

BALL MANAGER SHIFTED.

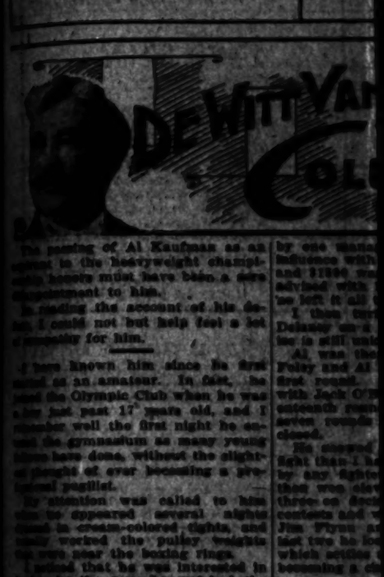
Yes Indeed!



The passing of Al Kaufman as an opponent in the heavyweight championship honors must have been a sore disappointment to him.

In reading the account of his defeat I could not but help feel a lot of sympathy for him.

I have known him since he first broke in as an amateur. In fact, he was the first person I met when I joined the Olympic Club when he was a boy just past 17 years old, and I remember well the first night he entered the gymnasium as many young men have done, without the slightest thought of ever becoming a professional pugilist.

My attention was called to him when he appeared several nights after in cream-colored tights, and I remember he was always working the pulley weights that were near the boxing rings.

I noticed that he was interested in boxing, by the way he watched the boxers while at practice.

I asked him one night if he was interested in boxing and if he would like to learn. He replied in a bashful manner that he would like it very much.

I immediately started to take lessons with the other boys and was a little surprised at the natural ease he had made some impressive hits. I had him box with George Cooper, a strong young middleweight, at that time, who was tall as he is now weighed about 180 pounds. Cooper landed a hard right-hand punch on his jaw in the second round and knocked him flat. He got up without a word and finished the bout.

I saw from that that he was game, and that he had him enter an amateur tournament in the heavyweight class. He entered the ring and I thought it was all over, as he hardly he fell close to our corner and as he lay on the floor I called to him, saying:

"Come on, get up, swing your right."

He did, and knocked his man out in the first round.

He attracted attention from every one who saw it and predicted a future for him as a fighter. He succeeded in repeating the same trick four times in minor tournaments, knocking his man out in the first round each time.

The boys then gave him the name of "one-round Al." He attracted so much attention that he was induced to go professional. I was offered $1200 who knocked out Al Kaufman, and is matched to fight Jim Flynn February 22.

I then turned him over to Billy Delaney on a promise, and the promise is still unkept, by Delaney.

Al was then matched with Harry Foley and Al knocked him out in the first round. He was then matched with Jack O'Brien and lost in the seventeenth round, after fighting six or seven rounds with both eyes nearly closed.

He showed more gameness in this fight than I have ever seen in the ring by any fighter before or since. He then won eleven fights by knockouts, three on decisions, seven no-decision contests and was then knocked out by Jim Flynn and Dutch Paiser. The last two he lost by being knocked out, which settles all chances for his ever becoming a champion.

Al, like many other promising young fighters, made the mistake of not taking the fighting game seriously enough and neglected his training at times, and between fights never tried to improve himself. He could no doubt improve his speed greatly if he had practised for it.

Personally, he is quiet, unassuming, kind and good-hearted. He has many friends that are sure to feel sorry for his defeat, but as Al is a philosophical fellow, he will probably get into some other business. We are all sorry to see such a gentlemanly fellow as Al out of the game.

NATIONAL LEAGUE.

Meeting This Week of National Commission of Unusual Importance, Declares President Lynch.

[BY A. P. NIGHT WIRE TO THE TIMES.]

NEW YORK, Jan. 2.—Thomas J. Lynch, president of the National League, left this afternoon for Cincinnati to attend the annual meeting of the National Baseball Commission, which, he said, promised to be the most important in years. A session lasting until Saturday was in prospect, he said, because of the great amount of business.

Mr. Lynch thought it hardly likely that there would be any opposition to the concessions demanded by the National Association.

A finding by the Commission on the world's series ticket scandal in New York and Philadelphia is a possibility of the meeting, according to the National League head. President Lynch said that his signature and that of President Johnson of the American League would be affixed to the schedules of the two big leagues for 1912, drafted at the recent joint meeting of the schedule committees at French Lick Springs, Ind.

New Haven Cop Lays Down Written Rules to Govern Boxing Matches in His City.

[BY A. P. NIGHT WIRE TO THE TIMES.]

NEW HAVEN (Ct.) Jan. 2.—The first written rules governing boxing matches to be issued by the police of any American city, have been prepared by Chief of Police Cowles of this city. The rules require the boxer to be at least 18 years of age; that no gloves lighter than six ounces shall be used; that there must be no hitting in clinches and that the break must be clean.

DANNY LONG HERE; SEALS TO COME SOUTH.

Danny Long, manager of the San Francisco baseball team of the Pacific Coast League, is here looking for a training place for the Seals. Long arrived here yesterday. Before he selects a pool in which the Seals will disport themselves during the preseason period, he intends to make a thorough canvass of the Southland.

Long will be satisfied with nothing short of a first-class diamond. At Santa Ana, Santa Barbara and Ventura, there are good fields. However, not even Danny himself knows at present where the Bay City brigade will camp.

Last year the Seals trained at Modesto. Long, however, believes the Southland has it on all other parts of the State for warming-up work, and that he is on the ground early is not a surprise.

WHOLE THING UP TO FLYNN.

Johnson Can Get that $30,000 in Australia.

Will Wait a Few Days for Fireman's Bid.

Attell and White Sign for New Orleans Bout.

[BY DIRECT WIRE TO THE TIMES.]

CHICAGO, Jan. 2.—[Exclusive Dispatch.] Jack Johnson asserted tonight that Tom Andrews of Milwaukee, representative of Hugh McIntosh of Australia, telephoned him that McIntosh had agreed to donate $30,000, and four round-trip tickets to the Antipodes, but would furnish training quarters in lieu of $5000 asked by the champion for preliminary expenses, this to go as a purse for a battle with Sam McVey, Easter Monday. Also Jack is to sign papers for a twenty-round contest with Sam Langford, the said battle to be staged in Sydney, July 4.

Although the final arrangement is not just what the champion had asked, Johnson accepted, and will plan his departure in a few days.

Jack Curley, manager of Jim Flynn, who is said to be anxious to mix with "Lil' Artha', " will be given a few days to come through with the big money asked for the championship services. If Curley fails to raise his bid of $35,000 for the battle, Johnson will not dally further in this country, but again will mingle with the British in Australia.

Curley and Johnson held a long talkfest tonight, but the diplomacy of Flynn's manager failed to arouse Jack, although the title holder agreed that Flynn would be a good card. Curley tried to impress upon the winner of the Reno fiasco that there would be more money in a battle with a white man than with a negro but Johnson retaliated that he did not care how much money there was in it just so long as he had $30,000 in his safe deposit vault before the battle.

Final articles were signed today, clinching the Jack White—Abe Attal featherweight championship match for New Orleans January 14.

Fred Gilmore signed papers agreeing to send his man into the ring weighing 122, ringside, and Atell is to make the same weight. All forfeits were posted today and nothing is now left but the battle itself.

JOHNSON WILL FIGHT.

Agrees to Meet Flynn for Big Purse at Some Point in Nevada Next Summer.

[BY A. P. NIGHT WIRE TO THE TIMES.]

CHICAGO, Jan. 2.—Jack Johnson, heavyweight champion of the world, said last night he would sign an agreement today to fight Jim Flynn, the Pueblo fireman at some point in Nevada, not more than 100 miles west of Salt Lake City, either in June or July.

Johnson's end in the bout, according to the agreement, will be $30,000 and a third interest in the moving pictures. The champion has stood out for $30,000, win, lose or draw, for his next fight. He realizes now that it is next to impossible to obtain this amount.

Johnson believes the present arrangement will amount to the same thing.

MIKE MURPHY TO TRAIN QUAKERS AT SPRINGS.

[BY A. P. NIGHT WIRE TO THE TIMES.]

PHILADELPHIA, Jan. 2.—"Mike" Murphy, athletic trainer of the University of Pennsylvania, will go to Hot Springs, Ark., with the Philadelphia National League team and will supervise the spring training of the players. Horace S. Fogel, president of the club, said today that Murphy's trip would not interfere with his training work at the University of Pennsylvania.

Murphy will be the trainer of the American team which will compete in the Olympic games in Sweden next summer.

IMPORTANT MEETING OF A.A.U. THIS EVENING.

An important meeting of the local A.A.U. Commission will be held tonight at the Los Angeles Athletic Club at 8:30. The purpose of the meeting is to hear the report of the Track and Field Committees, which is running the meet that will be held on Bovard Field February 22, for the championship of the Southwest.

All the commissioners are urged to be present, as the Track and Field Committee has everything well under way and it will soon be too late to change any plans that do not meet with general approval now.

Worth Seeing.

PRIVATE MOTOR SHOW DRAWS CROWD TO LORD'S.

THE open house exhibit of automobiles by the Lord Motor Car Company at their salesroom, Nos. 1032-38 South Olive street, attracted much attention from motor car enthusiasts all day yesterday, which was the first day of the exhibition. Up to closing time at 10 o'clock last night this enterprising concern's entire force was busily engaged in meeting and entertaining visitors.

It is indeed an interesting and instructive exhibition for automobile owners, as well as for those who are contemplating the purchase of a car. The complete cut-out E.M.F. chassis, finished in white and blue, running by electric motor power, affords an opportunity to see all of the inside parts of the machine in action, which is a treat one seldom can enjoy—and it enables one to make an inspection of this mechanical working of the car that cannot be equaled outside of the automobile factory.

The exhibition also includes a stripped chassis of a Flanders 20 running under its own power. The Flanders 20 has attracted wide attention, being the holder of the world's non-stop record of 16,872½ miles, which feat was accomplished just one year ago on the streets here in Los Angeles.

The Flanders 20 holds all speed records for cars in its class, from one to twenty miles, averaging better than sixty-six miles per hour. Also holds the Pomona-Elsinore round-trip record, defeating cars costing four times as much as the Flanders 20.

Included in the exhibit are sixteen of the newest model cars—Garford "Fours," the luxurious Garford "Six," E.M.F. 30's and Flanders 20's—in two, four, five, six and seven-passenger bodies, also trucks and delivery cars, forming a collection of cars never before seen together outside of an automobile show.

The handsome decorations of the large display room add to the pleasure of the visitors, and the bright, roaring fire in the immense fireplace insures their comfort during the cool evenings. The store will be kept open to the public until 10 o'clock every evening this week and everyone is welcome.

As there will be no automobile show in Los Angeles this winter, the Lord Motor Car Company is taking the initiative in purging on for the benefit of the public this kind of an exhibition, which is in itself a private automobile show.

WELSH-WAUGH.

time. He nails Giblin back up throughout the mill Monday. Even after he was knocked down in the first round he jumped right up and started to bore in. It was his first appearance before a large and strange audience and he was nervous.

"Waugh Entitled to Chance."

"Although during the last two days I have been requested to substitute 'Fighting Dick' Hyland for Waugh, against Welsh, I believe that Waugh is the better man to meet Welsh just now. Hyland is a good boy, but most of the followers of the game have seen him in action and know just what he can do. On the other hand, Waugh is young and undefeated. He has forty-three victories to his credit and deserves a chance to meet a good man."

Promising Prelims.

The two ten-round preliminaries that will be staged along with the Welsh-Waugh bout promise to be of high order. Although Charlie Dalton has not come to terms to meet Battling Gage, McCarey believes that within a few days he will come around. The two bouts are to be lightweight elimination affairs and the winners will meet in early February to determine which one of the four aspirants is a real, Simon-pure main-event performer.

Louie Rees and Eddie Patten, two of the ambitious lightweights, have got together on satisfactory terms. Dalton was to have been hitched up with Battling Gage. Charlie is not backward in saying that he is the best of the four and therefore should receive a better deal from the club than the other three. However, as he thinks the money will be easy picking it is probable that he will fall into line.

Survivor Takes All.

McCarey is to put up $500 and each of the four lightweights is to ante $100. The winners January 20 will take nothing. The $900 will go to the final winner, in February. The two bouts this month will be scheduled for ten rounds, but if at the end of ten rounds both men are still fighting and the referee is unable to pick the winner, extra rounds will be ordered. Each bout will go to a decision, no matter how many rounds are required. Under this arrangement, McCarey believes that the boys will furnish all kinds of excitement for the fans. Joe Myer, who beat Giblin, is sorry he is temporarily out of the game on account of his injured hand, as he would like to get a chance at the $900.

Joe to Go Slow.

Joe Rivers was a happy boy yesterday. He was feeling fine. He has a sprained thumb, but outside of that minor injury he showed no signs of his battle with Conley.

"All this talk about Rivers now being a full-fledged lightweight is bunk," said Joe Levy, Rivers's manager, last night. "Joe probably will be a lightweight sometime, but he is far from it just now. We are not going to jump right into the lightweight division. We will fight at 125, 126 and 128 pounds as Joe gets heavier and not until he naturally weights 133 pounds will he begin to take on the lightweights. If he reaches 133 by next summer we will be ready for lightweights, but there are plenty of good men under that weight whom Rivers will first tackle. Jack White for a February date looks good, and there is Tommy Kilbane, who would be good for Rivers after Joe climbs up to 128 pounds.

"Rivers will remain here indefinitely. I am receiving offers from the East right along, but Joe prefers to stay here. Of course, if we receive anything exceptionally good from the East or Middle West, we would lose no time in striking out."

Must Husband His Hands.

Prominent sports cannot "see" Rivers as a top-notch lightweight just at the present time. Even McCarey, who put Joe in the limelight, believes that Rivers should go easy in stacking up against the best 135-pound boys. However, there are few followers of the game who have seen the Mexican in action, who are not of the opinion that when he naturally reaches the 133-pound mark he will continue to be a "bear cat."

That Joe will have to take better care of his hands, is the opinion of those who are counting on him to tear things up in the lightweight division. Tom Jones says that while Rivers has been coming along fast he has a lot to learn, among which is to use his hands with more care.

"Young fighters often think nothing about their hands until they have a bunch of crippled knuckles. Rivers is not nearly as wild as he was a few months ago, but he will have to look out."

Copley-Coulon?

Frankie Conley was up and around yesterday. He does not look nearly as bad as might be expected after the gruelling he received from Rivers. Frankie has about come to the conclusion that he belongs in the bantamweight division. He is now anxious to meet Johnny Coulon at 116 pounds. He attributes his defeat largely to the advantage in weight that Rivers had and also to the fact that he was not feeling right on edge. McCarey says a Conley-Coulin card is a suggestion that is not half bad. Within the next two months there may be something doing along this line.

Giblin to Stick Around.

Tom Jones hasn't lost faith in Jimmy Giblin. He still thinks he is a good boy, but says he needs a lot of instruction and practice before he will be ripe for main events. Jones says Jimmy had an extreme attack of stage fright Monday.

"He didn't listen to my instructions," says Tom.

Giblin is an expert horseshoer and will stay here, working at his trade and continuing to learn the boxing game.

Jones denies that Giblin was not handled properly in preparation for his mix-up with Waugh.

"I paid a couple of boys to work out with Jimmy and passed considerable time at the camp myself. When Wolgast is training, I put in all my time at the camp, but, of course, I could not be expected to do the same thing with Giblin. McCarey likes Giblin and thinks he has been crowded too much. 'Uncle Tom' says Jimmy promises to develop into a first-class fighter."

FROM THE MASON TO THE MAJESTIC

By Julian Johnson.

One of the amusements of the crowd at the Alexandria grill, Monday night, consisted in the formation of "Boozy Anna Held" parties. The tired and much-looked-at-lady sat on the far western side of the cafe, and society debutantes and matrons approached timidly or boldly, according to their state of curiosity, and feasted their eyes on the diminutive, worry-ered little creature pathetically trying to have an after-the-show party of her own. The stormer sat finally became bold enough to talk right out loud to her, but the women, for the most part, didn't get close enough to the cage from the dangerous creature to reach out and scratch, but viewed her long and securely, just out of range.

Frank Darling, who first made the town hum with popular music when he directed the "Follies" concourse at the Mason, last spring, has returned as the song master of the Held show. Darling is a graceful authoritative and magnetic man, who is Ziegfeld's principal conductor. During the past summer he directed the "Follies of 1911" in the metropolis, and will return shortly for another Broadway season.

Our Lillian Albertina, who has not been heard from of late, is to be starred by Henry M. Harris in Marion Fairfax's new play, "The Talker," which comes into the Harris Theater, New York, next Monday.

Ruth St. Denis, is preparing to put on, at the Hudson Theater, New York, the series of Japanese dances which Mortimer Lazard has returned to town, and announces that his next attraction will be John McCormack, the Irish tenor. Young Mr. Lazard is the champion western manager of traveling stars. He has handled Kubelik's tours, was assistant treasurer of Henry Russell's San Carlo Opera Company, and last year directed the tour of Emilio de Gogorza, and was for a time treasurer of the Rabinoff-Centanni enterprises, handling Pavlowa & Mordkine and others. Lazard expects to bring McCormack West in February.

"The Sho-Gun" at the Grand, deserves a two-weeks' run. It is not only the brightest piece Hartman has staged this year, but it is singularly well adapted to every principal.

Fred Niblo is soon to return to the Mason Opera house, in "The Fortune Hunter," and with him will be his wife, the beautiful Josephine Cohan, whose health failed two seasons ago, when she tried to be as acrobatic a dancer as her acrobatic brother, the indefatigable George.

An early visitor at the Majestic, will be our tuneful Oscar Straus friend, "The Chocolate Soldier." It is due week after next.

"The Bird of Paradise" will go into Daly's Theatre, New York City, next Monday.

Hampton Del-Ruth of this city has written a playlet, "The Second in Command," which will have a private trial performance at the Orpheum this morning. Included in the cast will be Frank Gordon, in stock here last summer? She was the wife of James Diamond, at the Orpheum, and Jim got single blessedness as a Christmas gift, for Phyllis got her divorce in San Francisco last week.

Margo Duffet and her husband, Dan Bruce, are in New York, and will shortly be seen in a vaudeville "act in one." In the spring they will probably be seen in "Between Trains," a new sketch from the typewriter of Bill Sam Cline.

Johnny Ray, who celebrated in San Francisco not too hilariously, but too long, and therefore missed his opening train connections, finally arrived yesterday, and the Orpheum bill has its proper head.

JOE COSTER WINS OVER SHUGRUE ON POINTS.

[BY DIRECT WIRE TO THE TIMES.]

NEW YORK, Jan. 2.—[Exclusive Dispatch.] In a clever exhibition of boxing that lasted ten rounds at the Royal Athletic Club tonight, Joe Coster of Brooklyn outpointed Young Shugrue of Jersey City in eight of the ten sessions. Coster was too fast and clever for Shugrue and cut his lips, nearly closed his left eye and otherwise damaged his face.

METROPOLIS WANTS BOUT.

SALT LAKE CITY, Jan. 2.—[By A. P. Night Wire.] Metropolis, Nev., six hours' ride by railroad from Salt Lake City and near the Nevada-Utah line, was the first town to make a bid for the proposed battle between Jim Flynn and Jack Johnson for the heavyweight championship.

Citizens of Metropolis wired Promoter Jack Curley tonight urging that the bout be staged there and asking that he meet their representative in Chicago.

ZBYSZKO MATCHED.

MINNEAPOLIS, Jan. 2.—[By A. P. Night Wire.] Stanislaus Zbyszko, the Polish wrestler, and Henry Ordemann of Minneapolis, are scheduled for a finish match here on January 18, the best two out of three. Zbyszko has defeated Ordemann once in a finish match and has lost a handicap to him.

CORONADO POLO.

in front of the grand stand, is used for the match games. The turf on the Coronado grounds is famous for its excellence, and is reputed to be even better than the famous turf of India, where polo was born.

The arrival Monday night of Capt. J. C. Besley of Hermosillo, who played excellent polo last year, was heartily welcomed by the polo colony. Besley will be here for the next three months and has shipped his stable of ponies to Coronado for use this season. Capt. Besley will probably play on the Coronado team, and will get out this week and limber up his horses.

Maj. C. G. Ross, secretary of the Coronado Country Club, received a letter from Maj.-Gen. Leonard Wood, chief of staff of the United States army in answer to his query as to when the army polo teams would come to California to play.

ARMY TEAMS COMING.

Gen. Wood stated that he had ordered Ft. Sam Houston, Ft. Bliss, Ft. Russell and Ft. Riley to grant leave of absence to the members of the polo teams, and to foster the desire of the players to come to California to play.

It has been discovered that the Federal government has no appropriation to defray the expenses of the polo teams in the proposed trip to California, and that the cost will have to be met in some way outside of the government.

It is understood that the members of the team themselves are prepared to defray a portion of their expenses for a two-months' invasion of California.

An attempt is being made to assist the army teams by a subscription from the several polo clubs of the southern portion of the State, as it is realized that the presence of the army teams in Southern California would mean a great impetus to the game.

It is probable that the Weiss team will remain in Coronado for a week or ten days and after the round-robin has been played, the rest of the month of January will be occupied by match games between picked teams from the sixteen to twenty players now at Coronado.

MAPPING HIGHWAY.

on a first-aid movement on the roads. In this way transcontinental traffic is to be made easier from Yuma Valley to Brawley, Mecca, Indio, Palm Springs, Banning, Beaumont and Redlands.

TEAMS ARE READY.

Word was received tonight from Mecca that men and teams will be started over the road from Mecca toward Brawley tomorrow.

The Stoddard is to be driven in a direct line through the desert to the Colorado River at Yuma. This will mean not only the shortest route for the national highway, but an almost direct course.

After leaving Brawley the Stoddard is to be driven through the sands over a route of which some work has been done. Bigelow expects a hard fight, but is determined to strike the Colorado River at Yuma.

ROAD-BREAKER.

The Stoddard will be kept on the southwest side of the Salton Sea on the high lands, where the Inland Sea can never encroach, according to engineers.

Then the racer will be sent over a road never touched by an automobile.

If the car crosses this wilderness a road will be built over the waste to Yuma. This is the route chosen by delegates to the good roads conference at Phoenix. Though this is a hazardous undertaking, Bigelow is confident the car will cross the miles of deep sand. With a compass, an aneroid and the Warner speedometer, the fifty-horse-power motor will be sent into the drifts.

This will mean, if the car makes the proposed straight run, a distance of only seventy-eight miles from Brawley, in the Imperial Valley, to Yuma, the point at which the national boulevard through Arizona will strike the California highway.

"Why," asks Dunne Worley, "is the present Empress Theater, like a boy on Thanksgiving Day?"

N. B.—Mr. Worley carries his own laughter.

The Majestic box office force, Messrs. Lowry, Heap and O'Shea, will wear sophisticated Rosco Manager Montrose will be dandified.

Empress salaries, it is said, will soon cause overheating and tatting to the patriarchy-whiskered second-show crowds, that they may peaceably and sweetly while the time.

Gilson, the new leading Belasco leading man, played Joe Brooks when "Paid in Full" first visited the Majestic.

Clyde MacKinley, stage director of Anna Held's "Miss Innocence" company was the original Toto in "The Sho-Gun," the current attraction at the Grand.

"I played that role in Chicago when 'The Sho-Gun' was first given at the Auditorium Theater. In those days I was a regular 'Handsome Dan.' Take a look at me now. I always consider 'The Sho-Gun' one of the best musical comedies ever written, and I thought my role the best of the lot, and myself the clear stuff in the role. Yesterday I saw the production at the Grand and I must take my hat off to Fiorio Hartman, the producer, and Percy Brenton, who is playing my old role. I have seen many road productions which could not hold a candle to Hartman's."

Harry Klein, manager of Anna Held's company, has the distinction of having been the manager of the finest theater in the world—the Follies Bergere in New York. This theater seated just 635 persons, but it cost $125,000 to furnish alone.

Jesse Lasky and Henry B. Harris were the promoters of the playhouse, which was a combination of restaurant and theater, a down-to-the-minute cafe chantant. The idea was too novel for even New York and cost the promoter $250,000.

Alexander Pantages, the only known owner of a large vaudeville circuit without accomplices or accessories, will arrive here within a few days. Pantages would like to make Los Angeles his winter home.

The Orpheus and Gamut Clubs united last Saturday night in a banquet and reception to the Mountain Ash Welshmen. The party was held in the Gamut Clubhouse on South Hope street. A feature of the evening was the uniting of the Orpheus and Mountain Ash voices under the baton of Joseph Dupuy.

Alice Lloyd, apparently, will come west with "Little Miss Fix-It" after all. The company started from New York on New Year's Eve.

On the last day of the second week's performance of "Sis Hopkins," at the Lyceum, the house turned people away both afternoon and evening. That's a better record than the Orpheum ever established there, for on this occasion they even put the orchestra on the stage, whereas Martin Beck vaudeville was never able to dispense with the orchestra.

Ada Reeve, who is due at the Orpheum next Monday, will stay but one week, instead of the usual fortnight. She is booked to sail for Australia. As usual, Los Angeles' time on this star was sacrificed to rapacious San Francisco.

Pat Rooney, III., received so many Christmas and New Year gifts at the Orpheum that, at the final departure of Mr. and Mrs. Pat yesterday, two extra trunks were purchased to carry the baby's presents. The little fellow even wanted to take his tree, but as papa is not chartering a special baggage car, he departed, pining for the pine.

The biggest laugh in "The Rosary," at the Lyceum Monday came when the leading man sat down in a wicker chair boosting only three reliable legs. He leaned back, elegantly—and as he was picking himself up the gallery howled with glee, and it must be confessed that even the orchestra did a little snickering.

Remember Phyllis Gorlon, in stock here last summer? She was the wife of James Diamond, at the Orpheum, and Jim got single blessedness as a Christmas gift, for Phyllis got her divorce in San Francisco last week.

Margo Duffet and her husband, Dan Bruce, are in New York, and will shortly be seen in a vaudeville "act in one." In the spring they will probably be seen in "Between Trains," a new sketch from the typewriter of Bill Sam Cline.

Johnny Ray, who celebrated in San Francisco not too hilariously, but too long, and therefore missed his opening train connections, finally arrived yesterday, and the Orpheum bill has its proper head.

The sane, sensible fight promoters unfortunately have to suffer from the acts of the miserable fools who butt into the game.

For some reason that I never could exactly figure, the big purses always make the trouble anyhow. No doubt the man who works all his life like a galley slave for $3 a day feels bitter to hear of a man of his own class reaping an immense fortune in a few minutes.

Anyhow, if Flynn is allowed to go into this perfectly hopeless fight in order to grab the loser's end of the purse, it is a cinch that a fearful howl will go up.

Little Ad Wolgast, I fear, has begun to find out this operation was not such a Sunday-school picnic as he seemed to think it.

Stop; look and listen.

It is insane rubbish for the doctors to say that the almighty put that little vermiform appendix in the human frame as a sort of parlor ornament; and that it serves no purpose.

The margin between a good fighter and a poor fighter is so exceedingly narrow that the least handicap will turn the tide.

Ad may be able to come back, but it will be a tougher job than for the biblical camel to pass through the eye of the needle.

POINTS OUT POINTS IN BOXING MATCHES.

BY MARQUIS OF QUEENSBERRY.

I DARE say many persons have frequently discussed on what particular lines a referee may give an award on points in a boxing match of a certain number of rounds, or how newspaper writers reckon up the points for a decision in cities where no fiat of the referee is permitted.

In reckoning points many good judges place little store on knockdown blows, while others are inclined to be much taken by it and immediately wipe out a good many points which a man may have scored prior to meeting his upset.

I was much interested in some remarks in an article in "Boxing" as to the absence of rules for the guidance of referees. General "pointers" have been laid down in a small guide well known at the National Sporting Club of London, but there can easily be a difference of opinion as to interpreting them.

It is a question, argues the writer in "Boxing," how much value is given by referees for straight lefts irrespective of the power of the blows, while he alludes to the point I have just referred to, that some will allow points for straight lefts irrespective of the power of the blows, while some will be intensely impressed by a knockdown of ever so short duration. In France defense for the most part is ignored by the majority of referees.

The writer further alludes to Tom Scott's verdict of draw in the Welsh-McFarland contest, which came as a surprise to the majority of those present at the National Sporting Club. It was wondered whether the referee had not been somewhat dazzled by Welsh's skillful defense.

Alfred Watson, the editor of Badminton, has been giving his views. He states that the M.S.C. differs from many other establishments because there is never any doubt as to the ability of the referee. He doubts whether the supply of unimpeachable referees is anything like equal to the demand. He further advocates more detailed rules of refereeing to be formulated and published.

Even were these hints put into a little manual for referees there always would be a difference of opinion and a doubt expressed as to their meaning, and this is emphasized by the frequency of arguments after a close contest.

In evidence once given after a fatal fight at the National Sporting Club, J. H. Douglas stated that he had a card on which he marked the number of points that he gave each man in each round. He allowed in and round a maximum of five points. In this particular fight he said the balance one man had at the end of the seventh round was four and one-half points. He had marked half a point on the first three rounds and a point on the fourth, fifth and sixth. He added that he had reckoned the cleverness of one man by his skill in guarding, slipping, ducking, and getting away. Later he said that where points are otherwise equal preference is to be given to the competitor who did most of the leading or who displayed the best style. In other words, the man who keeps cutting out the work gains a certain credit for doing so, because it is easier to box on the defensive than it is on the attack.

I may mention that the Scottish rule reads that if in the event of a knockout blow the round in which it occurs shall finish, and the marks for that round shall be awarded in accordance with the work done up to that point, the knockout blow scoring as an ordinary point.

Belated, but none the less rejoicing, Johnny Ray reached the Orpheum a day behind, yesterday, and went on yesterday matinee and last night with Mrs. Ray and his company in "The Band Master," the headline act for the week. The skit concerns the efforts of Mrs. Piker (Emma Ray) as a woman of society to have the latest of everything, and her engagement of Donovan's full-blooded Hungarian orchestra and band, led by Mike Donovan (Johnny Ray) at her recherche reception. The invasion of the place by a real Hungarian band with an Irish leader may be imagined as a situation provocative of the broadest fun, and the Rays are right there in dispensing it. The act is noisy, but clever and full of uproarious but real fun. The Rays play it to the limit and their company is not a whit behind them. Next week the Rays will put on their new act called "Casey the Fireman."

The new year brought to the Adolphus Theater a variety of acts, with comedy the predominant feature. The headline position is taken by Adelpo, an accordion player of merit, who could have held the audience indefinitely by his rendering of Italian folk-lore melodies, national anthems and a touch of modern ragtime that seemed to find response in the expecting people.

The Schaffer Brothers, two symmetric, well developed athletes, gave a series of poses showing well developed muscles under control. The feature is their ability to lift and hold massive weights of iron and man.

The farce, "Fun in a Hammock," is given by the Adolphus Stock company. The plot has to do with Doctor Schmidt—Dick Cummings—who has a matrimonial turn of mind and advertises for a wife. These plans are interrupted by his nervous thus acquainting for much of the fun that follows. This is the best playlet yet produced by Mr. Cummings, who receives good support from the other members of the company. West and Boyd brought forth many a laugh in their rapid fire sketch, "The Hotel Boy," singing and Dutch impersonation rounded out this act.

J. D. Bryson, conductor of the orchestra, holds up his end of this week's bill.

The "Looked-for" January Sale of Quality Beddings

—never have we gathered together as well-varied, quality-proven assortments to sell at such unusual underprices.

—this January Sale of Beddings is painstakingly planned. Months ago, in the heat of the summer, our buyer visited the Eastern markets and gleaned the best values procurable for this very event.

—Coming as it does—at the outset of the chilliest season of the year; at a time when housewives and hotel-men are forced to consider the costly necessity of renewing their supplies, it opens a welcome way to economy;—

—and the thrifty buyer is not slow to recognize the doubled advantage of Coulter-quality beddings at January-sale prices.

—The slightest need of blankets or beddings should surely actuate you to investigate these values:

—the $3.00 values at $2.45;
—the $5.00 values at $4.00;
—the $7.50 values at $5.50;
—the $7.50 values at $6.00;
—the $9.00 values at $6.75;

—and better grades, of the finest lamb's wool, extra large sizes, bound with 4-inch silk ribbon:

—the $10 values at $8; the $12.50 values at $9; the $14 values at $10.50; $15 values at $11.75; $18 values at $14.50; $20 values at $16; $25 values at $18; $30 values at $22.50, etc.

OSTERMOOR MATTRESSES, the full size, weighing 60 lbs., covered with French Art-twilled tick, roll edges and round corners, in the single or double-part styles, sell regularly at $30, specially priced for this event only at $18.50 each.

FEATHER PILLOWS — large sized, filled with all-goose and duck feathers; linen-finished tan Art-ticking; guaranteed against odor, dust or vermin; —our "Coulter's Special" regular $5 value, on sale at only $4 the pair.

AUTO ROBES, leather lined; for the auto-fiend who appreciates a saving so exceptional as this —the $20 values at $12.50.

STEAMER RUGS, imported styles, worth $30, at $22.50; worth $25, at $18; worth $20, at $16; worth $17.50, at $14; worth $15, at $11.75. And a domestic rug worth $5, at $3.75, etc.

THESE ARE BUT A FEW of the astonishing specials included.

Mrs. Jay Boothe,

Who has been spending the holidays in this city. Mrs. Boothe, who was formerly Miss Helen Dickinson, returned to her home in Porterville Friday.

As a courtesy to Mrs. John S. Chapman, who recently returned from a year in Munich with her daughter, Miss Mary Chapman, Mrs. Cecelia A. White entertained with a luncheon party yesterday afternoon, at her home, No. 493 Harvard boulevard. Pink enchantress carnations decorated the table where there were plates for Mrs. McCutcheon, Mrs. W. G. Cochran, Mrs. A. C. Hilicke, Mrs. Stephen Hubbell, Mrs. Charles Modini-Wood, Mrs. Joseph D. Radford, Mrs. E. C. Barber, Mrs. E. F. Spence, Miss Kate Spence, Mrs. Brant, Mrs. Felix Howes, Mrs. Lyman Farwell, Mrs. W. T. Miller and Mrs. Arthur J. Waters. Yesterday's party is the first of a serious of affairs planned by Mrs. White for this season.

Here for Holidays.

Mr. and Mrs. Jay Boothe, the latter formerly Miss Helen Dickinson, who have been enjoying their honeymoon on an orange ranch at Porterville, returned to Los Angeles for the Christmas holidays. Mr. and Mrs. Boothe were centers of attraction while in town. They returned Friday, last.

From Montana.

Mrs. E. J. Owenhouse of Bozeman, Mont., is in Los Angeles for the winter. She will be joined the latter part of this month by her husband, Hon. Owenhouse, who will also be a winter guest.

For Bride and Groom.

New Year's eve, Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Newton entertained with a large dinner party at their beautiful new home on West Adams street, in honor of Mr. and Mrs. Samuel Newbold Bonsall, who have just returned from their honeymoon.

To Receive.

Mrs. R. E. Page and daughters, Mrs. John Wightman McAlester, Miss Lula and Miss Elizabeth Page, who were hostesses at three smart bridge luncheons in November, will be at home to their friends on Friday at their residence, No. 1029 Elden avenue.

December Luncheon.

Members of the Alpha Phi Alumnae Association of Southern California held their annual luncheon at Christopher's, Saturday afternoon. The officers elected were: Mrs. E. H. Sanford of Claremont, president; and Mrs. J. C. Manning of this city, secretary and treasurer. The guests were Mrs. Robert Titus, Miss Alice Ledger, Miss Marguerite Eyer, Miss Celeste Phelps, Mrs. A. F. Will, Mrs. J. C. Coulter of South Pasadena, and Mrs. Robert J. Burdette, Miss Florence Willard and the Misses Alabaster of Pasadena.

Here for Winter.

Mr. and Mrs. W. C. Brightrall of Milwaukee have taken apartments at the Trenton for the winter.

Home Again.

Mrs. David Kline and Mrs. Martin J. Jackson and daughter, Hortense Celeste, have returned from Denver, Colo., and are domiciled at the Engadine.

Recent Luncheon.

Mrs. A. F. Scharpf of No. 1051 Overton street was hostess at a pleasant luncheon last week. Christmas holly and other holiday greenery were utilized in an attractive arrangement in each room.

To Receive Friends.

Dr. and Mrs. William Elvin Pritchard and Mrs. Pritchard's sister, Miss Ada Skofstad, are at home to friends at No. 926 Elden avenue.

Club Party.

Miss Alpha MacKnight of No. 1652 Gramercy place had as guests, Friday evening, members of a club to which she belongs. The fun for the evening was a real Christmas tree.

The hostess was assisted by her mother, Mrs. George W. MacKnight, and the guests were Miss Cassa Bell, Miss Winnie Buckman, Miss Hazel Hankins, Miss Jessie Matheson, Miss Grace Helen Pease, Miss Gertrude Robertson, Miss Ethel Stimson, Miss Mabel Townsend, Miss Emily Townsend, Miss Mabel Ellsperman, Miss Ione Weaver, Dr. and Mrs. A. E. Brandes, Walter Ralphs, Charlton Haskins, Clarence Campbell, Ralph Heywood, Irving Metzler, Jack Marshall, Chester Allen, Oswald Cowen, Thomas Oughton and Arthur Webb.

Silver Wedding Anniversary.

To celebrate their silver wedding anniversary Mr. and Mrs. W. J. Prosser entertained with a reception recently at their home, No. 1825 Fedora street. The rooms were gaily decorated with Christmas novelties and silver hearts. The evening was shared by Mr. and Mrs. George Alexander, Mr. and Mrs. R. A. Guthrie, Mr. and Mrs. C. A. Davis, Mr. and Mrs. W. J. T. Greenfield, Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Shropshire, Mr. and Mrs. A. H. Keene, Mr. and Mrs. W. L. Dukes, Mr. and Mrs. George Athey, Mr. and Mrs. A. L. Baker, Mr. and Mrs. J. F. Stockwell, Miss Georgia Osborne, Miss Ines Johnson, Miss Mayme McJenkins, Miss Mary Prosser, Miss Aylcen Goodrich, Miss Edith Reese, Miss Esther Athey, Glenn Goodrich, Arthur Norris and James McCue.

Country Place Party.

Col. and Mrs. H. C. Hubbard entertained with a Christmas dinner and party for their young friends at their beautiful home at San Fernando. Wild ferns and holly berries formed a handsome centerpiece. Santa Claus place cards marked covers for Mrs. Mary E. Griswold, Mrs. Hattie Nutting, Mr. and Mrs. O. C. Grey, Mr. and Mrs. Jack Egbert, Miss Lillie Hawk, Miss Maciay, Miss Nutting, Miss Egbert, Mr. Hawk, Mr. Woods, Mr. Hubbard and Mr. Grey.

Friends Honored.

In celebration of the new year, Mr. and Mrs. K. Roth of No. 1132 Ingraham street complimented their friends with a dinner party. Invitations were accepted by Mr. and Mrs. B. Rosin, Mr. and Mrs. H. Altman, Mr. and Mrs. E. H. Reich, Mr. and Mrs. M. Roth, Mr. and Mrs. L. Kessler and Mr. and Mrs. A. Klein.

Coming Affair.

Members of the Los Angeles Alumnae Chapter of the Pi Beta Pi will be guests Saturday of Mrs. J. C. Ferrall of No. 900 South Union avenue.

Mrs. Forve Hostess.

Seventy guests responded to invitations issued by Mrs. Philip Forve for a luncheon party, given at her beautiful home, No. 427 Westlake avenue, yesterday afternoon. This is the second party given this season by Mrs. Forve, and at both affairs the decorations were in keeping with the holidays.

To Give Dancing Party.

Mrs. Martin Jacob Golden of No. 647 West Twenty-eighth street will give a dancing party during the next fortnight for her daughters, the Misses Agnes Kathryn and Margaret Golden, who are home from the Secret Heart Convent for the holidays. The tea party planned for yesterday afternoon was postponed on account of conflicting dates.

To Give Dinner.

Mrs. A. B. Cass of this city will be hostess Sunday evening at a dinner party given for young people who were guests at the Zeta Phi house party in Stanford during the week of the big game.

UNDELIVERED TELEGRAMS.

There are telegrams at the Postal office for J. F. Larce, Ora McDonald, Mrs. Irene Gaylert, George F. Chapline, C. Henry Thompson and Miss Nellie Miller.

At the Western Union office for Mrs. Marvin Paine, Mrs. C. E. Roberts, Mrs. Willis E. Stovall, Hoffman Richardson, F. S. Truax, John F. Lynn, David B. Gemmill, Beldin M. McPike, Morris Brown, S. M. About Those Sensational Piano Sales

Dependable pianos are not sold at the ridiculously low figures quoted by houses which abuse the public confidence by sensational statements in their advertising. The piano offered as "Was $550, now $115," or "Was $600, now $98," is merely a bait to catch the unwary and unsuspecting buyer.

Of one thing to be certain, no house sells pianos at a loss; no house sacrifices its merchandise, selling at less than cost; no house which offers pianos for $260, built to sell for $400, sells $400 pianos for such prices.

Misrepresentation may, for a time, succeed, but they who purchase pianos under the belief that they are getting $100 or $150 in piano value for nothing are storing up trouble for the future.

Go about the selection of your piano calmly. Do not be influenced by sensational statements in the advertisement of any house. Bear in mind the fact that really better pianos are sold at lower prices, and on as favorable terms, any and every day in the year, at our stores.

Sensationalism and misrepresentation find no place in our business. Our goods speak for themselves. They are well made, fully guaranteed, and sold at the same identical prices that are asked on the floors of their manufacturers, whether in Boston, New York or Chicago. Investigation will convince you, and will save you money.

MILLIONS AFTER HIM.

At Least so Thinks Maple-Avenue Man Who Seeks Protection at Police Station.

That air of peace and quietude which settles down over West First street in the vicinity of the Police Station just before dawn, was broken about 3:45 o'clock yesterday morning by a taxi chugging loudly up the hill from Broadway. It came to a stop in front of the station. A man jumped out and rushed hurriedly into the station, slamming the large front door behind him. Walking quickly up to Desk Sergeant Smith, he said:

"I want protection."

Smith sat up suddenly, rubbed his eyes and, walking over to the window, remarked with calmness:

"They are following me," continued the stranger.

With that he turned and looked towards the door through which he had just entered, at the same time exposing a large revolver in his hip pocket. That was a signal to Smith "to get busy."

"Who's after you?" asked the desk sergeant.

"Millions of people," replied the man.

"Let me see whether your gun is big enough to fight that many people with," calmly spoke the man in the window.

"I hope it is," said the stranger, handing it to Smith, "for I need help."

While Smith was pretending to examine the revolver another officer approached the stranger from the rear, and a few minutes later he was chained to a cot at the Receiving Hospital. Papers in his possession show him to be Benjamin B. Search 42 years of age, who lives at No. 582 Maple avenue. His ideas on religion are out of the ordinary, and his belief that people are trying to kill him is deep-rooted.

OF THE NEWEST Nemo INVENTION

AUTO-MASSAGE SELF-REDUCING

THE purpose of this Sale is to introduce an epoch-making invention, great in importance and far-reaching in effect—a genuine Corset achievement.

The new NEMO "AUTO-MASSAGE" SELF-REDUCING CORSET not only reduces the figure by a comfortable readjustment of the flesh, but actually reduces the flesh by scientific massage. This is accomplished by a new adjustment of the Self-Reducing Straps in combination with other newly-patented devices.

This is not a new theory, but simply the successful application of a scientific fact, well known to every physician and hygienist—that the persistent movement of the body against steady pressure will not only prevent the formation of fat, but will cause fatty tissue to be re-absorbed and removed when already formed. It is a perfect substitute for hand-manipulation by a skilful masseuse.

The truth of our original claim that the Nemo Self-Reducing Corset positively reduces the abdomen has been proved beyond question. Millions of women who have worn and still wear these corsets are convinced of this.

The new NEMO "AUTO-MASSAGE" SELF-REDUCING Corset represents the highest perfection of the original Nemo Self-Reducing Idea; but it goes further—it causes the absorption of fat, thereby actually decreasing the deposit of fatty tissue and materially reducing both the weight and size of the figure in a comparatively short time.

Detailed description of this new device and its hygienic action is impossible in this space; but the picture shows its inevitable effect—symmetrical figure-reduction never before possible, with the highest degree of comfort ever enjoyed by women of full form.

Don't Fail to See This Wonderful New Corset This Week In All Good Stores Throughout the Country

EOPS BROS. New York, San Francisco, London, Stuttgart

DAILY BEAUTY HINT: Whether it was suggested by the holiday season, or was merely reminiscent upon general principles, Grandma confessed to the girls that when she was young they made a harmless cream for use during private theatricals, by mixing cranberry juice with glycerine. This, applied to cheeks and lips, she declares, made a most natural and pretty flush. Sh! Of course it was used only for rehearsals.

It's just ever happened that you were dawdled down at a soda fountain this time of the New Year when you can see plainly across the counter, and can discern your vis-a-vis's facial lines, all around the room? I am sure you must have noted that it was a fine place in which to study humanity.

Isn't it strange how nature persists in writing upon our faces, many times, all of our secrets? Shameful—the only comfort is in the fact that not every one stops to read the something traced thereon. If, for instance, the pretty and attentive girl who has piloted her wayward brother up to that counter and has waited for him the cup of strong coffee, had been able to read the lines of his face, beginning as well as she knows the end, girl-bachelorhood at what cost? Yes, possibly it is a personal affair but—how happy was to be her New Year?

Watch this couple are two old issues from the country. They fancy they see their surreptitious action, which they have drawn out their hand bags, to nibble at the bit cup of tea—just to "stay the hunger" during this wildly hilarious visit to the city. After which they may visit a moving-picture show—but they'll never tell it there.

Is there is the dapper gentleman of the rolling eye, who imagines every girl at the counter is ready to flirt with him, when in reality they are all marveling that he, or any one else, harbor under his chin a shade of such hues.

Is there is—good gracious! certainly is Elizabeth! Of all the days you did not wish to see you. It was only yesterday you two together vowed that you would kiss the New Year by going home, and, in fact, you have ordered a regular lunch—just a coffee and a nut sandwich, and there is she doing here, anyway? Isn't it as broad as it is long? You could finish and slip away—but she has seen you and you seem to explain that you arose early this morning and could eat a horse and so—and so forth. Of course, as luck would have it, you should come along but the one with whom you refused to lunch so righteously that you would "lunch." Truly the cosmetic counter is a cruel realm.

White for Hallo.

All street suits in excellent taste, also party frocks of the soft materials, are on display at the exclusive Broadway establishments. Velvet, for instance, a chiffon of orchid color, made in the simple and trimmed with sewing pearls. The price of this was rather low. A navy serge in tailored style, a suit which is good form throughout the season for late spring, is equally smart. And there are many others.

Have you observed the fad for wearing hats to match and to wear with frocks?

One of the exclusive Broadway shops is one in the very latest vogue from Irish crochet matching hats made upon the gown. This is trimmed with fringe and lined with a contrasting shade, and worn over the shoulder by a heavy silk cord. Very sensible and practical I call these bags, since one has a pocket in a party frock where is no convenient place to carry one's necessary belongings, such as handkerchief, the powder puff and other vanities.

Not cheap, but low in price. Not exactly cheap, but the season's styles. Not a cheap store, but at one of the "best ones."

"Quality" is authority upon which to buy. In fact, handles no cheap merchandise goods, and when a sale is announced by this house, it means that you will receive great values for less money than usually imaginable. Which, that is their way of keeping trade. They sell off all of last season's styles and are ready for the new and advanced styles in the full swing of the new season.

One of the Broadway houses which has a huge line of brass piercing is closing the entire lot at reductions. In fact, a piece is given with each purchase of a lighting outfit. This work is of the order and is easily mastered by amateur.

Sale.

Is also on Broadway where the establishment are to be torn down to make room for the march of progress in the way of large business blocks. There is a sale of hand-made lingerie articles, in which are offered remarkable values. I never saw handsomer collars than in this stock. Real gems of lace, and they—and the prices are less than half.

Sale Fly.

Not to last, it should at the prices. Because of the removal of one of the stores to a new location, this sale is being offered by this house is unique of its kind. Not only this, but the making up of furs in especially the house excels.

Take a set of seal, the shoulder trimmed with ermine and finished with tassels of black and white, and the muff comprising the combination—a stunning set it is, too. The woman who received money for New Year's gift, will find an opportunity for self-adornment here.

Sale.

Is on in almost every store

—that poor man who gave his wife a new waist or a silk dress for Christmas and tried to save something by failing to specify the amount to be expended thereon. She drags him with her to pick it out. You can discern him at a glance by his hunted look, as he is piloted among the feminine frippery. You pity the creature, and yet you feel that he deserves his fate. Maybe, next time, he will give her the cash and allow her to pick out her own garments.

Fine Office Furniture.

A window filled with handsome office furniture set me to wondering why offices are as a rule so hideously furnished. Why should not a man make beautiful and comfortable as well that place in which he spends the greater part of his life? It seems to me that he should buy the best that he can afford in the way of desks and rugs and bookcases for his downtown home. Those ones which I so much admired were new in style and artistic in finish.

Inexpensive Linens.

It seems to me that the linen sales are more tempting this season than ever before. Just as you decide that here you have found the best bargains ever offered in bed spreads, table damasks, towels—you pass along to the next store, and, lo! they are even cheaper there! The wise woman is buying now for the entire year.

In Fashion's Domain.

It is a noticeable fact that wherever well-dressed women gather there is a predominance of fancy cut suits, the cost being made with odd-cut seams and trimmed with collars, fancy revers, deep cuffs and large, fancy buttons.

The Rembrandt hat has been revived by fashionable women. With its wide rim and soft Tam O'Shanter crown, it is quite an innovation. These hats are made not only of velvet, but appear in chiffon, taffeta and soft materials.

Wide fur scarfs are very fashionable. The newest models are a combination of two furs. Ermine is edged with skunk, white with black fox, and chinchilla and broadtail are combined. The more gorgeous scarfs are of sable and ermine.

The all-over lace dress is appearing in smart circles, a suggestion of color being sometimes introduced in the diaphanous drapery, but the all-white type, combined with Brussels net or chiffon and finished off with soft fringes, has been worn by prominent women.

WOMEN'S WORK, WOMEN'S CLUBS.

BY SYDNEY FORD.

My goodness! Frederick Law Olmsted—the famous landscape gardener, city beautifier, park inspector and all-round municipal housekeeper expert, took a walk around the southwest part of our city after that last rain—and he got his feet wet, and found the streets afloat down there in that Adams-street-Grand-avenue section—and he's rather shocked. He told the women of the Civic Association about it yesterday morning. Not that he criticised us sharply—by no means, he was distinctly mild and extremely polite about it—but he just mentioned the fact that we do need storm water sewers rather badly.

The president of the association, Mrs. O. P. Bryant, when she introduced Mr. Olmsted, asked him plainly and particularly to tell the association frankly what Los Angeles needed—just gave him liberty to go ahead and point out our defects.

But Mr. Olmsted is a wise man. He didn't embrace his opportunity by riding rough shod right into our dust and mud, and garbage, and torn-up streets. Oh, my no. He said in the outset that our defects and blemishes were simply the result of our rapid growth. Los Angeles, in other words, is growing so fast that she cannot keep up with herself. She's stubbing her toes against unpaved streets, splashing through storm water, and is fairly enveloped in the dust she kicks up in her rapid run toward a million population.

"It would indeed, be an ungracious task to find fault and pick flaws with a city like Los Angeles," declared Mr. Olmsted, "and whatever I say may be taken merely as the chance observation of a traveler and not as the result of a thorough investigation."

On the whole, he thinks we are grappling with the problem of our municipal housekeeping tolerably well, considering how fast we are growing. It's always hard to keep a growing child fit clothes. Shoes will get too small and skirts and sleeves too short.

Commenting on the rapid rise of real estate values and consequent frequent exchange of property, all of which tends to the neglect of public improvement of such properties, he recommended the plan carried out in the German States. Over there, it seems, when land comes on the market as lots, there must be deducted and set aside all the areas for local parks, playgrounds and public purposes which will be needed when the territory is fully occupied. This is set apart and deducted from the price of the lot so that all these improvements do not eventually come on the man who buys the lot, but is rather assessed as a whole in the beginning. They go ahead and figure out in advance, systematically, all the municipal improvements needed to make each district a proper residence section.

Arroyo Seco Park.

Mrs. A. S. Lobingier addressed the Civic Association previous to Mr. Olmsted's speech and impressed upon the women present the necessity of voting on February 1, for the annexation of the Arroyo to the city.

It's all about that little strip of land that is the key to the whole arroyo, and which the city ought to get hold of in order to develop the park system planned for that section. Mrs. Lobingier favored the creation of a large assessment district—so large that it will cover all that portion of the city north of First street—"Let it reach to the Chamber of Commerce," she urged, "and by covering so much territory the assessment will be so slight individually that no one can object."

Mrs. George Rice, however, did object to the assessment plan on the ground that the people in the southwest part of the city would actually enjoy the arroyo park more than those in the proposed assessment district, as they have automobiles and represent the wealthy and leisure class—so why should they not share in the expense, and therefore make it a bond issue and let the whole city help pay for it?

This sentiment brought out a round of applause from those who favored this method. Miss Frances Wills was also of the opinion that many people in the northwestern section who have been heavily assessed for Sunset boulevard, would vote down the assessment plan.

Mrs. Lobingier, who has been busy spreading the gospel of the arroyo for months, is an enthusiast on the possibilities of this romantic spot, and she urged that if the city doesn't get it for park purposes, it will become a center of industrial enterprises and an eyesore, instead of a thing of beauty forever.

"If it doesn't carry at the election in February," she said, "the only way we can ever get it for a park will be to get the Supervisors to buy it and give it to us—and if any of you want that job, I'm willing you should have it."

The dry tone of voice in which this last was uttered indicated that Mrs. Lobingier has had experience with Supervisors and such bodies that, by reason of their size, move slowly.

Where Women Do Gardening.

Miss Frances Wills, who spent last summer in Russia and Scandinavia, gave a talk on her travels before the Civic Association yesterday. Over in St. Petersburg, and in Norway and Sweden women act as gardeners in the public parks and collect the refuse. One of the sights of these cities is the picturesque groups of old women, armed with long brooms, sweeping leaves from the walks and picking up scraps of paper from the turf. At one of the private villas in St. Petersburg she saw seven old women caring for the lawns.

They have a fashion, too, of turning their public utilities into picturesque and artistic productions. The telephone stations, for instance, are housed in ornamental, wrought iron towers. Miss Wills illustrated her talk with picture postals passed about.

BOY PLEADS GUILTY.

Launch Comrade's Young Engineer Admits Contraband Traffic—Will Be Sentenced Monday.

Reynold Scott, the engineer's apprentice who was captured on the smuggling launch Comrade at Monterey about a month ago, pleaded guilty to the charge of smuggling in the United States District Court yesterday. The matter of sentence was continued until next Monday. The boy's mother, Mrs. Hattie Scott of San Diego, was in the court room. She wept when the boy stood up for arraignment.

Young Scott, in the opinion of the immigration officers, is the least culpable of all the men rounded up when the Comrade tried to land with $7000 worth of contraband. It is understood, however, that this was not his first trip as engineer of smuggling vessels and that his pay for the journey that came to grief was to have been $1000. One other voyage is said to have been made by the boy, for which he was to have been paid the same amount but on account of a break in the arrangements he never received the money.

Antonio Fatis and Mrs. Ethel Hall, also charged with smuggling in connection with the ill-fated voyage of the Comrade, will be in Judge Wellborn's court this morning for arraignment. There is no likelihood that they will follow the example set by Scott. Capt. Wright, in command of the vessel, is in San Diego. He is likely to be heard from later in connection with the case.

CALIFORNIA'S WAY.

[Portland Oregonian:] California is insurgent—oh, so insurgent. It has an insurgent Governor, who fairly oozes insurgency by day and dreams insurgency by night. It has an insurgent or two in the lower house of Congress. It has an insurgent Senator, who spouts insurgency by the hogshead. It has an insurgent, or near-insurgent, Legislature, and it has a population that swallows whole any insurgent bait its self-anointed band of popularity-seeking apostles offer them.

When President Taft visited California last October to break ground for the great Panama-Pacific 1915 Exposition, Gov. Johnson condescended to meet him at the State line; but he declined to take part as guest or host in a great banquet at San Francisco in the President's honor. The entire demeanor of California's insurgent Governor during the President's stay was of forced courtesy and smarting and jaunty hospitality. The President was made to feel that California would have been glad if he had remained away. California was so busy with its preparations for the Panama-Pacific Exposition and in its wild and ostentatious rejoicing over the designation of San Francisco as the seat of the official celebration that it was obviously annoyed by the interruption of a Presidential visit.

The latest news from the California Insurgentville is that under the recently-framed Presidential primary law, California is going to send a solid anti-Taft delegation to the Chicago convention. No doubt, no doubt. The Great California Noise must make itself heard somehow.

Yet President Taft was the main influence in winning the battle between San Francisco and New Orleans for San Francisco. President Taft will be the most potent factor in future legislation for the 1915 exposition. President Taft will be the voice through which foreign nations will be called upon to participate. Presidents Taft's active and continued friendship is indispensable to the success of the exposition.

But President Taft is broad-minded and generous, and will overlook the meanness of California and the littleness of its Governor. California knows that and relies upon it, and will continue to bid for favors to come and to forget benefits past.

MISSIONARY CONFERENCE.

The Women's Home Missionary Society of the Methodist Church held its first quarterly meeting yesterday in the Boyle Heights church. Reports were made by the officers of branch societies from many parts of the district, and in the afternoon an address was delivered by Rev. D. F. Howe, D.D., pastor of Westlake Methodist Church.

New President.

GUINN IS HEAD OF SCHOOL BOARD

Unanimously Elected at the First Meeting.

Five Sessions a Month the Programme. Now.

Seeking Understanding With One Department.

The old Board of Education having died officially with 1911, the new board took its place at noon yesterday. The personnel, however, remains more than half the same, Messrs. Frank, Guinn, Steadman and Scott remaining. The new members are Mrs. R. L. Craig, J. H. Bean and Reynold E. Blight.

The retiring members of the board, Messrs. Roger Page, Dr. F. W. Stedfeldt and William Carey Marble, were also present, in order to approve the minutes of the last regular meeting.

The chief business of the new board was to elect a president. Speculation had been rife as to who would be elected to this office, the names of both Frank and Guinn having been mentioned, Frank because of his well-known unusual executive ability and Guinn because—

ELECTING A PRESIDENT.

There was no discussion in the meeting, however. Joseph Scott, retiring president, in a highly eulogistic speech nominated Guinn for the place. Frank arose and seconded Scott's nomination, and the secretary was instructed to cast the ballot for Guinn as president for the coming year, which was done.

Guinn at once took the chair and responded in a speech in which he declared his intention of carrying out the present policies of the board. "Next year will be one of the hardest in the board's history," said he. "This board has about $1,500,000 to expend in buildings, sites and equipment. This means a vast amount of detail work on the part of the members. We are simply the financial agents of the people in this expenditure. As to the educational part, we have experts, and we shall leave educational problems to them. We have excellent business men and women on the board, and it's up to us to conduct the business of this department in the best way possible. To the retiring members we owe a vote of thanks for the hard work done by them."

SCHOOL HEALTH DEPARTMENT.

Col. Steadman moved the appointment of a committee to draft suitable resolutions of thanks to the retiring members, and the president appointed Steadman, Frank and Bean.

Frank moved to investigate the health and development department of the schools, which was seconded by Steadman. The matter was referred to the Committee of the Whole, with authority to invite all persons connected with that department, and also High School principals. That a full understanding of the work of the department may be gained by the School Board members and eventually by the public, since there has been a good deal of public discussion of the question. It was decided to hold the first meeting of the Committee of the Whole on the 29th inst. at 1 p.m. The superintendent was instructed to invite the High School principals to be present.

The Rules Committee reported that the new rules were nearly ready to present. In discussing them it came out that the most important change was that increasing the number of the meetings of the board from two to five a month, the meetings to be held on Thursday afternoons at 2 o'clock, and on the second Monday in the month. Guinn, in championing this rule, explained that the board does five times as much work as it did seven years ago, and the two meetings a month were not nearly enough to properly transact all business. Under the charter provision recently adopted, the board members will be paid at the rate of $10 a meeting for each one attended, though the number of paid meetings shall not exceed five a month. Guinn explained that formerly the bulk of the work has been done at committee meetings, for which no pay could be allowed.

The president appointed the following committees for the coming year: Finance, Frank, Scott and Blight; Building, Bean, Frank and Steddom; Purchasing and Distribution, Craig, Blight and Bean; Teachers and Schools, Steadman, Craig, Scott; Insurance, Scott, Frank, Bean; Rules, Blight, Steadman and Craig.

The next meeting will be held on Monday.

SCORES COUNTY OFFICER.

Court of Appeals Agrees With Trial Judge That Treasurer Was Careless With Money.

In a decision handed down by the Court of Appeals, yesterday, a sharp lecture was read on the subject of the plain duty of County Treasurers in the care of trust funds.

The action at bar was that of Pierre Agoure against H. E. Peck and the Aetna Indemnity Company, on appeal from the finding of Superior Court Judge Frank R. Willis, in the Ventura county Superior Courts. An action was brought by Agoure against the Treasurer of Ventura county and his official bond to collect $1000, and the judgment of the lower court was in favor of the plaintiff, from which, on an order denying a new trial, the defendants appealed.

In March, 1907, an action was pending in the Ventura county courts, in which Joseph F. Lewis was plaintiff and Pierre Agoure defendant. On that date Lewis tendered Agoure $1000 conceded to be due him on account of the cancellation of a lease involved in the action which Agoure refused to accept. Whereupon Lewis deposited the money with the County Clerk, who, in turn, turned it over to the County Treasurer. That official deposited it in a banking institution in Ventura, at the time solvent but afterward insolvent, and a certificate of deposit was issued by the bank, payable on the County Clerk and afterward turned over to the County Treasurer. That official refused to pay it over and the judgment of the court was in favor of Agoure. The Court of Appeals affirmed this judgment. Afterward the certificate of deposit became uncollectable.

The court held that the money had been properly paid and that the Treasurer was guilty of negligence in that he did not use due diligence in preventing its loss to the plaintiff. The Court of Appeals confirmed the decision.

UNINVITED CALLERS.

Returning Householders Find Men Have Made Free in Their Homes in Their Absence.

When F. Wildrug and wife of No. 1021 West Forty-first place returned home late Monday night from a party they found that a man had entered the house by first cutting a piece out of the screen door, and had stolen a gold watch and other jewelry.

Mrs. Gibson of No. 301 West Twenty-third street stepped out into the back yard for a moment. When she returned she found a man in the house, she told the detectives at Central Station.

"What do you want?" she asked as she looked about for something to throw at the intruder.

"Nothin'," replied the man. "I was lookin' for a man what used ter live here."

Without more ado the man turned and ran.

LOCAL PRODUCE MARKET.

The first business day of the new year was marked by a brisk trade along most lines. The feature of the market was the decline of 3 cents on fresh eggs. Yesterday candled ninety were quoted at 35 cents, and case counts at 31 cents. Storage eggs were unchanged, the market for the stock now in storage is declined to be weak. The marked decline in egg quotations during the past two weeks is attributed to an oversupply, due to increasing receipts. Reports from northern points state that egg production is heavy for this season, but this condition has in no wise affected the local market. It was the consensus of opinion among handlers of this commodity last week that the market had about reached bottom, but before with heavy receipts over the two holidays prices declined. Egg arrivals were 190 cases.

The temporary shortage of butter last week, caused principally by heavy local receipts over Sunday and Monday, when 52,500 pounds came in. Notwithstanding the heavy arrivals no material change in quotations was noted. Creamery extras held at 34½ cents, and firsts at 33; held at 32½ cents per pound. The San Francisco market was reported steady at 36 cents on the best stock.

The fruit was in good shape. Arrivals were 2670 packages. The heavy sellers were northern fresh and Oregon daisies. The former moved out at 17½ cents, which is 2½ cents less than the San Francisco market, where this variety was quoted at 15 cents, and steady.

The potato market was considered fairly strong. There is plenty of both, but the future trend of the market depends upon outside demand. Dealers were wont to shade their quotations yesterday, and prevailing quotations were: Sweets, 2½@3c; spuds 2500 sacks. The bulk of the arrivals were from the north, and were of the Burbank variety.

The onion market continued to maintain a marked firmness. With no receipts reported in, the market was in excellent shape. Although no change in figures was noted on the change, some dealers moved out some of their stock at a slight advance. The market advance in white was unless last week was due to a bare market on this variety. Only one dealer has any holdings and a stock of such excellent quality that he had no trouble in moving them at $2.50.

The fruit market was devoid of features. Light arrivals along most lines were reported. Apples were in good call at prevailing prices. There was a scarcity of grapes. Malagas are selling at $2.50 a box. Other varieties sold from $1.75 to $2.50. Seedless grapefruit was again quoted on change from $2.50 to $4.00 a box.

There was a scarcity of green vegetables on the market. Several advances were made in this line. The existing conditions of the market at this time is firm. The tone of the previous week is beginning to make itself felt, as arrivals have fallen off considerably. Beets are in such light receipt that one dealer refused to take any orders for this commodity. Cabbage was advanced 1½ cents a sack. Peas were scarce, most of the stock sold around 11 cents. Green and wax beans were marked up to 12 cents.

"Doth a Tale Unfold."

SAYS SHE WEPT FOR TWO DAYS.

Brother Testifies in Court Sister Was Sold.

Many Marriages Illegal; No Licenses Used.

Russian Colony Case to Be Argued Today.

The story of how little Sarah Vedieneff, a 15-year-old Russian girl, still a child in thought and action, wept for two days and nights without sleep because she had been sold, in marriage, he said, to a man she hated, was told on the witness stand in Judge Wilbur's court yesterday by her brother, John Vedieneff.

The boy was called as a witness to testify in the case of pretty Elsie Navikoff, of No. 710 Turner street, who ran away from her home because she alleges her father contracted to sell her for $800.

Judge Wilbur became so interested in the story of the young Russian when he told of the alleged sale of his sister to a man much older than herself, that he took the witness out of the hands of the lawyers and began to question him personally.

"Did you ever know personally of the sale of a Russian girl in marriage in Los Angeles?" he asked.

"Yes," answered the boy stolidly.

"Who was the girl sold?" was asked.

"My sister," said the youth.

"Who sold her?" asked Attorney Charles S. McKelvey, who is conducting the case with Attorney W. H. Stevens in the interests of Raymond Hallock, a young American who wants to marry Elsie Navikoff.

"My father sold her," said the boy, his face betraying not the least sign of emotion. Apparently he was making what he thought to be a statement as simple as that relating to the sale of a sheep or a cow.

"What price did she bring?" asked the attorney with simple directness.

"One hundred and fifty dollars," was the quick answer.

"Tell the court about it," he was commanded. "Did she want to be sold? Did she love the man she was sold to?"

"No," said the boy. "She did not want to be married. She cried, mother she cried! She cried two days and nights. She cried all the time, but still my father made her get married."

Here Judge Wilbur again took a hand.

"How long ago was your sister married?" he inquired.

"I don't know the day. It was about two weeks ago," replied the boy.

"Whom did she marry?"

"A man named Andrew Shubin. Sarah cried very much. She did not like Shubin," replied the boy, his thoughts returning to his sister's sorrow.

When asked if the girls in the Russian colony were forced to marry men their parents had sold them to, the boy answered quickly:

"Yes, they force them. They make the girls marry. I don't know what the rule to force the girls but the girls always give in."

"Was a license issued for your sister's marriage?"

"No, there was none," the boy replied. "The Russians in the colony get no license to marry."

MARRIAGE ILLEGAL.

This last statement was admitted to be true by Phillip Shubin, the president of the colony, who coolly informed the court that hundreds of marriages in the Russian colony are no more legally valid than if they had never taken place.

Another witness who told of the alleged selling of pretty young Russian girls was Moses Vasoni.

"Do you know of any young Russian girls who have been sold in marriage?" he was asked.

"My uncle bought a girl two months ago," said Vasoni. "My father buys girls for men he knows. When he goes to get a girl he takes $100 in his pocket and then he pays more afterwards."

Just after this testimony Elsie Navikoff was placed on the stand. She created a sensation by saying that her sister-in-law and her mother had both threatened her in the courtroom.

"My sister-in-law came to me a few minutes ago there at the railing," said Elsie, "and told me that if I did not come home to my mother that I would be in jail. My mother told me before that if I did not come home I would be three years in jail."

Both women were immediately summoned to the stand.

"I just said: 'Elsie, my little sweetheart, come home to ma,'" averred the mother.

"I said: 'Elsie, come home, your mother and father are crying for you,'" said Mrs. Amy Navikoff, the sister-in-law. Both women strenuously protested that they had spoken no other words than these.

SAYS FATHER BEAT HER.

At the morning session of court Elsie told Judge Wilbur that her father beat her because she would not marry the man he had sold her to.

"Once I had on a white waist and he struck me in the face and the blood dripped all over my waist," she said. She told of other alleged cruelties by her father and mother.

Judge Wilbur, during the day, received a letter from A. de Glebovitch, a Russian living at No. 2705 Jackson street, San Francisco, who stated that the lower Russians sell their daughters like cattle. He says they are poor and ignorant and cling to native customs.

FALSE, THEY SAY.

Several witnesses were called by the Navikoffs with the object of showing that the boys who had testified are not to be believed.

Shubin, president of the colony, said on the stand: "We do not sell our girls. These young boys who have testified here are a shame and a disgrace to our colony. They are not regarded as truth tellers by us. They do not come to church and they smoke and drink."

William Markaoff, an aged Russian, also declared that the witnesses who swore to the barter and sale of girls are not to be believed.

"I know them," he declared. "They tell falsehoods and are bad. bad young men who spend their time like tramps on the street."

"We love Elsie and want her back. She can marry whom she likes," said the father of the girl. "If she will come back to us we will treat her well and will not make her marry. There were several men came to me and wanted to marry Elsie and I asked her if she wanted to marry one of them. She said she would not marry before a year. There was no mention of money."

The case will be argued this morning.

TO ASK MEDAD FOR HIM.

It Is in Recognition of Patrolman's Bravery in Stopping Runaway Horse at Second and Spring Streets.

Chief Sebastian is going to ask for a Carnegie medal for Traffic Patrolman Newstetter. It will be in recognition of heroism displayed by him Saturday afternoon, December 16, last, when he stepped a runaway horse at the intersection of Second and Spring streets, just as it was about to run over a crowd of Christmas shoppers. At the risk of his life, Newstetter caught the horse by the bit, and after a desperate struggle threw the frightened animal to the ground. Newstetter sustained a scalp wound and a lacerated left hand. He was incapacitated for about a week.

The modesty and bravery displayed by Traffic Patrolman Vincent E. Newstetter in his work at the intersection of Spring and Second streets, namely, the heroism he exhibited prior to Christmas in halting a runaway horse at the risk of his life in an effort to protect the lives and limbs of pedestrians and occupants of vehicles, many of whom were women and children, has been commended from all sides. It is pleasing to note that his heroic work is to be called to the attention of the Carnegie Medal Foundation for suitable recognition.

THREATENING LETTERS.

Alleged Receipt of Anonymous Missives Followed by Destruction of Lumberyard.

Behind the fire at Watts yesterday morning, that destroyed the $4000 lumberyard of W. H. Turner, lies a story of alleged threats against life and property. That the origin of the fire was plainly incendiary Chief Detective Browne of the District Attorney's office, is convinced as the result of letters shown by Turner and J. P. Whaley of Watts.

Four days ago Turner and Whaley both received letters in a disguised hand warning them to pack up and get out of Watts or take the consequences. What those consequences would be, the writer said, would be possible injury to their lives and absolutely certain destruction of their property.

"The writer doesn't like the way you run the politics of this town," said one of the letters.

ALAS FOR RESOLUTIONS!

Justice Vows to Kiss Every Bride He Marries, but 'Phone Bothers and First One Gets Away.

"By jingo," said Justice Summerfield, starting up from his chair yesterday morning, "there goes my first resolution, all shattered to a finish."

And he looked wistfully after a happy bride disappearing through the door.

The justice made a resolution that he would kiss every bride for whom he performed the marriage service this year. That vow was solemnly registered on the morning of Monday. Here it was Tuesday and all his intentions were as naught.

George Washington Parks of Long Beach and Mrs. Alta Millage of this city had just been united, and at that moment the telephone bell rang. "You're wanted," said Constable Lyons to the magistrate, and the justice went. Then he sat down and filled in the wedding certificate. When he looked up the opportunity had fled.

Are Microbes In Your Scalp?

It Has Been Proved That Microbes Cause Baldness.

Prof. Unna of Hamburg, Germany, and Dr. Sabouraud, the leading French dermatologist, discovered that a microbe causes baldness. Their theory has time and again been amply verified through research experiments carried on under the observation of eminent scientists. This microbe, lodges in the Sebum, which is the natural hair oil, and when permitted to flourish it destroys the hair follicles and in time the pores entirely close, and the scalp gradually takes on a shiny appearance. When this happens there is no hope of the growth of hair being revived.

We have a remedy which will, we honestly believe, remove dandruff, exterminate the microbe, promote good circulation in the scalp and around the hair roots, tighten and revitalize the hair roots, and overcome baldness so long as there is any life left in the hair roots.

We back up this statement with our own personal guarantee that this remedy called Rexall "93" Hair Tonic will be supplied free of all cost to the user if it fails to do as we state.

It will frequently restore gray and faded hair to its original color, providing loss of color has been caused by disease; yet it is in no sense a dye. Rexall "93" Hair Tonic accomplishes these results by making every hair root, follicle and pigment gland strong and active, and by stimulating a natural flow of coloring pigment throughout the hair cells.

We exact no obligations or promises—we simply ask you to give Rexall "93" Hair Tonic a thorough trial and if not satisfied tell us and we will refund the money you paid us for it. Two sizes, prices 50 cents and $1.00. Remember, you can obtain it in Los Angeles only at our stores, The Owl Drug Co., Inc., Los Angeles, San Francisco, Oakland, Sacramento, Portland, Seattle and Spokane.

SPOT LIGHT FOR TVEITMOE.

terious witness will figure prominently in the trial, as he has furnished the prosecution with an important link connecting the Pacific Coast unionites with the officers of the International Bridge and Structural Ironworkers at Indianapolis.

"LEAGUE" A MASK?

This afternoon it is expected that the records and correspondence of the Asiatic Exclusion League, of which Tveitmoe is president, will be presented to the grand jury. While the organization in itself is not connected with any dynamiting conspiracies, the Federal officials declare that important business between the professional dynamiters and the head of the league was transacted under cover of the innocent-appearing association the object of which is to keep the Chinese from coming to America.

While conjectures are rife as to the identity of other unionites who may be indicted by the Federal grand jury before its adjournment Saturday, no intimation is given by the prosecution as to where the blow will strike. Two local labor-union leaders are under suspicion, also one prominent San Francisco laborite. It is possible that no more will be arrested at the present time. It is expected, however, that important developments will result from the Indianapolis investigation.

There is an understanding between Special Prosecutor Lawler and United States District-Attorney Miller of Indianapolis, that the latter is to furnish the special prosecutor with all the evidence that appertains to the California end of the investigation. In the meantime Lawler and Dist.-Atty. Fredericks will aid the government prosecutor at Indianapolis with all the evidence that has been secured here both by the county and Federal grand juries.

By the time the local cases are ready for trial Lawler will be here to aid McCormick and Regan in presenting the side of the government.

LABORITES ARRAIGNED.

Tveitmoe, Johannsen and Munsey were arraigned before Judge Wellborn in the United States District Court yesterday morning. The unionites were represented by Attorneys Davis and Harriman. The court set the time for pleading for the 12th inst.

According to usual procedure in the Federal Court, the defense will move to quash the indictment and later interpose a demurrer before making a plea of guilty or not guilty. The present congested condition of the calendar makes it improbable that trial can be reached for several months unless other cases are set aside to make room for the important government case.

FRANKLIN IS CHARGED.

Formal Informations Filed Against ex-Chief Detective for the McNamara Defense, Accused of Bribery.

Two informations were filed in Judge Willis's department of the Superior Court yesterday against Bert H. Franklin, former detective for the defense during the selection of jurors in the McNamara trial. Franklin is charged with bribing a juror in each complaint. The only difference is that one alleges the defendant bribed George N. Lockwood, a prospective juror, and the other that Robert F. Bain, a member of the permanent panel, was bribed.

Franklin will be arraigned at 9:30 o'clock Friday morning. While many county officials believe he will plead guilty sooner or later, his counsel are preparing to go ahead with a defense.

CHARGES HE SPENT IT.

Beneficiary of Trust Deed Alleges Broker Made Collections of Money but no Deposit.

John W. Watson, a broker, was arrested on another charge of embezzlement yesterday, sworn to by Julius J. Kloess. The warrant was drawn by Deputy District Attorney Hammon and was issued from Justice Young's court.

Watson, who is out on bail of $10,000 on a similar charge, was taken into custody by Constable Woodbury, but was released soon after, as the amount of bail up on the other complaint was deemed sufficient. He is to be arraigned this morning.

Kloess says he gave Watson a trust deed with a writing to indicate that the $1300 due upon it was to be collected for the benefit of Kloess. Instead of that, he says, Watson collected the money and has refused to pay it to him. He accuses Watson of spending it.

HEAVIER-THAN-AIR.

Able to Raise Aeroplanes, but no Money, so Aviator Asks Aid of the Courts.

Aviator W. E. Taylor says he can raise an aeroplane into the atmosphere, but he can't raise the $160 that is owing to him from the Lamson Aeroplane Company, so he has sued for that amount for his services in selling stock on commission.

Taylor's hopes, his attorneys say, are pinned on a $4000 aeroplane that the company has constructed. He had a contract, Attorney Iasigi says, to sell stock on commission, to act as salesman, and also to guide the machine when it should fly at the approaching aviation meet. He was under contract, and is yet, his lawyers declare, to fly for the Lamson company for $50 a week for a year, and he hopes to fly and to get his money, too.

"Taylor sold $800 worth of stock in the company and was to receive 20 per cent. commission. He never received a cent, and that is why he is suing," said Iasigi.

LONG TIME FINDING HIM.

So well did he keep out of the way it took three weeks to serve a warrant on Nathan Price, Jr., charged with failure to provide for his family. Constable Hayes and Deputy Enz caught him at the Santa Fe Station Depot yesterday, and took him before Justice Forbes. Price did not have the price at first, but his father, Nathan Price, Sr., and his uncle, Terrill Price, came to his rescue. They had it and put up $500 as security for his appearance. The prisoner and his bondsmen are not only of the same name, but they are also in the same business—expressmen.

THE CITY. The body of an old man was found in the lake of Westlake Park yesterday morning. It was brought through the bridge, and the police are working on the theory that the aged man was murdered and thrown into the lake to make it appear a case of suicide.

A leading physician created a stir in the Superior Court yesterday when he testified on an insanity case that spiritualism is largely a matter of nerves.

The trial of R. H. Connors, accused of having assaulted with F. Ira Reader and A. F. Nagle to demand money from Mrs. Nagle, will be begun today, and unusual precautions have been made.

Fred H. Thompson, convicted of having received and appropriated to his own use $1000 stolen from the pockets of Dr. Frederick F. Alterre, broke down and sobbed bitterly yesterday when sentenced to eight years imprisonment on McNeil's Island, and fined $1000.

The seventh annual show of the Poultry Breeders' Association of Southern California will open at Fiesta Park this morning. More than three thousand of the finest birds bred west of the Mississippi have been entered.

The Executive Committee for the entertainment of the Mystic Shriners met last night to arrange the final details for the reception of the Imperial Council here in May, expecting 40,000 nobles, and will hold weekly sessions to perfect arrangements.

The joint investigation by the State and Federal authorities of the dynamiting plots took a startling turn yesterday when every member of the clerical and detective staff employed by Charles Darrow and his associates was subpoenaed to testify before the Federal grand jury.

Federal, State and city authorities have joined in a triangular investigation of the alleged practice in the Boyle Heights district of selling girls in marriage and united with.

By an agreement with a large property-owner the city was secured yesterday of the possibility of a site for a new city hall at Fourth and Hill, if the project goes through. A negro was arrested at Riverside yesterday who, the police say, answers the description of the man charged with the murder of Mrs. William Hawkins near Compton, two months ago.

SOUTHERN CALIFORNIA. As an initial duty the new Mayor of Riverside was presented yesterday with a protest which insisted on an explanation by the former Mayor, who was to explain things.

A campaign for new roads in Imperial County Chamber of Commerce, and the plan met approval, with San Diego and other counties.

WASHINGTON, Jan. 3.—Rear-Admiral Robley D. Evans, "Fighting Bob" to an admiring nation, died suddenly late today at his home in this city. Acute indigestion ended the career of one of the most popular officers of the navy. He was ill less than two hours.

Admiral Evans arose today apparently in better health and spirits than he had enjoyed in some time. For years a sufferer from old wounds sustained in the Civil War and from recurrent attacks of rheumatic gout, the aged fighter seemed to have shaken off the burden of his advancing days. He displayed high spirits at breakfast and ate a hearty luncheon at noon.

While in his library at 2 o'clock the admiral was stricken. His family met instantly for Dr. S. S. Adams, who on arrival found him in great pain. After treatment Admiral Evans fell into a restless sleep, and it was thought the danger had passed. Shortly after 4 o'clock, however, he awakened, and, raising himself with difficulty, announced that he was choking.

"I cannot get my breath," he said, and sank back. At 4:45 o'clock he died, conscious to the end.

AT HIS BEDSIDE.

At his bedside were his wife, his daughter, Mrs. H. I. Sewall, and his daughter-in-law, Mrs. Frank T. Evans, wife of the admiral's only son, a lieutenant-commander in the navy, and now on duty on the torpedo boat destroyer Monahan at Boston.
